

Roving Around

The Rolesville Junior Class is giving its play tonight (Friday) at the school auditorium at 8 o'clock.

The play, "Everything Happens To Us," is a comedy with sometimes tragic occurrences — but everything ends right.

If you want to see a good play and have fun tonight, too, then come on out to see this play.

Don't forget the Youngsville High School's Senior Play, "Comin' Round the Mountain," on Friday night at 8 o'clock. Better go on over to see a good play.

Correction

Last week we made an error. We wish to correct it now — we said that Jake Hartsfield and Lawrence Harris had offices together. It should have said that Jake Hartsfield, insurance man, and Edward Paschal have their offices together, over Forest Furniture Co. We are indeed sorry for this error, and we ask that all readers take notice, please.

The summer weather over the weekend makes one think of the springtime — which right now is so very far away — if it weren't for one thing, the brown leaves a-falling all around. I believe that more leaves fell last week than in any other week of the fall period. That bit of indifferent information should make some kind of a record or something. Seems like everybody and everything are making records, so why shouldn't the trees.

Reports have it that the new fire truck has arrived — hasn't been confirmed yet, but we plan on getting a picture of it so that you all can see what it looks like.

We hope that Harry doesn't show too much to like on how to run a government, for two reasons: (1) we don't want like to get any "ideas;" and (2) we don't believe that Harry can show anybody how properly to run a government. Are we right?

Went to the Duke-Deac game on Sat., and statistics and playing ability said that the Deacs would win, but they just didn't seem to be able to overcome the stiff and staunch Duke line when it came to the critical times. And we had so many injuries, too.

Though statistics don't prove it, we heard that the game was dirty from the Duke side. There is evidence to back that idea up, thru the heavy number of Wake Forest injuries. Ball players don't get hurt like that under normal wear and tear on the field — particularly under the 2-team system.

I would rather lose playing a clean game than win a hundred times playing off-color. Some schools believe that it is all right to cheat honestly. Others feel it is all right to play a little too rough if your side wins.

We hope that we are wrong in our observations!

The Wake Forest Lions club is making plans to have its Pasture Contest Plaque Presentation Dinner on Monday night, Nov. 24, at Job's College Inn. All Lions are urged to be present. The time will be 7:30, instead of the usual time.

If Dr. Stealey will come down to the Wake Weekly shop, we will be more than happy to present him with a copy of our famous Old South Coffee recipe. It has been tried and tested around the town, and is reported to be fine.

Girls Have New Daughter

Prof and Mrs Franklin Shirley announce the birth of a daughter, Elizabeth Rae, born on Nov. 17 at Rex Hospital.

NOTICE!

The Senior Class of Wake Forest High School is having a home-made cake and pie sale at Glover's Radio and Appliance on Wednesday, November 26, from 9 a. m. through 12:30.

Come and buy your Thanksgiving cakes and pies from them. Call Mrs. L. M. Ray at 4411 for your order.

LEGION TO SPONSOR TURKEY SHOOT ON SAT.

A Turkey Shoot will be sponsored by American Legion Post 187 on Saturday, Nov. 22, at Andy Gump's 1 mile south on Route 1.

The shoot will be conducted from 2 to 5 P. M. on that date, with turkeys for you to carry home for your Thanksgiving dinner.

Some turkeys will be dressed and drawn, some will be alive, — and some will be full of holes made by all you sharpshooters who will be competing in the shoot.

So, for your "meat on the table" for Thanksgiving — come out to the shoot on Sat., Nov. 22 from 2 to 5 P. M. — and have fun, too.

YOUNGSSVILLE SENIORS GIVE PLAY TONIGHT

You won't want to miss seeing the funniest comedy to be given in these parts this year. It's that hillbilly hit called "Comin' Round the Mountain," and you can see it on Friday night, November 21, at 8:00 in the Youngsville High School Auditorium.

This play is full of "characters". For example, the Skitter family is made up of Maw, the hard working type, played by Ava Lee Hudson; Paw, the gun-totin' mountaineer, played by Vernon Grissom; Curley, their ambitious son, by Bill Shearin; the older daughter, Corney Bell, by Evelyn Woodlief. "Dizzy" Mae, who is slightly "Tetched", by Florette Tuck; and Zeke, the youngest, by Henry Hagwood.

Other characters are Ellie Lou DuFunny played by Shirley Fuller; Sammy Fester, by Gene Evans; Robert Bruce by Ronald Moore; Edward Small by Billy O'Neal; Carol Hughes by Jane Freeman, and Doris Dean by Barbara Jean Green.

