IREDELL CITIZEN

A FEW OLD MEMORIES, some salvaged materials, some serious assistance from friends and family resulted in a humpty-back bridge coming to the 100-year-old Starrette farm in east Iredell. The bridge, along with the water mill and miles of trails, rounds out the park-like 50-acre family farm.

We'll start with the memories. Ray and Sandi Starrette had fond memories of travels in Scotland and humpty-back bridges there.
