

Turner and Bailey Gave Presentation on Scott's Rosenwald School

Teresa B. Turner and Phyllis A. Bailey will make a presentation on the Scott's Rosenwald School, the Rosenwald Foundation and educational opportunities made available to blacks at Scotts Community Recreation Center on Tuesday, Oct. 5, at 7 p.m. Turner and Bailey have done extensive research back to the 1860s on blacks in Iredell County and attended the Scotts Rosenwald School and Unity High School.

The pair's research and history are included in several articles in the Iredell Heritage Book (vol. 2) and they have made presentations of their research to the NC Historical Preservation, the Rosenwald meeting last winter in Raleigh and the Iredell Genealogical Society over the past year.

Turner holds a bachelor of science degree in business administration and a master's degree from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. She is retired, after teaching for 30 years in the Iredell County Schools.

Bailey holds a bachelor of science degree from Livingstone College, a master's in public administration from the State University of New York at Albany, and had taken additional graduate courses at various colleges within the state's university system. She teaches developmental math at Mitchell Community College.

The public is invited to the presentation. For additional information call Peggy Woods at 704-585-2515.
