

Around C. H. H. S.

Well, well, sprig hab cumb—and the flowers are blooming, and the birds are singing and the girls are playing softball. The latter sort of ruins the picture, doesn't it?

Everybody around here has been spring house-cleaning. First Miss Mancini, then the S. C. and finally Miss Anderson got her Junior homeroom cleaned up. Mouse Face Teague looks so different without a "suntan!"

And speaking of suntans, Ham has started worrying about hers already. As if she didn't look like one anyway!

At the picnic last Saturday more fun was had and more people nearly killed. Mouse Face was "caught in the act" by Gobbel. For more details, see Gobbel—Teague's still blushing.

Among the numerous casualties was Corny Carmichael—with his face. . . he was in over his head.

Just for the record:

The idea for last week's column was gotten from the quizzes in Seventeen. (I have to put the blame on somebody!)

Also, to any teacher who might have read some article, I should like to state that there were no ulterior motives behind the "quiz" and that it was meant purely in a joking spirit. (Pretty feeble attempt at humor!) I guess that's looking after my poisonous grades—heh, heh, heh.

Look down, look down, that lone-some road, before you travel on. (The pun directly above was accidental and not intended as such.)

"AROUND C.H.H.S." this heading says, but this heading doesn't know the half of it. It doesn't even stay in the dark atmosphere three hours, much less nearly six. And

Train Buster

Four 20 millimeter cannon have made the North American P-51 Mustang fighters (similar to the one shown above) the scourge of Axis transportation on land and sea. Mustangs have won the nickname of "train busters" for their record of destroying scores of enemy locomotives in Occupied Europe.

are we "around the high school"? Those boys we chase just will run in circles.

With all the disillusionment that RAIN brings, it's a wonder people say anything. But I guess what with mouths and tongues and things, people just gotta talk.

Seniors are saying; Unknown girl: "Gotta test next period, and I don't know a darn thing!" Billy Carmichael: "I'm gonna sue. I swear, I'm gonna sue!" (with his face we'd sue, too). Helen Philips: "Do you realize that our class—!" Hal Cannon: "Aw please, forgot to do my homework!" Bill Browne: "Have you seen Phyllis around?" Jack Sparrow: "Duh!"

Juniors are saying: Houston Teague: "Sir, you have my word as President of the Junior class, cross my heart, hope to die. Phtoo!" Guess who: "With that face I'd — too!" Carlyle Markham: "Mrs. Macon, in this book it said something else!" Ardie Hamilton: "S'tuff."

Sophomores say: Preston Carroll: "The next time you put me in Keyhole, Blankity-blank!" Evelyn Gooch and Billie Lou Ray: "We are not sisters!" Jean Cashion: "Why?" (That's what we'd like to know.)

Frosh sayings: Being still confused by wonders (?) in our high school, they ain't talking!
