

Wildcat Teams Drop First Round Contests

Gibsonville Too Much For Girls

The girls' basketball season ended last Friday night (ker-plop) with the game against the Gibsonville sextet. The C. H. H. S. girls played a spirited (and how!, note the number of fouls) game, but were outclassed all the way. The highest scorer for Chapel Hill was Dot Hogan who rang up a total of 8 points. Twenty-two points were scored by the Gibsonvilletes, leaving the final tally at 22 to 11 in favor of guess who.

Starting for Chapel Hill were forwards, Dot Hogan, Evelyn Merritt, and Betty Sparrow; guards, Barbara Cashion, Jackie Merritt and Jackie Scott. Bootsie Taylor and Ardie Hamilton substituted for guard positions, and Helen Phillips substituted at forward.

In the first second of her playing time, "Tuff" Taylor fouled. "Hamfat" Hamilton likewise fouled, no less than twice. In fact, everybody that played fouled at least once (which is unusual, heh, heh, heh), "Careless" Cashion especially. Jackie Scott played such a good game that the opposition had her removed from the court.

"Yang" nearly threw a fit at the "ref"; but afterwards stated that she thought the girls (C. H. H. S.) had played a good game.

Burlington 'B' Team Upsets Hillians

Chapel Hill's Wildcats dropped their opener in the Burlington Invitation Basketball tournament to the Burlington High "B" team, 24-22.

The contest was a heart-breaker for the Hillians as the contest was won on a last-minute field goal. The 'Cats had high hopes of copping the tourney title. However, every team has its bad day and that just happened to be their off-day.

The same Burlington quint had been previously defeated by Chapel Hill's "B" squad. As one might imagine, the upset was a hard blow to the Hillians.

The "game" was played in Banner Warehouse in Burlington and the final score was 24-22 in favor of the Burlington "B" team.
