Washington, D.C. — Thomas E. Murray, former member of the Atomic Energy Commission, has been selected to receive the Cardinal Gibbons Medal, highest honor of the Alumni Association of The Catholic University of America. The announcement was made by John L. Schroeder, national president of the Association. Presentation will be made on November 15 at the annual banquet climaxing homecoming activities.

In 1954, Catholic University bestowed upon Mr. Murray an honorary degree with the citation reading, in part: "The Catholic University of America with deep appreciation of the incalculable services which the Honorable Thomas Edward Murray, distinguished engineer and outstanding Catholic layman; is rendering to our courtry, takes pleasure in conferring upon him the degree of Doctor of Science honoris causa." Mr. Murray has been similarly honored by other universities and colleges.

He is holder of Notre Dame's Lactare Medal, the 1956 Catholic Peace Award, the Catholic Action Medal of St. Bonaventure University, the Catholic Youth Organization and Christopher Awards and the Engineer of the Year Medal from Yale University. He also received a special award from the United States Government as inventor of a method of manufacturing shells during World War II, one of his more than 200 patented inventions.

The speaker, Dr. Franklin Dunham, chief of radio-television for the U.S. Office of Education, Washington, D.C., added, however, that religion, on the whole, has "used television very well."

Dr. Durham hit out strongly against "get-rich-quick quiz programs" which, he said, "bring strong batteries of brash materialism to attack our concept of Christian education." He said that, in his opinion, such programs do "far more harm than television does by glorifying so-called beauty contests."

Dr. Dunham is among 26 lay and clerical authorities from throughout the United States and Canada who this week are addre ing the annual gathering of bish-ops, priests, sisters, laymen and laywomen on a wide variety of topics relating to the Catholic Church. The program, which ends Saturday, is presided over by the Most Rev. Vincent S. Waters, D.

D., bishop of Raleigh.
In another address, the Rev.
John C. Schultz of Holy Cross College, Washington, D.C., scored the idea that "monasteries and convents have a corner on the mar-ket of mental prayer." Father Schultz said the concept of mental prayer is erroneously understood to be something "complex, remote from the laity." On the contrary, he said, it amounts to "simply thinking about God."

Other speakers Wednesday were the Very Rey John J Dougherty

the Very Rev. John J. Dougherty of Immaculate Conception Semiof Immaculate Conception Seminary, Darlington, N.J., whose topic was "The Bible in Contemporary Catholic Thought"; the Rev. William G. Most of Loras College, Dubuque, Iowa, who spoke on "Mary in Our Life," and the Rev. Robert E. Sheridan, Maryknoll priest from Boston, Mass., who spoke on the life of the late Rev. Thomas Price, a co-founder of the Maryknoll Fathers. Price, a co-fo knoll Fathers.
