

FALLS COMMUNITY NEWS

By Mrs. D. P. Jenks

Mrs. Ona Edwards spent some time with her sister, Mrs. Andrews in Durham recently. I'm sure they had a real good time together.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Leonard have both been sick with bad colds but they are both better now.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Watkins enjoyed having her father and step mother visit with them for a few days recently.

Mr. Jack Clifton's mother is quite ill at this time. She would be glad to have you visit her if you can.

Our Bible Class met with Mrs. Elnora Kelley last Thursday night and we had a real good meeting. Mrs. R. A. Looper had charge of the devotion that was very well done.

Friends of Mr. Jasper Keith will be interested to hear that he is about the same and is still with Mr. and Mrs. Kelley.

The Class made plans to visit Mrs. Zula Wilson and to get pajamas for Mr. Leslie Merckerson who is still in the hospital in Wake Forest.

Little Miss Angela Haskins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter

Haskins, had a nice birthday last week she is two years old and a real pretty little girl, happy birthday Angela.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Watkins enjoyed having her uncle, Mr. James Obey of Pine Level visit with them last week. Mr. Obey is 98 years old and really gets around good you would never believe he is 98. He sees and hears good and is in real good health. Congratulations, Mr. Obey.

Falls Baptist Church will begin revival services April 4th and continue through the 11th at 7:30 p. m. You are invited to attend. Rev. Bobby Crocker of Gaffney, South Carolina is the visiting speaker.

We will have special music in song by the Rolesville quartet.

Come by the Falls Remnant Shop sometime to see Mrs. Newberry with her Liquid Embroidery. Sound strange to me but I guess she is right. April 5 to 13, 9:30 a. m. to 4:30 p. m.

Mrs. Mary Lowery was sick last week and away from her work 3 days but she is better now. Bad cold and they make one feel mighty bad.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace (Buddy) Looper celebrated their wedding anniversary last week by going to Balentine's for supper. Mr. and Mrs. Dempsey Jenks went with them. They were celebrating Betty's birthday. How nice.

How does this sound, Miss Kathy Mangum is 16. Just think of the short time it's been since Doctor Wilkinson and Mrs. Jones dressed her up in a pretty pink dress on the night of her birth 16 years ago. Kathy received some nice gifts for her birthday.

Judy Leonard, Ricky Carter and Tommy Barham participated in Bible Memory Work at Emmanuel Baptist Church in Raleigh last Friday night and came out good; so they will go on to Buies Creek for another contest, April 8th.

Well our Sunday School lesson last Sunday was about being ready for the wedding feast. I hope every one really got the meaning of being not just for the wedding and all the feast, that we get ready for here in the world, but there is a more important readiness for every one and that is death. Just Sunday night Mr. Otha Warren died suddenly. That time will come to all of us.

On April 24 there will be a miscellaneous shower for Miss Bonnie Gay Mangum and Mr. James Powell. As you know they plan to be married June 19th. Please keep this in mind and come to the

Linda Merritt Elected To Honorary Fraternity at EC

Linda Estelle Merritt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Merritt of Rt. 2, Wake Forest is a member of the Gamma Beta Phi Society, a national honorary fraternity, which has been established at East Carolina College.

The organization, dedicated to principles of scholarship, leadership and good citizenship at East Carolina, was formed during the current spring term by 31 ECC students.

Under the guidance of temporary advisor James B. Mallory, dean of men at ECC, the group will soon take on a permanent project of benefit to the college and other special projects.

Members of the Society will be elected "because of their worthy character, good mentality, creditable achievement, and commendable attitude," as outlined in the Society's constitution.

To be eligible for membership, a student must achieve and maintain a grade-point average of 1.5 (C-plus).

showers; it will be in our Community house April 24 at 7:30.

Our revival will start Sunday, April 4th. Rev. Bobby Crocker of Gaffney, S. C. will be guest speaker. We invite you to come with us if you can.

Mrs. Nola Mae Bailey and baby visited her grand mother, Mrs. Jane Frazier last Sunday and it was Nola Mae's birthday. Happy birthday Nola Mae.

I hear that Mary Florence Ashmon got home all right. We are glad. I know her husband was glad to see her after being up here for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Holmes went to Durham Sunday and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Carlyle and Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Smith and others of their family. They visited their sister, Mrs. Zula Wilson in the afternoon.

Our sympathy is extended to the family of Mr. Otha Warren who died last Sunday night at his home here at Falls.

Recreation & Drama Conf. Opens Monday at Seminary

A Church Recreation and Drama Conference will be held April 5-6 at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in cooperation with the Recreation Department of the Southern Baptist Sunday School Board. Its purpose is to inform church members how to organize and relate a recreation program to the needs and interests of a local church situation.

Because the areas of drama, social recreation, and sports, retreats, and camping are neglected in so many churches, there is a need to draw attention to these areas and to discuss ways they may be utilized in the work of the church. To meet this need, leaders in each of these fields will be speaking in the general sessions as well as leading specialized group sessions.

In the field of drama is Mrs. Mary Glazener, playwright and drama director at West Asheville Baptist Church in Asheville, N. C. Social recreation will be discussed by Mr. Frank Hart Smith, Leadership Consultant of the Church Recreation Department, Baptist Sunday School Board, Nashville, Tenn.

Mr. Grover Andrews will combine administration, sports, retreats, and camping for his topic. He is Assistant Academic Dean and Director of the Night School and Assistant Professor of Journalism, Little Rock University, Little Rock, Arkansas.

Other program personnel are Mr. Alton Y. Buzbee, Director of Religious Activities, Campbell College, Buies Creek, Miss Carole Pearson, Youth Director, First Baptist Church, Shelby, and Miss Larita Umphlett, music teacher, Raleigh.

Registration will begin at 4 p. m., Monday, April 5, in Stealey Hall. The program is to open at 7 p. m. in the Little Chapel in Appleby Building with the theme, "The Philosophy and Administration of Church Recreation." This general session will be followed by group sessions and a period of recreation in the seminary cafeteria.

The schedule for Tuesday consists of visiting classes, a message by Mr. Smith in the chapel at 10 a. m., a workshop on crafts for Vacation Bible School conducted by Mr. Andrews, and group discussions. The theme for the general session Tuesday evening is "Church Recreation and Senior Adults." This is to be followed by group sessions and a drama at 8:30 p. m. in the main chapel.

A panel discussion at 9:30 p. m. featuring the conference leaders will conclude the program.

Our fifth-grade science class has proved sex doesn't exit. They put a bird and a bee in a cage. Nothing happened.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

When the buds burst into fragile flower, and their breath is everywhere, and a warming breeze caresses the cold, damp earth... this is more than Spring. This is the time of Promise.
For these same festive branches shall lift a precious burden of fruit when the red-gold mantle of harvest falls across the land.
When human souls awaken to the reveille of faith, and hymns and prayers fill the arches of heaven, and the warmth of an ageless hope reaches from heart to heart... this is more than Lent.
For the faith which blossoms today will bear its own precious fruit. Love! Joy! Peace! The harvest of souls like yours and mine is beginning anew to grow.
