

American Child Day Care Celebrates Fourth of July

KOHL WAHRMUND ENJOYS the ride during the American Child, Inc. Fourth of July Parade downtown on Friday, June 29. The parade included kids, staff, parents, grandparents and special friends.

Lee Ann Sherrill/CITIZEN
REAGAN STACEY brought along her dolly for the parade.

NINE MONTH OLD FREEMAN WALLACE GETS pulled in his wagon by great-grandfather and World War II veteran Howard Rhyne.

KENDELL LIPE, ROSS HOLLIFIELD and Randy Joseph Holleman stop for a moment during the parade.

Correction

In our June 28 story, about the North Carolina Jersey Breeders Association field day, we incorrectly spelled the names of Wayne and Karen Lutz, hosts of the event at Deerview Jersey Farm in Davie County. We should also have said monies raised from the auction went toward sponsoring the 2008 National Jersey meeting next year in North Carolina, instead of Virginia.

The Evening Farmer's Market at Pecan Park

Every Thursday April - October
4 p.m. till...

at pecan park in historic downtown Statesville. Fresh local produce, flowers, herbs, plants, homemade baked goods and a variety of crafts from local artisans are sold.

Support your local farmers!

BESIDE FIRST ARP CHURCH

J & J Towing

2014 Shelton Ave.
Statesville, NC 28677

24 hour towing & auto repairs available

704-872-2968
1-800-283-7481

Auto Repairs
704-878-2597

Memory Foam Mattresses from $399

- Factory Outlet in Uptown Troutman
- Adjustable Comfort and Support
- Over 250,000 shipped Nationwide

Without hesitation, I refer my patients to Troutman Mercantile!
-Alan Hartley-Ph.D., DC

704-528-7166

Mon - Fri
8am - 5pm

Troutman Mercantile

A Sleep X, LLC Company