

Shown above are six young ladies from Hillside who were among those that competed for Queen and Princess of Trade Week.

"HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS SHOULD NOT MARRY," SAY SOCIAL SCIENCE CLASSES

"Should high school students marry?" was the topic of discussion held in the history and sociology classes under Mrs. M. M. Hill.

The majority of the students took the negative viewpoint with the following brought out:

- (1) They are not prepared economically.
- (2) Students who are sixteen and seventeen years old are not physically matured.
- (3) They are not able to differentiate between love and sex.

HOLD NITE CLASSES

The night auto mechanics class, under Mr. Williams has an enrollment of 20 members. The course offered is approved and outlined by the American Technical Society. Classes are held from 7:30 to 9:30 Monday through Friday.

The day class has begun its full scale work and projects are many.

The 1946-1947 class won second place in the statewide Auto Mechanics meet held at A. and T. College in Greensboro last year. The meet will be held there again this year but the students say that they'll take first place this time. Good luck mechanics.

Meet me at the Sheet Metal Shop next month.

"Moon Rise" Is No. 1
Song Of The The Month

BY MARION DUNN

Hi Gang! This is your new writer bringing you an old column, "Song of the Month" with the hopes that you will enjoy it throughout the school year.

To really start this year with a bang, let's get rolling with Johnny Moore's "Moon Rise." It really isn't the hour to think of the moon, but "Gloria" is down with those blues and says "You Let Me Forgive." "Don't You Think I Ought To Know," by the great Bill Johnson has really climbed the ladder to success. While "I Love To Make Love To Make Love To You" by the famous Moore has equalled its purpose, he has made another smash hit "So Long." By the way! Johnny Moore is our center of attraction this month.

Our Jazz section would never be completed without the one and only Louis Jordan and his "Boogie Woogie Blue Plate." It would be impossible to overlook the ever lovable King Cole Trio and his "I Miss You So." Like the old "Swanee River" which flows forever and ever is the "Embraceable You" by the King Cole Trio.

The conductor says the Music Train stops here. So until next month, good bye, gang.

SIX FORMER HILLSIDE HIGH STUDENTS AMONG N. C. C. '47 GRADUATES

Among the graduates of the North Carolina College at Durham, Hillside was represented by Miss Fannie O'Bannon, who has gone to Alabama to continue her education, with a major in chemistry; Miss Bernice Foster who majored in Home Economics, Misses Margaret Page, Thelma Weaver, and Ruth Spaulding who are also Home Economics Majors. Carter Smith, an honor student while at Hillside, majored in Physics.

Those who are classified as seniors for 1947-48 are Pauline Marsh, Betty Bell and Allayne Turner.

Our last year graduates are established in many different colleges. Among them are: West Virginia State who claims Lavonia Ingram Ingram and Clifton Brown; North Carolina College at Durham claims, Lucille Dawson, Gussie Dixon, Eva Duren, Ernestine Corbit, Edward Weaver, Benson Lawrence, Mildred Grady, Davis Martin, Bernice Hunter Turner, Carl McLendon, Ruth Tenny, William Springfield, Portia Whitted, Arthur Williams, Gertrude Thomas, Pearl Williams, Lillie Jones, Lucy Durham, Geraldine Williams, Mallie Black, John Borland, and Dorothy Faucette. Fayetteville State claims Keeneth Slade. A. and T. claims Kenneth Slade. A. and T. Conaway.

Next issue will contain the full up to date history of one of Hillside's famous grads.

REPORT CARD SYSTEM CHANGED

A new system of records has been installed in all of Durham's schools. In previous years Durham used its own system based on the six weeks rather than the four week period. In the new system each teacher is equipped with a school register containing forms that tell the complete school history of the student for that year. Spaces are provided for scholastic, weight, height, health, characteristics, social activities, attendance records, and other details concerning the student. A monthly report is given to the principle who in turn makes a report to the superintendent. An annual report is filed with the Department of Public Instruction in Raleigh.

Teachers are paid on the basis of every 20 teaching days instead of every 30.
