SOPHOMORE MAGAZINE SALES

Once again this year, the sophomores sold magazine subscriptions. They did not reach their goal, which was $3,500, but they did make $2529.36. The goal for each homeroom was $874. Homeroom totals were as follows: Mrs. Barbour, $701.43; Mrs. Burnette, $552.88; Mr. Hickman, $310.90; and Mrs. Lassiter, $922.21.

The homeroom captains were Ann Sloan, Mrs. Burnette's homeroom; Shelley Castleberry, Mrs. Barbour's homeroom; Dee Wellons, Mrs. Lassiter's homeroom; and Janice Parker, Mr. Hickman's homeroom.

Twenty-five percent of the money raised will be set aside for the senior prom for the class of 1968.

The sophomores were proud of the prizes awarded for their work. Steve Bryant, the high salesman, received a cash prize of $30. Janet Shallcross received $20.00 for being second highest salesman, The third high salesman, Janet Sellers, received a prize of $15. The daily high salesman received a "Woolie Bullie". Those receiving "Woolie Bullies" were Dee Wellons, Larry Stallings, Steve Bryant, Rocky Hulth, Galen Blin, Sandra Clayton, Janet Shallcross, Carl Wharton, and Debbie Mason.

Others who received "Woolie Bullies" for selling $25.00 worth of 50% magazines, in addition to the above named, were Brenda Jones, Sandra Stallings, Charles Avera, Carol Brown, Frances Peterson, Richard Black, and Janet Sellers.

An ice cream party will be given to all those who sold two subscriptions. Other prizes to be awarded are a transistor portable record player, miniature radios, a jumbo "Woolie Bullie", and an all-expense paid weekend trip for six at Wrightsville Beach.
