

STOP AND THINK! Ask Yourself before Shopping In The City, "CAN I DO BETTER AT HOME?"

MORE and MORE PEOPLE Are DEPENDING On THE WAKE WEEKLY As Their Guide To BETTER VALUES!

Published For The Three Towns of Rolesville, Youngsville, and Wake Forest, And Surrounding Communities in This Great Tobacco - Cotton Country

Volume XIV Office Phone EXport 5-3429 The Wake Weekly, Wake Forest, North Carolina Friday morning, June 10, 1960 Number 23

Activity Bus Fund Drive Nearing End; Goal In Sight

Contributions from Wake Forest High School clubs and organizations have boosted the Activity Bus fund to $2,879.58.

Mr. J. L. Warren, drive chairman, said this week that a total of $265.00 was added before the closing of school from the Future Farmers of America, Band, Beta Club, Dramatics Club, Future Teachers of America, Monogram Club, Senior Class of 1960, and Student Council.

Additional contributions from business and professional people include: Dr. R. W. Wilkinson, Jr., Wake Forest Freezer Lockers, and Crusier Motor Co.

Other town contributions have come in from Mr. and Mrs. John Rich, Mrs. Elsie Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Harrison and Mr. and Mrs. Foster Barham.

Mrs. Nash Underwood this week reported funds from the following: Mr. and Mrs. Carey Dodd, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Barnes, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Barnes, Jr., P. V. Medlin, Mrs. Jack Darnell, and these families Mickey Corkran, Vernon Pearce, Ernest Parrott, Charlie Wilson, Mrs. Pauline Hobgood, John Steely, John Holden, I. Beverly Lake, C. H. Eppes, Robert Llewellyn, Frank Parker, Alan Cohen, Johnny Knight, Frank Bailey, G. G. Hill, R. W. Wilkinson, III, Mrs. E. B. Earnshaw, Miss Mary Taylor.

Mr. Warren said this week that the drive is practically complete except for a few business and professional people who have not been contacted, and he expressed gratitude on behalf of his committee and the PTA for the splendid cooperation shown by residents of the community.

Whenever a list of names is printed, there is likelihood of omissions and errors; so if you or someone you know has contributed and the names have not been published, please notify some of the drive committee. They sincerely desire that everyone receive this recognition. Fund area chairman should also check to see that all names reported have been printed.

WAKE PRINCESS — Miss Karen Pearce is shown as she was crowned Wake County Dairy Princess in Raleigh last week. Mrs. Gail Edwards, Women's chairman, places the crown. Both are from Wake Forest.

KAREN PEARCE IS WAKE DAIRY PRINCESS

June is Dairy Month all across our nation. And on June 1st Wake County marked the beginning of the month-long observance with a Kick-off dinner meeting in the State College Union building which was attended by over 200 persons.

Dr. D. W. Colward, Dean of Agriculture at N. C. State College who will become president of Mississippi State University on July 1st, was the principle speaker at the dinner. He reviewed the highlights of the dairy development in North Carolina and predicted continued growth for the industry.

Among those present were nine of the county's most charming young ladies and from them, Miss Karen Pearce of Wake Forest was selected as Wake County's Dairy princess.

Miss Pearce, a rising senior at Wake Forest High School where she is "Miss Wake Forest High, 1960", is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Pearce of Route 1, Wake Forest. A cheerleader and active in other school programs, she plans to attend college.

Mrs. Gail Edwards, also of Wake Forest, Women's Chairman for the Wake County Dairy Month committee crowned the new princess who will represent Wake in the 8-county area contest in Raleigh on June 15.

Miss Carolyn Pearce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. (Gene) Pearce, also of Wake Forest, was crowned as Wake County's Dairy princess.

(Continued on back page)

Summer Recreation Opens Monday

Little League Adult Softball Swim Registration

The Little League division of the Wake Forest Summer Recreation program will open Monday, June 13 with two games. The first one starts at 7:15.

