

Leland Gibbs—1 load.
 W. B. Nixon—1 load.
 Tinker Neal—1 load.
 Ed Watson—1 load.
 Dr. A. G. Hains—1 load.

Mrs. R. W. Jones of Fairfield, who was in Washington hospital, is back at her home greatly improved.

HYDROPHOBIC DOG.

There was a mad-dog in Swan Quarter Saturday, Aug. 27th. It bit Mr. Calhoun Tooley of Belhaven, formerly of Swan Quarter. Also bit three colored men, Columbus Franklin, Charlie Peterson and Bell Fulford.

All care should be taken to keep the dogs from running at large. Any dog showing signs of rabies should be killed at once.

Rev. Charles T. Plybon has resigned his work at Washington, N. C., to take work with the White Oak Baptist Church at Greensboro, N. C., September 1st. Plybon has many friends in eastern Carolina.

MARRIAGES.

Mr. Webb Alexander was united to Patsie Jane Saddler on Sept. 6th, 1927.

Mr. Balfour Jarvis was married to Isolyn Paul of Washington on Sept. 4th, 1927.

We wish for these a long and happy life.

WRECK ON NEW HOLLAND R. R.

On September the second while pulling a car load of lumber to Wenona, it was wrecked when the rails spread. Mr. Ed Lowe, conductor and brakeman, was thrown some 15 feet or more against the brake wheel and suffered some severe bruises on the head, shoulder-blade and left arm.

This wreck occurred between Harrison Station and Wilbanks, about six miles west of Harrison.

Dr. A. G. Harris of Fairfield rendered helpful aid to him at the dredge boat, where he was brought. We hope he will soon recover from these injuries.

Many will know Mr. Lowe as he ran the mixer when the concrete was poured between Swan Quarter and Leechville.

Mr. Murray Carawan of Rose Bay, who was working at Pageland, S. C., underwent an operation for appendicitis. He is better and back at his work.

BILL BOOSTER SAYS

A CHEERFUL FACE IN THE MORNING IS EVERY MAN'S DUTY TO HIS FAMILY AND TO HIS FELLOW MEN. IT STARTS THE DAY OFF RIGHT, AND IT MAKES YOU FEEL MORE LIKE WORKING.

Mr. D. D. Cutrell carried his baby to Washington for a minor operation.

WHERE IT HURTS.

We can serve with politeness, and most people do,
 We can serve with good nature, when troubles are few,
 We can serve with alacrity, wisdom and wit,
 But how about service that pinches a bit?

To give what is useless—what merit is there?
 To give what's unwanted—that's cheap, I declare.
 But to give what you really could use and enjoy—
 Well, that is a gift that all time can't destroy.

So open your purses and open your hearts.
 Just give "when it hurts," and let all do their parts,
 For the One in whose name we are giving today
 Gave life, love and glory eternal way!

Every great Bible character was a man or woman of prayer. Christ, the crowning character of all, was constantly in prayer. It was communion with His Father that sustained Him amid the trials, discouragements and sacrifices He daily endured.

Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such a one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted.—Galatians 6:1.
