Sarah Glover, Bob Bridges Wed Saturday; To Live Here

Sarah Catherine Glover and Rob-Wayne Bridges were married Friday in the Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary Chapel at Wake Forest. The Rev. Melvin Winters officiated.

MRS. ROBERT BRIDGES

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Glover of Wake Forest. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bridges, also of Wake Forest.

The bride wore a gown of de soie with accents of alenlace and seed pearls. Her trill was of Brussels lace and carried roses, lilies of the valley and gardenias.

Betty Starr Glover, her maid of honor. Brides-

On the bride's table, the centerpiece was a candelabra flanked with magnolia leaves and lilies. After the bride and groom cut the first piece of cake, Mrs. W. W. Holding, Jr. served the cake and Mrs. Donald Gulley poured punch.

Others assisting were: Mrs. J. L. Warren, Mrs. A. C. Reid, Mrs. J. A. Hartsfield, Mrs. W. M. Mitchell, Mrs. Sam Sidenberg, Miss Judy Hartsfield, and Miss Mary Alice Warren.

OUT-OF-TOWN GUESTS

Out of town guests for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Fitzgerald, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Fulcher of New Bern; Mrs. L. G. Barden and James L. Barden of Selma; Md. and Mrs. J. C. Morton and Misses Jessica and Elizabeth Morton of Rocky Mount; Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Watkins, Robert Watkins, and Miss Mary Helen Barden of Rocky Mount; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brink of Smithfield; Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Fitzgerald, Jr., of Atlanta; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Fitzgerald and Marc Edward and Rusty Fitzgerald of Ferrum, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Tharington of Greenville; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Whittaker of Morgantown, W. Va.

Come and Sit

On Sunday afternoon at 4:30 p. m. Miss Sarah Glover was entertained at a lovely come and sit hour at the home of Mrs. W. R. Shearon.

Upon entering the guests were invited into the dining room for lemonade punch, chicken patties and individual lemon pies topped with mint sprigs, candied grapefruit peel, green mints and assorted salted nuts served from a table covered with pink linen cloth with bridal doll and candle arrangement. Silver candelabra with white tapers and ivy graced the buffet.

The bride's plate was designated by a miniature bride and groom. Around 25 guests called during the hour.

The guest of honor was presented a gift of crystal by the hostess.

Bridal Shower

Mrs. Ralph Bridges entertained at a shower honoring Miss Sarah Glover on May 16 at the Glen Royal Baptist Church.

A green and white color scheme was carried out with white roses in floral arrangements. Green punch, decorated bridal cakes, nuts, and mints were served to around 25 guests.

Bridal Party

Mrs. H. L. Miller, Mrs. C. L. Matheny, and Mrs. B. J. Powell honored the former Sarah Glover at Mrs. Powell's home last Wednesday. A color scheme of pink and white was carried out in flower arrangements on the table and elsewhere throughout the house.

Slide pictures were shown by Mrs. Melvin Winters and Mrs. Powell as suggestions of places to honeymoon. The pictures included such places as North Carolina mountains, beaches, Washington, D. C., New York, Williamsburg, and other places in Virginia.

Punch, open face sandwiches, nuts, and cookies were served to about 20 people. Miss Glover received many useful and pretty gifts.

Coke Party

Mrs. H. Edward Paschal had a Coca-cola party Saturday morning, May 29, in honor of the former Sarah Glover, at her home on Durham Road.

Mixed summer flowers were used in decorating. Coca-colas, cheese straws, sandwiches, nuts, and cookies were served to approximately 15 guests.

The honoree was presented a gift of crystal.
