Catholic Daughters Get Large New Class At Raleigh Cathedral

RALEIGH—Following the beautiful and impressive ritual of the Catholic Daughters of America, Court Bishop Hafey, No. 1088, initiated the largest group of members in its history on Sunday afternoon, April 20, in the auditorium of the Sacred Heart Cathedral School.

The new members included

Mesdames Paul B. Griffin, Jr., H. D. Sanford, Larry W. Hays, David Meyers, Daniel Brady, Lucille Poole, R. J. Roy, C. F. Garges, Joseph D. Devine, James H. Higgs, Ernest Edelen, T. P. Maus, John S. Keen, Charles Powers, Frank Jones, Mary Frances Tomb, Winnie Nemmers, all of Raleigh, and Miss Kathryn A. McMahon and Mrs. Sarah J. Lorensen of Southern Pines.

Mrs. John W. Kane, Grand Regent of Court Bishop Hafey, presided over the initiation ceremonies.

Immediately following Benediction in Sacred Heart Cathedral, a reception was held in the club room of the Sacred Heart Cathedral School. The purple and gold colors of the Catholic Daughters of America were used in arrangements of large crystal bowls of flowers for the table decorations, burning candles and place cards. Ice cream, home made cakes, mints nuts and hot coffee were served to approximately sixty-five members of Court Bishop Hafey, members of the clergy, and out-of-town guests.

The reception committee included Mesdames Lillian Streb, C. J. Emnet, L. C. Murchison, J. J. Fallon, B. A. Dubois, P. B. Edelen and Peter Ellison.

Interesting talks were made by Monsignor J. Lennox Federal and the Reverend Father Charles J. O'Connor of the Sacred Heart Cathedral, and Miss Elizabeth Bulard, Territorial Deputy of the Catholic Daughters of America, of Wilmington.

Other guests included the Reverend Father John S. Regan, Assistant Superintendent of Catholic Orphanage at Nazareth, Mrs. J. William Brown, and Misses Nell and Mary Sheehan of Wilmington.

Monsignor J. Lennox Federal paid especial tribute to Mrs. James P. Mallette, Monitor of Court Bishop Hafey, who was responsible for the majority of the new members.

The rostrum of the auditorium was converted into a beautiful altar to our Blessed Lady. A profusion of white spirea, dogwood blossoms, white and purple lilac, purple wisteria, and six seven-branched candelabra holdings burning what candles were used.

Wilson Altar Society Entertains Men's Group

WILSON — The ladies of St. Therese Altar Society entertained the gentlemen of the parish at a delicious supper in the convent hall Sunday. The Rev. Father Arthur Racette asked the blessing. After supper a social meeting was held, preparing to organize a Catholic men's club of the parish. A formal meeting will be held in May, at which time officers will be elected.

Mrs. M. J. Bird, Mrs. Mitchell B. Farris and Mrs. Leslie Farris were hostesses for the evening. There were about thirty present for the delightful affair.

NCCLA Gives Library To Charlotte Hospital For Mercy Patients

CHARLOTTE — A donation of books was presented to the Mercy Hospital Rolling Library by the NCCLA. The rolling library will be conducted by the members of the Mercy Hospital Guild.

A group of children's books was presented to the children's ward. In addition to the books, a number of magazines and other booklets were given.

The books included novels, such as "The Firebrand of the Indies," by Seth-Smith, about St. Francis Xavier, "The Candlestick Makers," by Lucille Borden, and others. Spiritual and biographical books were "Gay Legends of the Saints," by Fox, "Life of Christ," by O'Brien, "Radiating Christ," by Raoul Plus, S.J., "The Rainbow of Sorrow," by Fulton J. Sheen, "Peace" by Father Lasance, "From Doubt to Faith," by Father Tournebise, "The Hound of Heaven" by Francis Thompson, "The Missions in War and Peace" by Bishop Cushing, and a number of others.

The rolling library conducted by the Guild was discontinued during the war, and will be resumed in the near future. Other donations of books of all types will be gratefully received by the Guild.
