Hope House Foundation Announces New Director

Deborah Kingsberry

HUNTERSVILLE- The Hope House Foundation, a non-profit organization that provides transitional housing and support for single women and single mothers with children for Iredell and other Lake Norman areas, has hired Deborah Kingsberry as executive director.

Kingsberry's initial responsibilities include overseeing the details surrounding the opening of the Hope House for its initial residents. She will also oversee program implementation, staff recruitment and the planning and coordinating of Hope House Foundation's fundraising efforts. In addition, she will serve as the organization's liaison with the Lake Norman community and work closely with the organizations that will provide supporting services to Hope House residents.

of the Hope House Foundation, said. "We are extremely fortunate to have Deborah as the executive director for the Hope House. With her background and experience, she will be an extraordinary asset."

Deborah has over 26 years of experience in the areas of program administration and management, social work and counseling with all socio-economic and ethnic backgrounds, and organizational development with services for women in transition.

Located in Huntersville at 15604 Northcross Drive, the Hope House Foundation will open its first residence, the Hope House, in late summer. The Hope House will welcome women from all walks of life and offer stays of up to six months.
