

Mr. John McKinney, who died September 18. His life has been missed in the community church, and home. Mr. McKinney is the only member lost from the Baptist membership by death in five and one-half years.

We have much to be thankful for. Let one and all hold fast to the truth and in the end die in the Faith. Faith in Christ Jesus.

MARRIAGES

THE MISSING LINK

The citizens of Hyde county are glad to see the link of road between Leechville and Belhaven is being poured with hard surface. We hope the major part of this will be poured, if not entirely completed before freezing winter weather approaches.

We regret the going of Captain W. T. Kirk from Swan Quarter, who recently moved his shop to Belhaven, N. C. We wish him much success in his new location. The people of Hyde will not forget his stay.

The man around the corner wants to live. Keep to your side of the road and blow your horn.

BIRTHS

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Spencer, of Fairfield, a girl, November 30.

BURRUS AND BAVM

The many friends of Messrs. Jim Burrus and Joe Gray Bavm have been made sad in several ways recently. First, to learn of the serious accident in the killing of Mrs. J. D. Bullock of Leechville, N. C., on November 13. Second, to learn that after hitting Mrs. Bullock that they did not stop and render help, if needed.

Third, that now they are serving their sentence in the penitentiary for two and one-half years each.

This should be a lesson to every driver on the road. Our sympathy is extended toward all connected; especially does our sympathy go out to the aged mother and wife and son who are left behind.

Hambone says: "Too much Colton ain' Hurt-in' Some o' Dese Folks roun Heah nigh ez bad ez too much cawn."

If a man will use his "horse sense" he will beware of the kind of cawn Hambone had in mind. Can a man be selfish and mean enough to spend his money for that which is harmful and not provide for his own household. If you have planned to get some "cawn" for Christmas please strike that item out of your list. Beware of strong drink.

A Delco light plant has recently been installed in the Swan Quarter high school by A. B. Swindell & Son. We congratulate the folks of Swan Quarter in having this plant installed.
