

ASSOCIATIONAL MEETINGS

On March 3 there was held at Fairfield, N. C., one of the 70 special Sunday school meetings to be held in North Carolina. Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Washburn of Nashville, Tenn., were among the outside guests and speakers. Almost all of the churches were represented. A splendid meeting was held when plans were made to enlarge our Sunday school work in the churches of Pamlico Association.

The organization was completed and the following officers were elected and plans were set for the next meeting of the Pamlico Associational Sunday school meeting at Creswell, June 29.

Don't let your doubts trouble you so much; and don't feel that you've got to solve them all. Often the best thing you can do with your doubts is to hang them up to dry. Then, when a good time comes, you can take them down again to look at. In many cases you'll find that somewhere they've settled themselves; they are no longer doubts.

Study this picture. It may be you. If some who stay at home and do not wash, shave and dress up were to look into a mirror they might resemble the above picture. Go to church for Christ's sake, for your own sake, for the sake of others. "No man liveth to himself." Cast your ballot for the Lord Jesus Christ and for His church by attending Sunday services. Sunday news and Sunday shows will be the same on Monday. Attend church somewhere next Sunday.

The Churches of Hyde County Welcome You and Yours—WELCOME!

NEW COMMUNITY BUILDING

Ponzer People now have a new community building costing $2,000. This will be an asset to the community if it is used for the right purposes, but it can be a liability and curse if used wrongly. It was erected as a W. P. A. project, which has given money to quite a few laborers. The building is a beautiful white structure on the right going west. It is 26 feet wide and 40 feet long. The county furnished $500 and about $100 worth of lumber salvaged from the old jail.

Ideas are like stars: you will not succeed in touching them with your hands, but like the seafaring man on the desert of waters, you choose them as your guides, and following them you reach your destiny.
