BCSSES BANQUET GIVEN BY DE STUDENTS

The Distributive Education Club of Smithfield High School held its first annual Bosses Banquet on May 17 at 7:30 P. M. at Nelson's Restaurant. President Bobby Lee of the local club presided. The banquet is held in honor of the local businessmen who have provided distributive education students with jobs so that they might apply what they learned in class with on-the-job training in the field of distribution.

Lou Ellen Blackman, club secretary, introduced guests Edwin M. Reid, Executive Secretary of the Smithfield Chamber of Commerce; Mr. E. S. Simpson, Superintendent of Schools; Mr. B. F. Sloan, Principal of Smithfield High School; and Mrs. Margy Hornaday, Guidance Director. Each club member then introduced his employer.

Entertainment for the evening consisted of two musical selections presented by Miss Sandra Allen. She was accompanied on the piano by Miss Glenda Sullivan and sang "Stranger in Paradise" and "More".

The highlight of the evening came when certificates of appreciation were awarded to the following business firms: A&P Food Store, Baldwin's, Leder-Hamilton Department Store, Progressive Food Store, Rose's Variety Store, Smithfield Drug Company, Wilson Chevrolet Company, Western Auto Associate Store, and Winn-Dixie Food Store.

RED LETTER DAY IN ASSEMBLY

Mr. Sloan opened the program by announcing the marshals for next year. The marshals are Shelley Castleberry, chief; Cathy Lewis, Carol Grantham, Edith Whitley, Polly Pace, Stephen Woodard, Ann Sloan, Janet Sellers, Jean Woodruff, Larry Stallings, and Sue Stewart.

Next on the program was entertainment. The "Cool Ones" at the "Red Door" included Jane Holt, Sylvia Hamilton, Gail Evans, Kathy Batten, Gloria Little, and Bob Kuebler, the "girl" with the red dress on. Beryl Wells "shrieked" a song about pigeon poisoning walks in the park.

The Junior Varsity cheerleaders led one cheer and the Varsity cheerleaders declared that the students had signed a truce with Mr. Sloan.

Mr. Brown presented Varsity football, track, Junior Varsity basketball, and weight lifting awards. Bob Kuebler and Carl Wharton were recognized for leadership in track.

The Varsity girls' basketball awards were presented by Mr. Payne. Mr. Payne also presented awards and a trophy to the baseball team, who were Capital Area Conference winners.

Mr. Floyd presented the golf awards.

The Junior Varsity football players and Varsity basketball players were presented awards by Mr. Pope.

The girls' Junior High basketball awards, the Junior Varsity, and the Varsity cheerleaders awards were presented by Mrs. Price.

The outstanding football award went to Carlton Overby. In track the outstanding award went to Chris Finch. Ronnie
