PLANT ME AND SEE

"O little bulb, uncouth,
Ragged and rusty brown,
Have you some dew of youth?
Have you a crimson gown?"

"Plant me and see
What I shall be—
God's fine surprise
Before your eyes!"

"A body wearing out,
A crumbling house of clay,
O agony of doubt
And darkness and dismay!"

"Trust God and see
What I shall be—
His best surprise,
Before your eyes!"

WASHINGTON'S MOTHER

George Washington always preserved the utmost tenderness toward his mother, and she was the first woman he thought of after he had been officially notified at Mount Vernon of his election to the presidency. Forthwith he journeyed to Fredericksburg to share his honors with her. It was their last meeting, for she died a few months later. Her parting words were, "May heaven's and your mother's blessing be with you always."—Detroit News.
