

PROCONIAN

Vol. XV—No. 5

Chapel Hill High School, Chapel Hill, N. C.

Thursday, November 2, 1944

Juniors Surpass Goal In Magazine Sales

Students Approve Point System

The Student Council representatives from the High School home rooms have brought the Point System, decided upon last year, to the attention of the school again.

The offices and the numbers of points now stand as follows: President of the Student Council, 8; Vice-President, 4; Secretary, 5; Treasurer, 8; Student Council representative, 2; President of Senior class, 7; Vice-President, 2; Secretary, 3; Treasurer, 4; President of Junior class, 4; Treasurer of Junior class, 4; Editor of Annual, 8; Business Manager of Annual, 7; Editor of Proconian, 7; Associate Editor of Proconian, 2; Business Manager of Proconian, 4; Art Editor of Proconian, 3; President of F.F.A., 5.

Meeting To Be Held

The annual North Carolina Student Council Conference will be held November 14 and 15 in High Point.

Attending the conference from Chapel Hill High School will be Mr. Honeycutt, faculty advisor; Helen Jane Wettach, Ardie Hamilton, Bill Browné, Barbara Cashion, and Johnny Gobbel as Student Council representatives. They will be housed by members of the High Point High School.

For entertainment the group is planning a banquet and a dance on Tuesday evening.

The theme of the conference is "Better Student-Teacher Relations."

On to Bragtown

Tomorrow night at 8:00 o'clock Chapel Hill High will play Bragtown in Durham. This is the first time in three years that a C.H. H.S. football team has played un-

Honeycutt Carries Double Load As Superintendent and Principal

Ever since coming to Chapel Hill High School in 1937, Mr. A. W. Honeycutt has had his hands full with his duties as superintendent. But this year this popular school official is carrying a double load in serving also as principal. So in an effort to find out what enables this gentleman to handle these two jobs effectively, at once the Proconian decided to investigate. An interview produced the following information.

Mr. Honeycutt, it seems, was born in Bald Cheek, N. C., on July 11, 1882. His father was a Baptist minister and was prominent in North Carolina religious circles. His primary schooling completed, Mr. Honeycutt entered Mars Hill College where he remained for several years before transferring to Wake Forest, where he received his degree of Bachelor of Science.

(See HONEYCUTT, page 4)

Lyons Leads Field Selling $286 Worth

The sale of magazine subscriptions by the Junior class was over on Friday the 27th. The total amount of money collected on the sales was $926. Out of this the class earned $357.70.

The class was divided into two teams, with David Sharpe as the captain of the boys' team, and Margaret Taylor as captain of the girls' team. It was decided before the sales began that the losing team would give the winning team a party.

The girls' team sold the largest number of magazines, and both the high prizes went to the girls. Elizabeth Lyons earned $10 for selling $286 worth of magazines and Margaret Taylor won the second prize of $5 for collecting $103.

New Junior Kiwanians Named by Council

The Student Council at its last meeting, Thursday, October 26, nominated five Junior Kiwanians. They decided not to vote on three of them as was suggested, but to send all of them in the order in which they were nominated.

Harry Pendergraph, Bill Carmichael, Johnny Gobbel, Harold Cannon and Bill Browne were chosen for the next ten weeks. Each of them will attend two meetings. Harry Pendergraph will attend the meeting of October 31.

Alumni Notes

Mutt Thrift, who was home on furlough this week, is now stationed in California.

Jack Lloyd and Buddy Wombles have been home for the past two week-ends. They are stationed at Camp Lejeune in New River, N. C.

Gene Crawford and Bobby Wettach, leaders in the class of 1941, are home on 10 day leaves. Both are in the V-12 training program.

Girl Reserves Hold Recognition Services

Last Thursday evening in the Methodist Church, the Girl Reserves of Chapel Hill held a combined Installation Service for the new officers and a Recognition Service for the new members.

Last year's officers, Barbara Cashion, Frances Ellinger, Helen Jame Wettach, and Pat Sullivan, turned their duties over respectively to Helen Phillips, president; Margaret Curry, vice-president; Margaret Taylor, secretary; and Jean Cashion, treasurer.

The fourteen new girls were recognized in the traditional candlelight service, which followed a Litany and a short talk by Miss McLeod, assistant to the Dean of Women at the University.