

Iredell CITIZEN

Spelling Bee
Pages 4-5

Angel Food
Pages 14-15

Volume 9, Number 46 • 28 Pages

MARCH 1, 2007

704-872-1200 • editor@iredellcitizen.com

Statesville, NC 28677 • 50¢

Published Weekly in the Crossroads of the Carolinas

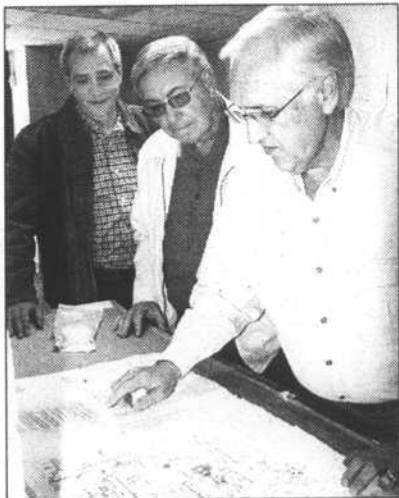

A facelift for Old Long's Hospital was...

Just What the Doctor Ordered

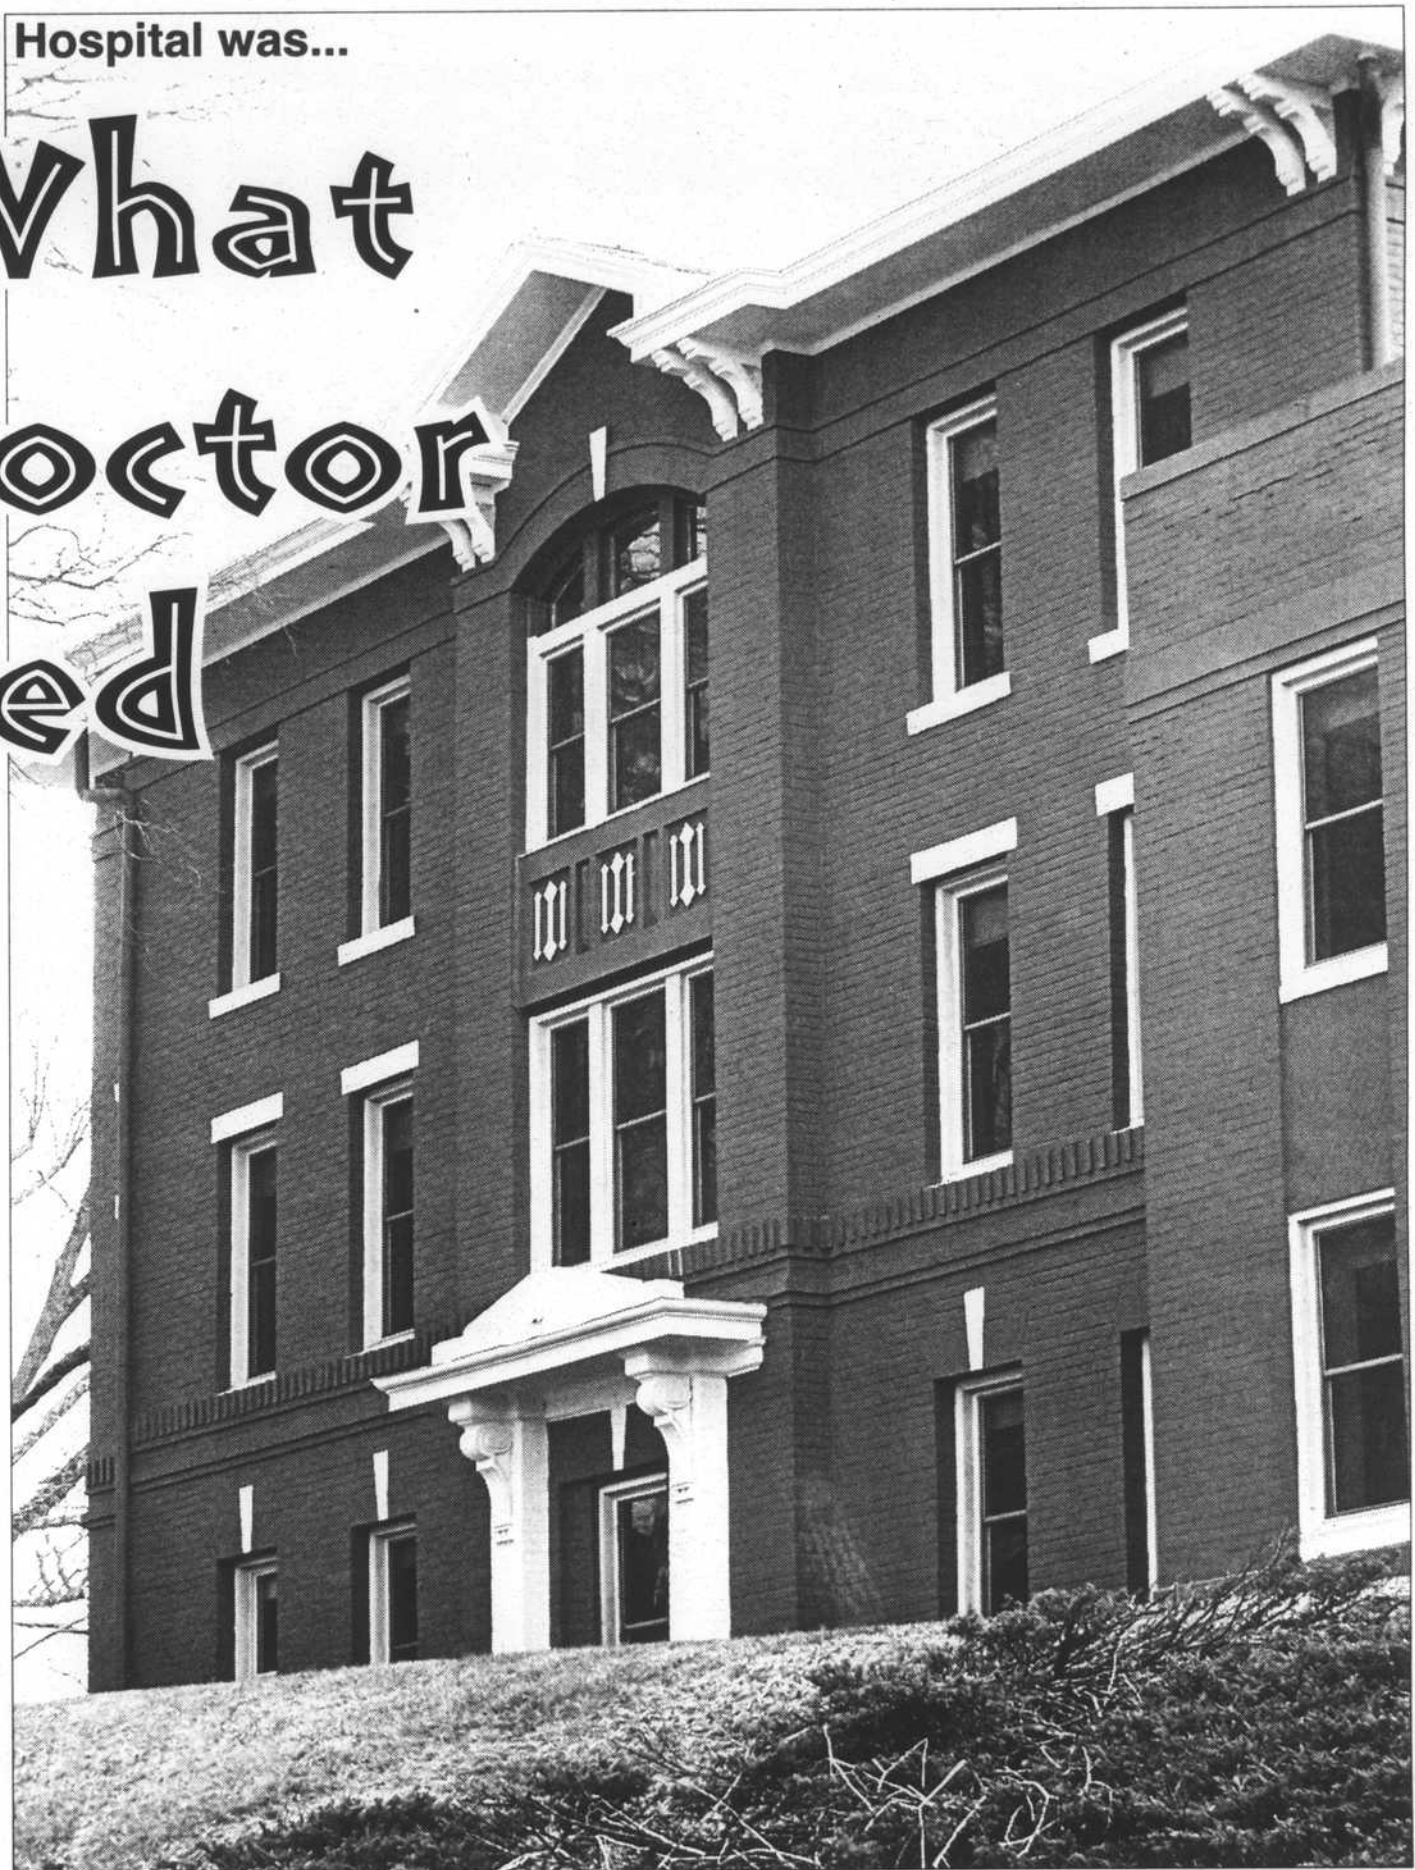

Lee Ann Sherrill
IREDELL CITIZEN

IT'S BEEN OVER 100 YEARS SINCE DR. HENRY FLETCHER LONG built the first individually owned hospital in North Carolina on the tall hill on North Center Street. Over those years the hospital has housed numerous public offices and before long will be the home of Iredell County's Zoning, Inspections, Permits, Planning, Mapping, Review and Fire Marshal's Offices.

See Old Hospital page 12

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS from left, Steve Johnson and Godfrey Williams and County Manager Joel Mashburn look over the plans for the old Long's Hospital.

Lee Ann Sherrill/CITIZEN

HF LONG HOSPITAL RECENTLY HAD A MAKEOVER just in time for the county's zoning, inspections, permits, review and fire marshal's offices to move in.