PARAGRAPHS

Prosperity must be here again. At least we have a cafeteria and a sound projector now.

And now has passed one of the most important events of the school year, the students-faculty basketball game. Proceeds go to the Student Council and the Athletic Association. Wonder if Mr. Hendren threw the ball from a right angle!

Some people have a veneer that comes off very easily with a little alcohol----New York World Telegram

Speaking of the Student Council, it seems that Bob C. has really landed a change. Nice work, S. C. members and Odessa; we needed it.

Some men would look more spic if they didn't have so much span.
Chicago Daily Tribune

And if you don't read Haps-Mishaps and would really like to know who was responsible for getting the bicycles removed from the front of the building, I'll tell you, Bob Cherry!!

I kissed my first woman and smoked my first cigarette on the same day, since then I have never smoked.----Colliers

Oh Kay went off with a bang or shall I say with a telephone ring? Gram and Gramp were "the stars."

She dealt her pretty words like blades.----E. Dickinson

First Bluebeard, then Saporoff, Bob Eanes, and the Big Applers. If you're asking, ye paragrapher thinks our chapel programmes have been greatly improved over last year! And what about Frer Tucker's medicine show?

Good fences make good neighbors.----R. Frost
