RULES

1—Any reputable man, woman, or child residing in Granville or adjoining counties is eligible to enter this election and compete for the prizes.

2—No employee or members of their immediate family of THE GRANVILLE COUNTY NEWS is eligible to enter this distribution. Correspondents are eligible. The management reserves the right to reject any nominations.

3—The winners will be decided by their accredited votes, said votes being represented by ballots issued on subscriptions, and by coupons clipped from the papers.

4—Candidates are not confined to their own particular town or community in which they can get votes and subscriptions, but may take orders anywhere in this section; or, for that matter, anywhere in the Southern States. Cash must accompany all orders where votes are desired. There will be no exceptions to this rule. Candidates will be allowed to collect subscriptions and renewals as entirely new subscriptions, and votes will be issued on both.

5—Votes are free. It costs the subscriber nothing to vote for their friends. Votes cannot be purchased. Every cent accepted through the election department must represent subscriptions.

6—Votes are not transferable. Candidates cannot withdraw in favor of another candidate. Should a candidate withdraw from the race, his or her votes will be cancelled. Neither will it be permissible for candidates to give or transfer subscriptions to another candidate. Votes on such transferred subscriptions will be subject to disqualification at the discretion of the management.

7—Any collusion on the part of candidates to nullify competitions, or any other combination arrangement or effort to the detriment of candidates, or this newspaper, will not be tolerated. Any candidate or candidates entering or taking part in such an agreement, arrangement, or effort, will forfeit all rights to prize or commission.

8—Any ballots issued on subscriptions may be held in reserve and voted at the discretion of the candidate. The printed coupons appearing from week to week in the paper must be voted before the expiration of the date appearing thereon. No statement or promises made by any solicitor, agent, or candidate varying from the rules and statement published thru the columns of this paper will be recognized by the publisher or campaign management.

9—It is distinctly understood and agreed that candidates will be responsible for all money collected, and they will remit such amounts in full twice a week during the campaign.

10—To insure fairness in awarding the prizes, the race will be brought to a close under a “sealed ballot box” system and will be under the supervision of two or more judges selected from local bankers or business men of good character.

11—The management reserves the right to amend or add to the rules of the election if necessary for the protection of the interests of both the candidates and the newspaper. The right is also reserved to increase and add to the list of prizes.

12—The publisher guarantees fair and impartial treatment to all candidates, but should any question arise, the decision of the management will be absolute and final.

13—Candidates accepting nominations agree to abide by the rules and conditions of the campaign.

14—Advertising cards will be issued to reputable parties without any deposit, but it is understood that candidates securing advertising cards are responsible for same and must pay for any lost or misplaced cards. All unsold advertising cards must be returned before the prizes are awarded, but books paid for and then turned back will count votes the same as cash.