Recreation Director Tony Trentini announced this week that all the teams will wear uniforms and will play according to Little League rules and regulations. The teams and sponsors are as follows: Milwaukee Braves, Wake Forest Baptist Church, John Comper, Mgr.; New York Yankees, American Legion, Julian Mangum, Mgr.; Cleveland Indians, Sealtest Dairy, Corbie Perry, Mgr.; and the St. Louis Cardinals, Civitan Club, J. R. Jackson, Mgr.

Mayor Ben T. Aycock will pitch out the first ball Monday when the Braves meet the Yankees in the opening game. The Indians and the Cardinals clash in the second game Friday, June 17 the Indians play the Braves and the Cardinals play the Yankees.

The Summer Softball program starts out in full swing next Tuesday night with the Woodlief Supply team, last year's champs, meeting the Dextro club. Next the Sealtest team meets the Legion.

Thursday, June 16 the schedule will be Royal Mill vs. Burlington Mills, Woodlief Supply vs. Legion.

Games will be played each Tuesday and Thursday with the first game at 7:15 and the second slated to start about 8:30.

DuBois Program

The summer recreation program for DuBois School students will open next week under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Massenburg. All children of the school district are invited to take part.

The schedule will run from about 9:00 A.M. to 5:30 P.M. and details will be released next week. The free swimming lessons at the colored pool are scheduled to begin on July 11 and details on that will also be available later.

Registration for the first session of swimming lessons at the Wake Forest pool will be held Wednesday and Friday, June 15 and 17 from 2:00-4:00 P.M. at the Community House.

The free lessons which are offered through the Wake Forest Recreation program and the Wake County Red Cross will begin on Monday, June 20 and continue for three weeks.

Director Tony Trentini said this week that the swim program is for all school aged children including any who will enter school next year. It was incorrectly reported last week that children must be nine or older.

A beginner class will be held from 8 to 9 A.M. and another from 9 to 10 A.M. The intermediate class will be from 10 to 11 A.M. and Junior Life Saving from 11 to 12 noon.

All Wake Forest school district children will be enrolled first. It is anticipated that children from nearby towns as well as other local children will be taken care of in the second session starting July 11. Registration for that session will be held on July 6.

Arts and Crafts of the Wake Forest summer program will be held Monday, Wednesday and Friday of each week from 2:00 to 4:00 under the direction of Mrs. Richard Hartsfield.

There will be no morning activities in the recreation program until after Bible School.

Tommy Byrne Is W.F. Alumni Veep

Tommy Byrne of Wake Forest was elected first vice president of the Wake Forest College Alumni Association Monday in Winston-Salem. The alumni meeting was held in conjunction with the commencement exercises at the college. Fred Williams of Greensboro was elected president.

FRANCIS HILL IS FRANKLIN COUNTY DAIRY PRINCESS

Frances Hill, 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hill of Youngsville Rt. 1, was crowned Franklin County Dairy Princess, winning the contest over eight other contestants at Louisburg last Tuesday.

She graduated from Youngsville High School last week as valedictorian of her class. In addition she was editor of the annual and also received the Youngsville Woman's Club Citizenship award. She plans to attend Stetson University in the fall where she will major in journalism.

Chairman Clint Fuller of the Franklin County Dairy Month committee presented Miss Hill with a trophy.

She will represent Franklin County in the area contest in Raleigh June 15. The winner there will take part in the state contest in Durham June 29-30.

First runner-up was Annette Harris of Louisburg Rt. 4. Second runner-up was Barbara Faye Murray also of Louisburg, Rt. 4.

Local Cooperation Planned for Chilean Emergency Relief

Mayors of Wake County towns in cooperation with the Wake County Chapter, American Red Cross are joining the Chilean Relief appeal. J. C. Keeter represented Wake Forest at a meeting held in Raleigh and Mayor Ben Aycock appointed Dr. Carroll Trotter and Dr. S. A. Newman to notify institutions in town of the urgent appeal.

Hundreds of thousands of Chileans are coll, sick, injured, and homeless.

It's a natural characteristic of Americans to want to help people in trouble the world over. The Chilean disaster has proved no exception. (Continued on inside page)

Glen Royal Bible School To Start

Bible School at the Church of God begins Monday, June 13 at 9 o'clock. Everyone between the ages of 4-14 is invited to attend. A parade will be held Saturday at 2 p.m. followed by registration and refreshments.

