FALLS COMMUNITY NEWS

By MRS. D. P. JENKS

Mr. and Mrs. Proctor Barham announce the birth of a baby boy, Paul on May 21. They have two other boys, Donald and Steve. Mrs. Barham is the former Joan Holmes.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Looper celebrated their 45th. wedding anniversary on May 19. And Mr. H. G. Bidders celebrated his 75th birthday on May 18. His sister, Mrs. Annie Smith took them out for a big birthday supper. Happy days to all of you.

Miss Dora Faye Lassiter, Miss Ruth Kelley, Mrs. Betty Barham and little son, Dean spent last Saturday at White Lake. They had a real nice time.

Rev. and Mrs. Leon Keefe entertained our High School Graduates last Sunday evening for supper at the Pastorium. Those present were: Ruth Kelley, Rommie Harris, Bonnie and Gene Mangum and Sandra Strickland.

Our Church had our Baptismal service Sunday night in Mount Vernon Church. We also had worship services together with them. We will have worship services at 9 a. m., Sunday School at 10 a. m.

Sunday morning May 30 a special recognition service for our graduates is planned. Special YWA service for Bonnie Gay Mangum.

Our church will send three BTU members to Caswell this summer to be in the Bible Memory Contest there. They are Judie Leonard, Ricky Carter and Tommie Barham. These have already competed in associational contests to make them eligible for Caswell. They are doing good work and we are proud of them. I'm sorry I missed the names of three of our GA mothers, who attended the mother daughter tea, in my column last week. They were Mrs. Norene Keith, Mrs. Carol Looper and Mrs. Ann Blackmon.

Mrs. Dan Leonard is spending the week with her parents way up in the mountains. I know they are having a time with that sweet little granddaughter.

The word from Florida is that the folks got home all right and Leo is feeling fine. The trip was here last week didn't hurt him, and all the rest are fine.

Our Pastor and Mrs. Keefe entertained our Deacons and their wives and Rev. and Mrs. Robert Costner of Raleigh for supper on Tuesday night. They report a most gracious fellowship.

We miss the familiar smile of Mrs. Ray Branson at the bank in Wake Forest. Mrs. Branson has retired now. She is another well qualified person to take the place of real service in her church and community. I'm sure she will not be put on the shelf and not be used. Many happy days of your own choosing, Mrs. Branson.

Jerry Looper had the worst luck this week when he ran on to a big nail head and cut his leg real bad. I'm sorry about your bad luck Jerry. I hope you get well real quick.

NOON by the Chapel Clock

One . . . two . . . three.

Four years Connie and I have listened to that deep, resonant chime counting off the hours of our college days. Sometimes it was just part of the setting at State — like the Commons, and the Quad, and Moonlight Walk. But often it called us to high moments of worship and thought and prayer.

Four . . . five . . . six.

Today we pause, and count! Exams are over. Trunks are packed. Books are on their way back to the Library. Tomorrow — Commencement.

Seven . . . eight . . . nine.

Again we're reading each other's thoughts. Let's walk once more through that graceful arch, hand-in-hand and smiling. Let's kneel together in the sacred stillness, breathing our thanks . . . our hopes . . . our needs . . . our dreams. For life and love await us. And these we will share with God! It is Noon by the Chapel Clock.

Ten . . . eleven . . . twelve.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and read your Bible daily.

larly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
