Underwood Heads Golf Club

Underwood, the amicable... has been elected to serve... of the Paschal Golf... the coming year. The... Nash was applauded by... the golf club because... he will do his usual... Nash served the board... last year in the... vice-president and did... commendable job that he... ed to the head post for... On top of this Nash is... d golfer. He is a for-... champion at Paschal... and has played in many tournaments throughout his career. He has quite a golfing family as a matter of fact. In building his house Nash built a separate trophy room. At this time it is just about filled and they are contemplating building another room because of the two youngsters coming along that plan to harvest their share of the trophies. We wish for Nash and the entire Underwood family the best of luck in the coming year.

On Saturday the following members visited the Country Club of North Carolina near Pinehurst: S. W. Brewer, Tommy Byrne, Twigg Wiggins, Sammy Brewer, Dickie Brewer, Ben Aycock, Jr., Richard Lee, Philip Lloyd and Ollie Baker. Lowest score turned in by this group was an 83 by Richard Lee followed by Sammy Brewer and Phillip Lloyd with 84's and Ben Aycock with 85. It must be some tough golf course to cause such high scores among this group. Dickie says he never hit the ball so good but came away with a 93.

The big news over the crowded Labor Day weekend was the six under par fired by Ben Aycock on Monday. Fighting a huge crowd and a hot sun Ben shot a five under par 30 on the front side and followed this up with a one under 34 on the back. Included in the front side was an eagle three on the long par five 8th hole. His best shot of the day came on no. 6 on the back when he was somewhat stymied when his tee shot took a bad bounce. Ben chipped to the fairway and proceeded to knock in a 75 yard wedge shot for a birdie. In an impromptu two man tournament held Monday Ben and his partner won the trophy with a best ball of 64 exactly what Ben shot. His partner failed to cut him a stroke but who can cut birdies and eagles.

In tournament play several matches were played this week with a couple of mild upsets along the way. S. W. Brewer ousted Phil Lloyd in a sudden death on the 19th hole in a nip and tuck battle. Dewey Wiggins defeated Nash Underwood 3 and 2. Ben Aycock, Jr. defeated Bobby Kinton 6 and 5. Curt Soule defeated Twigg Wiggins 3 and 2 but Twigg won the club throwing contest by a good 20 yards. Buddy Holding won over Tommy Byrne 2 and 1 in a very close match.

Ray Faircloth defeated Bill Edwards and medalist J. C. Keeter ousted Dickie Brewer 7 and 6 in the consolation bracket. R. C. Dickerson turned on the steam on the back side and defeated P. R. Johnston one up. Leon Walters flexed his muscles at Carl MacMillan and sent him down to defeat 2 and 1. The longest match to date was the

Candis Bailey, Lloyd Owens Marry Here

Miss Candis Powell Bailey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Pressley Bailey, became the bride of Amprose Lloyd Owens, Jr. of Plymouth, N. C. on September 2 at Woodland Baptist Church. The Rev. Maurcie H. Gilliam officiated. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Owens, Sr. of Plymouth.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a white knit suit with matching accessories. She carried a prayer book topped with an orchid.

Miss Agnes Bailey was her sister's maid of honor and sole attendant.

The bridegroom's father was best man. Ushers were Sanford W. Bailey of Wake Forest, brother of the bride and Samuel Way, Jr. of Rocky Mount, N. C. The bride is a junior at Atlantic Christian College and is a member of Delta Zeta Sorority. The bridegroom, also a junior at Atlantic Christian, is a member of Sigma Pi Fraternity.

A wedding breakfast was given by parents of the bride at Southeastern Seminary Cafeteria.

After a wedding trip to the mountains of Virginia and Washington, D. C., the couple will make their home in Wilson where they plan to continue their studies.

Luncheon Saturday Honors Debutante, Rachel Nash

Miss Rachel Nash, Wake Forest debutante was honored Saturday at a luncheon given by Mrs. Frank M. Parker and Jean at their home.

An arrangement of pink and white zinnias centered the table which was covered with a white tablecloth. The pink and white color scheme was used throughout the living room and dining room. The hostess presented the honoree with a corsage of roses and a silver charm.

Guests included Mrs. Abner Nash, mother of the honoree, Misses Donna Rollins, Norma Owens, and Suzanne Mills.

contest between Paul Harrell and Dr. R. F. Christoph. This match was started on Tuesday and ended that day in a dead heat and complete darkness. Two days later they got together for a sudden death with Paul winning on the 20th hole.

In the Ladies division several matches have been completed. Fate Winkelman defeated Judy Underwood in a squeaker 2 and 1. Carol Fisher defeated Polly Hildebrand 5 and 4 and Janice Underwood squelched the hopes of Lillian Faircloth to repeat as club champion with a 4 and 3 victory. Jenny Brewer defeated Lelia Aycock 3 and 2 and Betsy Davis turned back Nancy Kitchin 4 and 3. In a mother and daughter duel, mother Jean Fisher eliminated daughter Carol by a very close margin 2 and 1. The pressure is mounting as the matches are pushing the winners closer to the championship show-down. With Sammy Brewer's defeat of defending champion Richard Lee in the Men's division and the victory by Janice Underwood we are assured of two new champions this year.