NATIONAL GUARD REVIEW SET SATURDAY

Highlight of the 30th "Old Hickory" Infantry Division's two week encampment at Fort Bragg will be the annual parade and review scheduled for Saturday morning, June 11.

Governor Luther Hodges and top military personnel are expected to be on hand.

The 8,000 officers and enlisted men, under the command of Maj. Gen. Edward F. Griffin of Louisburg, will operate for the second straight year under the new Pentomic concept — developed recently for command efficiency in atomic war.

The division, chief unit of the North Carolina National Guard, will be one of several involved in annual summer exercises.

Adj. Gen. Capus Waynick said more than 11,600 Army and Air National Guardsmen from throughout the State will attend summer camps in June, July and August.

Captain Thomas East commands the Youngsville Battery B unit which along with Battery A from Zebulon and Headquarters Battery from Louisburg comprise the 1st Rocket-Howitzer Battalion of the 113th Artillery.

The Youngsville unit includes men from Wake Forest and Rolesville areas.

Large Number of College Graduates Locally

Some twenty-five students from the Wake Forest - Youngsville - Rolesville community have recently been graduated from colleges in North Carolina.

Wake Forest College, which has been in Winston-Salem for four years now, had the largest group, a total of nine including two Law School graduates. Six of these are from Wake Forest and three from Youngsville.

N. C. State was next with five graduates, all from Youngsville. This week and next, as has been the custom of this paper for the past four years, the college graduates are saluted for the hard work, foresight, and hope of the future which has prepared them to contribute not only to their own progress, but to the progress of our community, state and nation.

Pictured elsewhere on this page you will find a good number of this group and others will appear next week.

Commencement exercises were held last weekend at Wake Forest College where more than 450 received degrees. Among them were the following:

JANET MARGARET BINKLEY, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Olin T. Binkley of Wake Forest was graduated summa cum laude with a bachelor of arts degree and a major in English. While at the college she was editor of The Student magazine and the Student Handbook in 1959-60.

Janet was elected to Phi Beta Kappa, national scholarship fraternity; was named to Who's Who (Continued on inside page)

JANET BINKLEY

BARBARA BRANSON

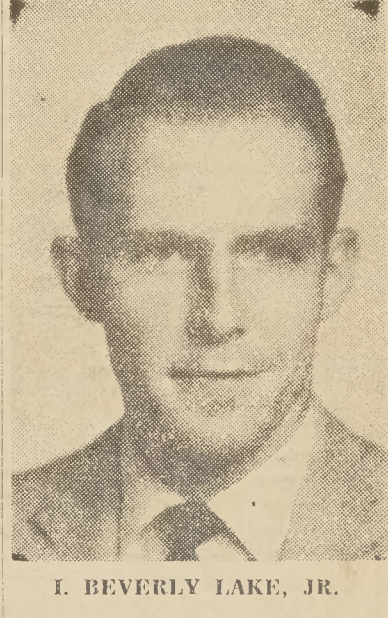

LELIA ROSE EVANS

MARY HENDRICKS

LARUE JONES

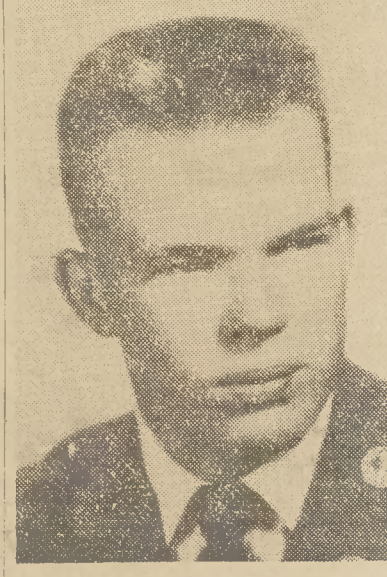

I. BEVERLY LAKE, JR.

JAMES W. MACKIE

JOHN G. MILLS, III

WILLIAM C. STAINBACK

GERALD WHITE

BEVERLY WHITE

BETTY JOYCE WOODLIEF