

"IT CAN BE DONE."

Somebody said that it couldn't be done, Bue he, with a chuckle, replied That maybe it couldn't, but he would be one Who wouldn't say so till he'd tried.

So he buckeled right in, with the trace of a grin
On his face; if he worried he hid it, He started to sing as he tackled the thing That couldn't be done—and he did it.

"WE STUDY THAT WE MAY SERVE."

THE BIBLE.

This book contains the mind of God, the state of sinners and the happiness of believers.
Its doctrines are holy, its histories are true, its precepts are binding and its decisions are immutable.

Read it to be wise, believe it to be safe, and practice it to be holy.

It contains light to direct you, food to support you and comfort to cheer you. It is the traveler's map, the pilgrim's staff, the pilot's compass, the soldier's sword, and the Christian's character.

It should fill the memory, rule the heart and guide the feet. Read it slowly, frequently and prayerfully. It is a mine of wealth, a paradise of glory and a river of pleasure.

B. Y. P. U.

B. Y. P. U. stands for Baptist Young People's Union", or better, "Baptist Young People Utilized."

We are gratified at the good work we believe is done for the young people of Fairfield through this organization. Meetings held each Friday night.

W. M. U.

The Women's Missionary Unions have kept up their regular meetings in Fairfield, North Lake, Engelland and Swanquarter churches this winter. We commend our good women on the good work they keep alive. The Fairfield Y. W.
A. meets monthly.

Fancied ills breed more worriment than do real ones.

We attribute all our successes to ourselves, and all our failures to our circumstances.

Reader! If the Church to which you belong were to be measured by you and all members were as you are, would your Church be an efficient Church?

We should go to Church to devote ourselves to the worship of God. We should live in an Evangelistic atmosphere.

Our EDUCATIONAL IDEAL should ever be to learn more about Jesus and to help others know Him better.

We should gather together as brothers and sisters, and shake hands as if it were a pleasure and not a cross.

What brings about a warmer feeling of fellowship than our mingling together in a social way? The love feasts are not to be neglected.

When we have devoted ourselves to true spiritual worship, having caught the evangelistic spirit, having been enlightened in the knowledge of the Word of God, then are we able to sympathize as brothers and reach out in a social way to share each others burdens. Only when this has come to pass can we show the real Missionary spirit. Not until this Missionary spirit has saturated us can we sacrifice of our life and say, "here am I Lord send me," "here is my silver and my gold. Not a mite will I withhold."

Lazy people are not the ones who make the greatest mistakes. It's the fellow who is going somewhere in dead earnest who must watch his step.

Many favors which God giveth us ravel out for want of hemming; for though prayer pur-chaseth blessings, giving praise doth keep the quiet possession of them.—Fuller.

I haven't got to make over the universe; I've only got to do my own small job, and to look up often at the trees and the hills and the sky and be friendly with all men.

The fruit of the spirit is love, joy, peace long suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness temperance; against such there is no law.—Gal.
5: 22, 23.
