motorcycle. Robin lost control of the vehicle and ran into a huge oak tree, cutting off one foot, breaking his leg near the hip, breaking some of his fingers and one arm besides several ribs and other injuries. He was rushed to Rex hospital by ambulance.

Robin needs 6 pints of blood. If anyone will give Robin a pint please go to Rex Hospital and tell the nurse there you are giving it for Robin. Some of you people know who Robin is and some don't. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Claud Vernon Young and he has been living here for sometime. You may let Mrs. Judene Young or our Pastor, Rev. Keeffe know if you will give Robin blood, thank you.

One thing sure, time just goes rolling along to make those years come piling up. But can you hardly believe 14 of them have come to Miss Wanda Strickland, Saturday, March 20 Wanda was 14. She will be sweet sixteen now before she knows it and driving her daddy's car. Happy birthday Wanda.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Biddell visited Mr. and Mrs. Freddy Jackson in Dunn last week. They spent one night with them and came home. Mrs. Jackson is the former Miss Maud Strother.

Mr. and Mrs. Tim Watkins and Mr. and Mrs. Zeb Strickland and daughters spent several days in Fla. week before last. They visited Rev. and Mrs. Tommie Ellington and family. I hear that the Ellingtons are coming back to North Carolina, to Spindale Church real soon.

The Young People of our Church filled most places of service last Sunday and each one did well. Jerry Carter spoke to us in the morning services. David Looper brought the message for our night services. David also served as Sunday School Supt. in the morning. Mrs. Ruth Young was Train-

Services Today for Claude B. Edwards

Claude B. Edwards, 37 of Rolesville died Tuesday following a brief illness. He had been in declining health for several months. A native of Franklin County, he had lived in Wake county for 25 years and was a member of Rolesville Baptist Church.

Surviving are his mother, Mrs. Iva Ayscue Edwards of the home; four sisters, Mrs. Virginia Atchley of Wichita, Kansas, Mrs. Helen Stallings of Raleigh, Mrs. Dorothy Riley of Franklinton, and Mrs. Mary Leonard of Rolesville; two brothers, Carlyle Edwards of Wake Forest and Jerry Edwards of the home; several aunts and uncles, nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held Friday morning at 11:00 o'clock from Beulah Christian Church with the Rev. Cate Jones and the Rev. E. M. Powell officiating. Burial will follow in the church cemetery. Active pallbearers will be Ted Daniel, James Tharrington, Johnny Moody, C. R. Johnson, Wiley Johnson, Wiley Ayscue, Emmett Gooch and Chesley Bailey.

Union leader for that service. All the ladies were especially glad to have Miss Dora Faye Lassiter teach our Bible Class. All the days' services were well enjoyed and blessings received by many who were there.

On Saturday night Youth leaders, Mrs. Betty Barham and Miss Dora Faye Lassiter took the young girls class to Tabernacle Church in Raleigh for the Youth rally where they had a real good time. Then they went back to Dora Faye's home for Pizza and a slumber party where they really had fun. Those in the party were: Vivian Baker, Ruth Kelley, Sandra Strickland and their leaders, Betty and Dora.

Friends will be glad to know that Zula Wilson is better and can have mail if you would like to write to her. Dorothy Dix Hospital is her address.
