RUFUS POTTS FAMILY HONORED

Rev. and Mrs. R. F. Potts and family were entertained at an open house at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. N. Corpening Sunday afternoon.

The Potts family will be moving to Raleigh in late December and he will become pastor of the Caraleigh Baptist Church.

Upon arrival, guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hall and introduced to the receiving line consisting of Dr. and Mrs. Corpening, Mrs. J. T. Allen, Rev. and Mrs. Potts and daughters, Margaret, Maureen and Vida Gayle.

Guests were then directed into the living room by Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Reddick and Mr. and Mrs. Al DePorter. Also assisting in the living room were Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Cheatham and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Moss.

Directing guests into the dining room were Mr. and Mrs. Mack Dement and Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Woodlief. Also assisting in the dining room were Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Lindsey and Mr. and Mrs. William H. Fleming. Mrs. Ollie Roberts and Mrs. W. T. Holden presided over the guest register.

Assisting elsewhere in the home were Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Felton, Mrs. L. R. Evans and Mrs. J. A. Green.

Refreshments of assorted cookies, cheese cuts, assorted party sandwiches, nuts and holiday fruit punch were served the approximately one hundred and ten guests attending. Mrs. L. R. Evans and Mrs. W. F. Mitchell poured punch. The home was beautifully decorated with lovely Christmas arrangements. In the receiving hall was a gaily decorated Christmas tree with additional arrangements entwined on the staircase. The serving table in the dining room was covered with a sheer silver Holiday cloth on which was a lovely centerpiece crystal fountain overflowing onto a choir of pearl angels. On the mantle was a lovely white arrangement of the manger scene laid on black velvet. An auxiliary table was graced with a lovely candelabra and an open Bible over which was a large lighted snowflake.

Goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Tharrington and Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Tharrington.

A silver double vegetable dish was given the Potts family on arrival.

Greetings

Have a serene and happy holiday season.
