John D. Helms

Asheville Student Wins State Award In Science Fair

John D. Helms, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Helms of 1 Deer-view Lane, Asheville, North Carolina received a special award from NASA at the North Carolina State Science Fair in Raleigh recently.

John was one of 70 students participating in the State Science Fair. His physics project on Speech Compression gained him one of the ten places of Honor at the District Fair at Western Carolina College, Cullowhee, North Carolina, which entitled him to entrance into the State Fair. John is a senior student at Asheville Catholic High School and plans to study Electrical Engineering at North Carolina State University at Raleigh upon graduation.

John is the second Asheville Catholic student to win recognition at the State Science Fair. Peter Harmatuk, from Bridgeton, N.C., and at present studying for the priesthood for the Diocese of Raleigh at the Josephinum Pontifical Seminary in Ohio, won Honorable Mention at the State Science Fair in 1965 and also received a special award from the North Carolina Geological Society. Peter is a 1965 graduate from Asheville Catholic High School and St. John Vianney Pre-Seminary.

New Bern Senior Wins Scholarship

Winston-Salem — Miss Ann Cleveland Poot, daughter of John Edward Poot of 2600 W. High Street, New Bern, is among the 36 high school seniors who have been awarded a George Foster Hankins Scholarship at Wake Forest College, announced William G. Starling, director of admissions.

The scholarships range in potential four-year value from $1,200 to $4,800. The program was started in 1955 through income from a more than one million dollar estate left the college by Col. George Foster Hankins of Lexington.

Miss Poot, a student at New Bern High School, is a member of the National Honor Society, French Club, Latin Club and Nurses Club. She also is a member of the Senior Girls' Tri Chi. She is a member of St. Paul's Church in New Bern.

Knights of Columbus Roundup

Edited By Duane A. Russell
State Public Relations Chairman

S-O-S can mean several things, like 'Save Our Ship — Save Our Souls, or Save Our Sons, but to Knights of Columbus members throughout North Carolina and over the nation, it means but one thing: Stamp out smut! Councils throughout the nation are actively engaged in this campaign against the sale of indecent literature and related pictures. This battle being waged against the formidable forces responsible for the publication and distribution of this SMUT that floods the newsstands and the corner drug store etc., is a hard fight. Our Order has already won a significant victory in the Supreme Court decision in the Ginsburg case in New York.

This is only the beginning. The Knights of Columbus, with the support of all peoples of all faiths, are making headway in this all-out fight against filth. Civic, fraternal and religious bodies, and many more organizations, have lined up with the Knights in this crusade. It will be a long and vigorous fight, but it will be won in the end. In the near future there will be a report from our State Chairman of Indecent Literature as to how far the State Councils have proceeded with the campaign.

SANTA MARIA COUNCIL 2829, WINSTON SALEM, has elected RAYMOND A. ROHLFS and LEON BARRERE as delegates, and ALPHONSE D. DAYE and RALPH DEPPERSCHMIDT as alternates to the State Convention in NEW BERN ON MAY 13, 14, 15.

A large attendance of Sir Knights and their Ladies was expected for the dance and banquet of Fourth Degree members of BISHOP MCGUINNESS GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF RALEIGH, which was held Saturday evening, April 30 at the NCO Club at GOLDSBORO. It was not a regular meeting but one of several socials the Assembly conducts each year. The social was to honor the many new Sir Knights in the Goldsboro area and the Assembly members in the SEYMOUR JOHNSON AIR FORCE BASE community.

Sir candidates were exemplified in the First Degree at ceremonies held by NEW BERN COUNCIL 3303 on Sunday, April 17. Following the 11 a.m. Mass at St. Paul's Church there was dinner at the Holiday Inn. Guests at the exemplification included Sir Knights DAVID L. REYNOLDS, District Deputy; CHARLES L. SMYTH, Grand Knight of Fr. William O'Byrne Council 3574, and DUANE A. RUSSELL, SPRC., all from Jacksonville. . . . The Council cleared $100.00 on their St. Patrick's Day Dinner, according to a report from Brother Callan at their last regular business meeting. At this meeting the guest speakers were SISTER JOSEPH CLARE AND SISTER MARIE, who gave an interesting talk on the work of the Vatican Council. . . All layouts for the Convention Program are in the hands of the printers as you read this. Brothers RAY KAR-EM and BRUCE RUSSELL handled the layouts, and special thanks were extended to Brother JOE BRITCH for having sold the largest number of advertisements. . . . Corporate Communion will be held this Sunday, May 1.

Approximately 100 candidates for the major degrees of the Order and that many more Brother Knights are expected to be in DURHAM today for the exemplification of the Second and Third degrees. They will come from many of the Councils over the State.

FR. O'BYRNE COUNCIL 3574 JACKSONVILLE will send ten or more candidates to DURHAM for their major degrees today, headed by Grand Knight SMYTH. The father of Brother MICHAEL OSTROWSKI, very active in the Council, has come all the way from Brooklyn, N.Y., to see his son receive the major degrees. . . . A check for $621.16 was turned over to Msgr. Lawrence C. Newman, pastor of Infant of Prague Church, by Brother Gerard Del Rosso, as proceeds from the recent Variety Show, sponsored by the men of the parish and the Catholic Daughters. The pastor expressed his appreciation to the co-chairmen George McAlee and Del Rosso, and their committee made up of Brother Dick Carrera, Tom Allen, Maureen Voltz, Jessie Sbracco, Ann Aroganna, Carolyn Corbe, Grace Smith and Grace Quinlan.

BISHOP OFFICIATES

Atchison, Kan. — (NC) — Bishop Charles H. Helmsing of Kansas City-St. Joseph, will speak at the 108th baccalaureate services of St. Benedict's College here May 6 and participate in commencement exercises May 7.
