

Woman's Club Has Yule Party

The December meeting of the Youngsville Woman's Club was held at the community house Tuesday night, Dec. 15 with President Mrs. G. E. Winston presiding. A Christmas devotional was presented by Mrs. W. G. Scarborough.

Miss Jean Pearce was welcomed as a new member of the club at this meeting.

Clubwomen gave contributions to be sent to the Boys Home at Lake Waccamaw.

Mrs. B. H. Patterson and Mrs. A. N. Corpening were appointed by the president to decorate the community house for the holiday season. They did the decorating last week for use by all having parties there during the holidays. Attractive decorations in traditional colors predominated the various arrangements throughout the building. A center of interest is the silver tree decorated with red ornaments.

Mrs. R. F. Potts who is moving with her family from the community after Christmas was recognized and presented a gift from the club.

Clubwomen took grocery items to this meeting which will be assembled by Help-A-Home Chairman Mrs. W. O. Roberts and then given to some needy persons in town.

The program committee for the evening directed the group in several Christmas games and contests. Then everyone joined in singing Christmas Carols. Santa Claus made an appearance to distribute gifts which members had brought to exchange.

The hostesses served refreshments which included fancy Christmas sandwiches, decorated cookies, nuts, cheese straws and red fruit punch. The serving table was covered with a lace cloth underlined with red and centered with a silver and red arrangement featuring poinsettias, candles, reindeer, and ornaments. Holiday napkins were used and a red candy Santa was on each plate.

What Is Christmas?

To Bond McCamy

(Age 2 years, 2 months)
Snuggle up real close, now
And listen carefully
To what Christmas really is
And how it came to be.
I'll try very hard to tell you
In words you understand;
But there is so much that's new
to you,

I'm not sure I can.
You know of Baby Jesus
Sleeping in a manger filled with hay.

Well, Christmas is a party
For Baby Jesus's Birthday.
He went to heaven long ago
And we can't give gifts to him
you see;

So we give them to each other.
In honor of his memory.
We sing and pray to Jesus's Daddy
And thank him for His son.
For Jesus was God's Christmas gift to us

Each and every one.
He came to Earth to tell us
How to live the way we should —
How to be kind and loving,
Unselfish, sweet, and good.
And since we love him very much
But He's in heaven now —
We celebrate His birthday by being good.

The other Christmas customs,
Like Santa and the rest,
Are all because Jesus taught us
To think of others' happiness.
So you enjoy your presents
And the sparkling Christmas tree
And Santa Claus's visit
And all the fun there'll be.
But remember who the party's for
And don't forget to stop and say,
"Thank you, God, for Jesus
And we hope He has a very nice birthday."

IN THE WAKE OF A SONG

THE CHURCH FOR ALL
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a school of spiritual values. Without a strong church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Carols in the night... the old story made over new again... the love for the Christ poignant, deep... the nostalgia of past Christmases remembered.

In the wake of a song, "Silent Night, Holy Night," all this comes to mind. And we Christmas with the trappings of holly and mistletoe, the flash of bright red ribbons, the of the tinsel on the tree.

Yet, south of the Equator, Christmas comes in mid-summer. There is no holly, no and there's not apt to be a tree. But it is Christmas just the same.

This is not merely a season, this time of the birth of Christ. It is much, much more understand it fully... to see it in its entirety... turn to the Church.