Admission will be 35c for the children and 60c for adults.

NEUSE BAPTIST CHURCH GIVE HARVEST FESTIVAL ON THANKSGIVING

The Neuse Baptist Church will hold a Harvest Festival service on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 27, beginning at Worship Services at 11 A. M., according to the Rev. R. T. Bray, Jr., pastor.

At Noon, a Barbecue and Brunswick Stew dinner will be served. And the Harvest Day Sale will begin at 1:30 in the afternoon.

The price of the dinner is $1.00 a plate. All proceeds will go to the Building Fund of the church. Everyone is invited to come out.

LIONS GREET NEW MEN

The Wake Forest Lions Club welcomed 2 new members at the meeting Monday night. Tommy Johnson placed the Lions pin on Thorpe Smith's lapel, and Bill Shearon "pinned" Carl Matheny. Johnson and Shearon were sponsors of the new members.

ONLY ONE MORE WEEK!

Just one more week left in which you can take advantage of the special rate on subscriptions. We are offering thru Nov. 29, 1952, The Wake Weekly — 2 full years for only $2.00.

After November, the price will be raised to $2.00 per year. (Note — This offer is good only for subscribers in the immediate area — not single list.)

Divinity Dames Meet Tonight With Mrs Gill

The Divinity Dames will hold its monthly meeting Friday, November 21, 1952, at 8 o'clock at the home of Dr and Mrs Everett Gill on North Main Street.

The October meeting was held at the charming home of Mrs. George Griffin at which time Mrs. W. E. Speas gave a most interesting talk on "Flower Arrangements" to a group of approximately thirty members.

All members are urged to attend the November meeting for an enjoyable and interesting evening in store for those who do.

PAPER COMES OUT EARLY NEXT WEEK FOR HOLIDAY

The Wake Weekly will come out on Wednesday morning next week — Wed., Nov. 26, so you are asked to please have all news in by Monday noon.

If possible, please have news in before that deadline, to insure its getting in next week.

The Priestly Mangums Celebrate 50th Anniv's'y.

Mr. and Mrs. Priestley Mangum celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at their home on Nov. 12.

Their daughters, Mrs. A. D. Pollard, Ocean Drive, S. C., and Mrs. Turner Ray of Wake Forest, gave them a surprise party for the celebration.

A turkey dinner was served buffet style to the group at 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

A beautiful three-tiered cake decorated in white and gold and the word "50TH" written on top was presented to the Mangums. The house was decorated with beautiful yellow roses and yellow chrysanthemums, which were gifts of the friends.

Those attending were relatives and close friends of the Mangums. The couple received many gifts. Pictures were made during the evening.

E. G. Macon attended the Lions club Monday night for the first time since early summer. He's a tobacco farmer, you know, and the crop kept him busy. But he tells us that he and some others went deer hunting last week up on the Roanoke River way — and they got a 12 pronged buck. Not bad for an old 'bacca farmer, eh?

Glen Royal News Items

By Pauline W. Harding

"I never had a birthday like this before," said Mrs. Laura Poole Monday night on her 77th birthday! More than 30 people had crowded into her bedroom, bearing a cake, some gifts, and more than twenty dollars as a token of their love and appreciation for her. She is a well-beloved part of the community, and many were happy to have a part in making her birthday happy. Many more of them is what we wish for her. — with each one better than the last.

Things are really "popping" around the parsonages in this community! With little Stephen Neil Baker's arrival Saturday at the Baptist parsonage stirring up excitement, and Grandma & Grandpa Wingate down from Charlotte to see him, and all the neighbors and friends begging to peep in on him—well—things are pretty busy 'rond there. Rev Baker is a mighty fine papa; I hear he always fixes his formula, and feeding him personally—awfully proud of that son!

Friday three young people from Draper, N. C.,—Roger Wright, Mary Lou and Stella Page came to visit with the Jones in the Church of God parsonage. Peggy Woodlief, Clara Baker, Carlton Jackson, Belle Weaver, Biggon

QUARTET ENTERTAINS LIONS ON MONDAY NIGHT

A Quartet, headed by Wally Shearon, Jr., entertained the Wake Forest Lions club on Monday night with a number of selections.

Other members of the quartet were Jimmy Brisson, Glenn Watson and Glenn Wright. All our are students at the College. Program Chairman Bob Loveless, who procured their services, gave them a country ham dinner to put them into condition for their singing.

