Seawell's Home Room Wins Bond Contest

Students Get View Of Chemical Warfare

A chemical warfare demonstration and war bond rally was held on Fetzer Field Tuesday afternoon.

Soldiers from Camp Butner, through arrangement with Col. H. M. Pool, post commanding officer, put on the show. Local arrangements were in the charge of Lt. Comdr. W. C. Clark of the Pre-Flight School and H. W. Wentworth of the munitions plant of Carrboro.

The 225th Army Ground Forces band, under direction of Chief Warrant Officer Chauncey V. Kelly accompanied the chemical warfare team at Chapel Hill and played during the program.

The demonstration consisted of laying smoke screens, the use of colored smoke signaling and hand grenades in chemical warfare, and the use of giant flame throwers.

Plans Announced For Proconival; Popularity Contest Begins Friday

It was decided recently, that the Proconival, sponsored by the entire Proconian staff, will be held on Saturday, December 16, in the Tin Can for all school students and townspeople.

One of the attractions of the Proconival will be the auction of candid shots taken of CHHS students by the staff photographers. An enlargement of each photo will go to the highest bidder.

The highlight of the whole evening will be the announcement and crowning of the King and Queen of Chapel Hill High School. A booth is to be set up for the preliminary election in the elementary school basement Friday, and voters may cast their ballots for any boy and girl in high school. The persons with the highest number of votes will automatic-

Sophomores Have Treasure Hunt

Recently the Sophomore class was entertained with a treasure hunt which was sponsored by the Recreation Center. The participants were divided into three groups for the hunt and the winning group was led by John Carroll. Between them a box of Hershey candy bars was divided.

Immediately after the hunt the Sophomores took part in a weiner roast and informal games.

The party was planned by a committee composed of Meg Curry, Adrian Lineberger, Jean Cashion, Frank Pittman, and Gordon Ingwerson under the supervision of Miss Catherine Cook of the Recreation Center.

Display At Rose's Takes First Place

A prominent group of Chapel Hill merchants and business men headed by Mr. Vic Huggins, last Monday night officially declared Miss Seawell's Eighth Grade homeroom winner of the local 6th War Loan Drive window-dressing contest. The Eighth Grade display is located in Rose's Five and Ten.

A total of eleven homerooms, representing both Junior and Senior high school, competed for the prizes which consisted of a War Bond and fourteen dollars worth of War Stamps. Besides receiving the bond, Miss Seawell's homeroom will also receive a free movie party with the compliments of Mr. E. C. Smith, manager of the Carolina Theatre.

Other prize winners in the contest were Miss Crenshaw's 12th grade homeroom (Andrews-Hennings) second prize of $6.00 in War Stamps; Mrs. Brabham's Freshman homeroom (Carolina Men's Shop) third prize of $4.50 in War Stamps; and Mrs. Blackwelder's eighth grade homeroom (Electric Construction Co.) fourth prize of $3.50 in War Stamps.

Mr. Huggins said, on behalf of the merchants of Chapel Hill, that he was very grateful for the extreme interest shown by the different homerooms and complimented them on having done a fine job for such a worthy cause. The majority of windows, he said, showed a great deal of thought and planning and a lot of hard work.

Alumni Notes

Clyde Carroll has returned to Chapel Hill on a fifteen-day leave. Others at home on a weekend pass are: Marines Dan Pickett, Buddy Womble and Max Edney; and Seaman Charles Hollaway.
