

Honor Roll of the B. Y. P. U. Bible Readers.

We are pleased to publish the names of those who have kept up the Bible readings in the B. Y. P. U. Quarterly for the first quarter of this year. They are as follows:

Edith Jones, Eura Mae Daniels, Sallie Belle Daniels, Ruby Jones, Elsie Jenkins, Mrs. E. R. Stewart.

Our aim for this quarter is to read them daily. They are daily Bible readings.

"Do your Bible reading every day,
Do your Bible reading every day,
Do not hold your union back
You can push her up the track
If you read your Bible every day."

Mrs. E. R. Stewart,
Quiz Leader.

The Oxford orphans will give a concert at Fairfield May 11th, at Engelhard May 12th, and at Swan Quarter May 13th. Hear them!

Your County Paper.

This paper is two years old. With the May issue we begin the third year of its publication. It has a circulation this month of 500 and is still growing.

The only paper published in Hyde.

We wish to thank those who make the publication of this paper possible. Remember, if you have something good for the people of Hyde County send it in and let us publish it.

Advertise your "For Sales" and "Wants" in your county paper. Many people this day and time do their shopping through the columns of the papers.

If you have a criticism tell it to your editor. If you have something good you can say about the paper say it both to the editor and your neighbors.

"B. Y. P. U. MOTTO."

"Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the Word of Truth."—(2 Tim. 2:15).

"We study that we may serve."

Every cent you spend with your neighborhood dealers helps to build up the community you live in.

I WAS RECOGNIZED AT CHURCH LAST SUNDAY—I LIKE TO GO TO CHURCH.

OUR LITTLE FRIEND DUPLEX.

I am small and can't go by myself. I am small enough that the little boys and girls can help me get to church. When I go regularly with something in each pocket, every kind of kingdom work will grow.

Cath the Duplex idea, one side for "Us" the other side for "OTHERS."

A BIG TIME AT LOUISVILLE, KY.

The Southern Baptist Convention will be held at Louisville, Kentucky, on May 4, 1927, for several days.

This is headquarters for Southern Baptists as perhaps the greatest Seminary and Training School of the world is located here. Just as chickens like to go home to roost just so do men who have received their theological training long to go back.

The new Seminary, on the new site, will draw scores of Baptist preachers to Louisville on May 4th for a few days. Your pastor plans to go.

FAIRFIELD BOOK NIGHT A SUCCESS.

It was on April 1st that a new stunt was pulled off in the Fairfield Auditorium. A program was given. It was well attended.

Professor A. H. McClung made a talk on "The Sacredness of a Book."

The writer made some remarks on the subject—"Living in the Realm of the Dead."

Several recitations, a piano duet and some songs constituted the program.

There were 33 volumes donated to the Fairfield Library. Collection of $1.10 was given.

We hope to install the books we now have and open the library. Shortly after the close of school.

We want you to use these books but not abuse them.

Chairman of Library Committee.

"WHAT WAIT I FOR?"

"Don't wait for luck—go after it."
Don't wait for things to come to pass—get busy and help bring them to pass.

Teacher—"What is a juror?"

Pupil—"A juror is 12 men who listen to and decide which lawyer is the smartest."
