WHO IS TO DRINK IT?

"Well," said the merchant, with an air of finality, "prohibition is a failure, and we must get used to the idea of making America wet once again."

"But who is to drink the liquor?" queried his friend. Will you?"

"Why, no," he replied. "You know that I am a teetotaler."

"Will your son drink it?"

"No, that shall not be!"

"Would you want it to come back for the sake of your clerks?"

"No, it is my practice to discharge any clerks who drink liquor."

"Do you want your customers to drink it?"

"No, I would much rather they would not; I am sure that those who use strong drink will not buy so much from me nor pay their bills so promptly."

"Will you want the engineer on your train to use it?"

"No, I admit I don't want to ride on a drunkard's train."

"Ah, then you want this liquor for the men whom you meet driving cars on the public highway?"

"No; of course not; that is a danger to everybody."

"Well, then, who is to drink this liquor in America, pray, tell me?"

"I am not so sure that anybody should drink it. I guess we're much better off without it."

Let's Get Together

It is a great privilege for Christian men and women, boys and girls, to get-together each Sunday at Sunday school and study the Word of God.

Are you enlisted in a class? We include from the cradle roll to the home department.

Shall we not get together in prayer services, preaching services and Sunday school: "Come thou with us; we will do thee good." Moses.
