Annual GL Meeting Nears,
Raleigh is Site in April

Grand Master Nathaniel C. Dean will open Grand Lodge April 16.

Raleigh—Again next month hundreds of Masons will converge here to transact the business of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina. Representing 383 chartered lodges from every corner of the state, these Masons will give their approval or disapproval of every proposition under consideration. They will elect a new Grand Master and five other Grand Lodge officers. They will approve a final budget, deal with proposed changes in Regulations, approve certain appointments, render judgements on various recommendations; they are and will be the main body of the Grand Lodge and the actions they take will chart the course of the Grand Lodge for another twelve months.

Representatives of North Carolina's three newest lodges (now working under dispen-

If gasoline supply is still critical at the time of the Annual Communication, the Grand Lodge has made contingency arrangements to assist those in attendance who experience real problems attempting to obtain adequate gas. If it is necessary to put these arrangements into effect, appropriate announcements will be made during the business sessions.

NOTE: All business sessions of the Grand Lodge will be held in MEMORIAL AUDITORIUM, Raleigh. The sessions will be held as follows: 10:00 A.M. and 2:00 P.M., April 16, 1974; and 9:00 A.M. and 8:00 P.M., April 17, 1974.
