WALKING WITH CHRIST.

If we walk with thoughts and words of Christ, he will join us in our journey. He will open our ears and seal our instruction. It is his manner to join those who walk. It is his manner not to give knowledge to his disciples that they may walk, but to give it as they walk. When Christ reads his word with us the letters are legible only to those who run. In his company, traveling by his side, we know what it is to live by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.—W. Robertson Nicoll. Charity and Children.

Better is a dry morsel, and quietness therewith, than a house full of sacrifices with strife.—Proverbs 17:1.

You can prove the worth of Christianity by practicing it

BE A BOOSTER.

If you think your church the best,
Tell 'em so!
If you have it lead the rest,
Help it grow!
When there is anything to do,
Let them always count on you,
You'll feel good when it is through,
Don't you know?

If you're used to giving knocks,
Change your style
Throw bouquets instead of rocks
For awhile.
Let the other fellow roast,
Shun him as you would a ghost.
Meet his banter with a boast.
And a smile.

When a stranger from afar
Comes along,
Tell him who and what you are—
Make it strong.
Never flatter, never bluff,
Tell the truth, for that's enough.
Be a booster, that's the stuff,
Don't just belong."

BULLET OF THE SIXTIES TAKEN FROM VET'S LEG.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Sept. 9.—James R. Jenkins, 80-year-old Confederate veteran, underwent an operation here the other day for the removal from his left leg of a bullet fired by a Federal soldier in 1865. He is recovering rapidly.
"For a number of months past the leg has been hurting me, and I thought it was rheumatism," he said.

Put out of your life the things that worry, vex and annoy. Climb above the fogs of life and get your bearings. Draw aside sometimes and think of the great things of life. Have some definite goal, some great hope, some ambition ahead. Enlarge your interests and aims so as to include the welfare of all those you touch.
