Pope Opens Third Session

By Patrick Riley

Vatican City — (NC) — Pope Paul VI opened the third session of the Ecumenical Council with a ringing reassertion of the role of the Church's bishops as "the teachers, rulers and sanctifiers of the Christian people."

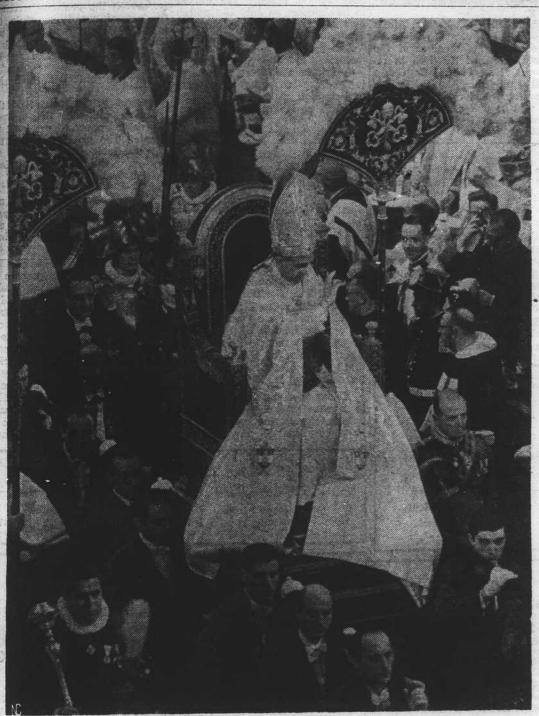

As if to back up his words by a striking action, he concelebrated the session's opening Mass (Sept. 14) with 24 council fathers, including two Americans, Archbishops Lawrence J. Sheran of Baltimore and John J. Krol of Philadelphia.

Several times and in several ways he said in his opening address that the principal task of the third session will be the central task of the Second Vatican Council itself — to round out the First Vatican Council's incomplete teaching on the nature of the and John J. Krol of Philadelphia. Church by explaining the nature Several times and in several and function of the bishops as ways he said in his opening adsuccessors of the apostles.

(The First Vatican Council [1896-70] defined only the primacy and the infallibility of the pope.)

POPE PAUL VI IN PROCESSION — For the opening of the third session of Vatican Council II, the Pope, attended by members of the College of Cardinals, vested in the papal apartments above St. Peter's, and went to adore the Blessed Sacrament in the Vatican's Pauline chapel. Then the Holy Father mounted gestatorial chair and was carried down the royal staircase to the front porch of the Vatican basilica. Before entering the church proper, Pope Paul dismounted from the portable throne, and walked down the nave of St. Peter's between the rows of standing Council Fathers.

U.S. Priest Impressed by Congress Plans

Bombay — (NC) — Chicagoborn Msgr. Paul Marcinkus, a member of the Papal Secretariat of State, said during a visit here that he is impressed with the preparations for the 38th International Eucharistic Congress which will open in Bombay Nov. 28.

Msgr. Marcinkus came to Bombay with Father Joseph Missaglia, general consultor of the Blessed Sacrament Fathers, for a visit which touched off new speculation that Pope Paul VI would come to India for the congress. The rumors were denied by the Vatican press office.

Msgr. Marcinkus said he was particularly impressed by the assistance given to the congress by non-Christian citizens, by the Indian government and by the government of Maharashtra state.

My dear Brethren:

Sunday, September 20th has been designated as Confraternity Sunday in the Diocese of Raleigh. This is done so that we might see the important work that has been accomplished by the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine and the possibilities that we have in this organization of fulfilling Our Lord's mandate to "Go forth and teach all nations."

Under the sponsorship of the North Carolina Catholic Laymen's Association, the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine has made great progress in the Diocese of Raleigh during the past twelve years. There remains, however, much work to be done. This work is one of the greatest fields for exercising the apostolic spirit of the layman.

To promote the work of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, we established the Diocesan Office with a Priest-Director. This office has been at the disposal of every pastor and every parishioner in our Diocese, aiding in the establishment and the furthering of the work of the Confraternity. We have had the valuable assistance of the Mission Helpers of the Sacred Heart and the Mary Missioners in this great work.

To succeed in the work of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, we need first of all your active support on the local level, your personal commitment to the Confraternity and your support of the Diocesan Office of the Confraternity.

Each year we have appealed to you for funds to support this work and again this year we are appealing to you. Your support is necessary in order that the work of the Diocesan Office might grow and that it may be of greater assistance to you in every parish of the Diocese.

Please help your Bishop and your Diocese accomplish the purpose of restoring all things in Christ by making a generous contribution to the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine collection to be taken in every parish of the Diocese on Sunday, September 20th. Your generosity and interest will provide the means to accomplish our goal — to bring all men to Christ.

Wishing you God's choicest blessings, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Vinnet & Haters

Vincent S. Waters Bishop of Raleigh