They sang such favorites, in fine harmony, as "Wait Till the Sun Shines, Nellie," "I Want A Girl," and "You Wore A Tulip," ending with the Alma Mater song of the College.

Woodland News

By Mrs. Wesley Bailey

Friends of Mr Addison Powell will regret to learn that he is confined to his home with a broken ankle.

Little Ruth Powell, daughter of Mr and Mrs Jethro Powell, is getting along nicely after having pneumonia.

The Woman's Missionary Society of Woodland Baptist church will meet on December 4 with Mrs Atha Smith. All ladies of the church are urged to be present.

Pvt and Mrs Amos Adcock were recent visitors in the home of Mr and Mrs Wesley Bailey. Pvt. Adcock is Mrs Bailey's brother.

The Rev and Mrs Rex Campbell, Miss Jerry Campbell and Mrs Lizzie Campbell have been visiting in the home of Mr and Mrs S M Bailey.

RAINS MEAN COLDER FALL

The rains of the past couple of days probably foretell of colder weather around the corner, thus giving us a brisk and snappy Thanksgiving holiday.

Dixon, Theodore Wise got together and had a swell time at a party at the parsonage, playing games, and eating Mrs. Jones' swell refreshments. Saturday the group went sightseeing in Raleigh and to church in Kenly Saturday night, where Rev. Jones was holding services. On Sunday the Draper visitors were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Price Wentz and Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Smith from Concord to spend Sunday with the Jones, so the seams were almost splitting at the parsonage Sunday! Everyone had a swell time, and hope to visit Wake Forest again.

Louise Taylor Zinn is bragging on our newspaper, aren't we glad? This column, too! She wrote a long letter saying how much she enjoys it, and how she always sat right down and read it immediately after the mailman came. Wanted to say "hello" to all the folks in the community, and tell you she's remembering you. They live in Portsmouth, Va., so The Wake Weekly even goes out of the state. Thanks, Louise, for the nice remarks—we're happy you like it.

Ruby Cooke had a birthday party Friday night to celebrate her 15th birthday. There were 18 guests present and everyone enjoyed the party.

COUNTY HOSPITAL BOND ORDER GIVEN AS PASSED BY COMMISSIONERS BOARD

ROLESVILLE JUNIORS GIVE PLAY TONIGHT

On Friday, November 21, the Rolesville Juniors will present a play, "Everything Happens To Us" in the school auditorium at 8:00.

The Ross family is excited because Rhett, their oldest son, is going East to marry a millionaire.

Mrs. Ross and her two young sons, who aren't much help, try frantically to redecorate their new home for Rhett's bride.

Each character in the play successfully messes up things for the family and the tragedy comes when Rhett calls to say the girl has changed her mind.

In a surprising manner everything straightens out for all.

This play is produced by special arrangement with "The Heur Publishing Co.", Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Mrs Perry Entertains Stoney Hill W. M. U.

The Stoney Hill W. M. U. met with Mrs. Horace Perry and Mrs. Jack Lloyd as co-hostess in the Perry home on last Thursday night.

Mrs. Hipps spoke to the group on her life in China.

There were a large number of new members present.

Refreshments consisting of ice cream and cookies were served.

BARBECUE SUPPER FRIDAY AT OAK LEVEL CHURCH

The Oak Level Christian church will hold a pork and chicken barbecue supper at the Youngsville Community House on Friday (tonight) from 5 to 8:30 o'clock.

Plates are at $1.00 each. Come and enjoy a good meal.

Dr Cullom Elected Pastor Emeritus at Spring Hope

Dr. W. R. Cullom was recently elected pastor emeritus of the Spring Hope Baptist Church in Spring Hope, where he served as pastor for 13 years.

Announcement has been made that Dr. Cullom will hold services there on Sunday, November 23, at 11:00 in the morning and 7:30 in the evening.

Dr. Cullom stated that it has been 11 years since he served as pastor of that Church.

J. R. WIGGINS IS ILL

We are sorry to learn that Mr J R Wiggins is a patient in the Mary Elizabeth hospital in Raleigh. We hope he will be home soon.

SPECIAL NOTICE!

Effective December 1, 1952 all subscriptions in this area will be raised to $2.00 per year. All subscriptions beyond this area will be raised to $2.50 per year.

This increase in rate is because of the increase in cost of paper.

We are offering you the paper two years for $2.00 (two years for $2.00) if paid any time in November 1952. It may be a new or renewal.

We hope you will take advantage of this offer before the increase in rate is effective.
