Debbie Bullard, Climax and Trophies

Debbie Bullard Has Successful Year in Horse Circuit

Debbie Bullard, daughter of Mrs. J. L. Bullard, Wake Forest, and a sophomore at Wake Forest High School, has had a successful year in the horse circuit. With the help of her father, she has won 45 — 1st place ribbons, 37 — 2nd place ribbons, 25 — 4th place ribbons, along with 15 trophies and buckles.

A member of Capital Horsemen's Association, she was 2nd runner-up in overall points earned and won her trophy buckles as top rider in 3 classes of this association. A member of the Franklin Middle Club, two of her trophies were awarded as top performer in their shows of the year. She also won 1st place in county 4H horse project for her competition she rode pure and game events riders from North Carolina, and Virginia. She is her 9 year old sister, and as a beginner has won and her first trophy present on the Bullard's farm 5 horses and 1 colt.

Wild Ride

The game against White-Wake Forest fans had a on chartered buses coming to a stop at Hardees in a proved to be disastrous. After everyone left, one lost and finding a likely sign was spotted: "S. C. Evidently they were on road. Turning around back to Hardees, they proper way and arrived 100 A. M.

Red Devils Lose Playoff

The Wake Forest Red Devils were defeated in the Eastern Playoffs by the Whiteville Wolfpack last Friday night at Whiteville by a score of 20-7. The bruising "I" formation of the Wolfpack was too much for the Devils.

Charlie Ripple, the Whiteville fullback was the leading ground gainer, scoring all three touchdowns. The Red Devils, who were overpowered by the big backs of the Wolfpack, did well to hold them to three touchdowns.

The first quarter ended in a stale mate, and it looked as if it would be a close game, but the Wolfpack capitalized on a Red Devil fumble for the only score in the second quarter. The P. A. T. was not good. In the third quarter the Wolfpack scored twice to make the score 20-0. A pass to Eddie Warren got the Red Devils back on the scoreboard, and the game ended 20-7.

Only four penalties showed how clean and hard this game was. This gives Whiteville the right to play Burgaw for the regional championship tonight.

Several bus loads and many cars from Wake Forest went to the playoff game.

Sister of Judge Donald Gulley Dies

Graveside services for Mrs. Margaret Gulley Bonaud of Wilmington who died Friday were conducted Sunday by the Rev. A. L. McGhee in Oakdale Cemetery.

Mrs. Bonaud was a native of Wake Forest, a member of Wake Forest Baptist Church and was a member of the New Hanover High School Faculty for several years.

Survivors include her husband, Augustus Bonaud; two brothers, Judge Donald Gulley of Wake Forest and Tom Gulley of Franklinton.

UNION PROF. TO SPEAK WEDNESDAY

The Rev. George W. Webber, pastor of East Harlem Protestant Parish and professor at Union Theological Seminary of New York City, will speak in the chapel of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary on Wednesday, December 1, at 10:00 a. m. The title of his address will be "The Shape of the Church in the Secular City."

A native of Iowa and a graduate of Harvard University and Union Theological Seminary, Mr. Webber is noted for his work in East Harlem which he began in 1948. He is also associate professor of Practical Theology at Union Theological Seminary. His recent book, "God's Colony in Man's World" has received wide acclaim, and each year many seminary students undertake field work in his parish to gain training and experience in the inner city situation.

While at Southeastern Seminary, Mr. Webber will meet with various student groups in connection with the observance of Missionary Day. The chapel service is open to the general public.

Woman's Club Plans December Party

The Wake Forest Woman's Club will meet Thursday, Dec. 2, in the Community House. A Christmas program is being planned by Mrs. W. C. Strickland, Mrs. James Blackmore and Mrs. Leland Jones. Each member will bring a gift which will be placed under the Christmas tree and distributed during the social hour. Hostesses are Mrs. W. C. Strickland, Mrs. Henry Curren, Mrs. Everett Snyder, Mrs. John Sanderford, and Mrs. Boyce Medlin.

93% of United Fund Goal Reached

We Gather Together In Thankful Spirit

To meet with family and friends . . . to express our thankfulness for the many good things of life . . . these happy customs began with the first Thanksgiving Day. And may they long continue! At this season, it's our favorite custom to extend our thanks and best wishes to our friends and customers. To all of you, a happy, hearty Thanksgiving season!

The Wake Weekly

Gift Sought for Men in Viet Nam

Gifts and books for U. S. servicemen in Viet Nam being collected locally will be taken to Raleigh where they will be flown Dec. 3 by National Guard Plane to a regional center at Charlotte. The Department of Defense will then arrange transportation to Viet Nam and distribution among troops.

Miss Jesse Davis, who has spearheaded the collection in Wake Forest, will pick up items if you will call her at 556-3500. Gifts may be left at Petronia's Beauty Shop or The Wake Weekly office.

The air lift — a nationwide effort authorized by the Department of Defense to carry Christmas gifts from groups and organizations in American communities to U. S. servicemen in Viet Nam is entitled "Christmas Star".

Gifts most suitable for donation are those which "are not perishable, not highly fragile, and do not require electric current." Paper back books, personal items, writing paper, games, etc. are fine.

Gifts received here will be pooled with collections in other areas and will not be designated for Wake County servicemen or any specific group.

In Raleigh veteran's organizations and their auxiliaries are collecting gifts and signatures for a "mile-long" letter of Christmas greetings to be sent to U. S. servicemen in Viet Nam. This temporary office for collection of gifts is located at 411 Fayetteville St. in Raleigh.

More of us would be willing to lend an ear to other people's trouble if they didn't try to chew it off.

PARRIS ISLAND, S. C. — Marine Private First Class Michael R. Crusier is congratulated by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Crusier, here Nov. 15 following his graduation from recruit training. With them are his younger brother, Clyde (center) and his senior drill instructor, Sergeant E. W. Johnson (left). A 1965 graduate of Wake Forest High School, PFC Crusier was meritoriously promoted to his present rank, named "Outstanding Recruit" of Platoon 382, and awarded Leatherneck Magazine's Dress Blue Uniform Award. He will report to Memphis, Tenn. for aviation school following basic infantry training at Camp Lejeune, N. C. The Crusiers reside at 119 Vernon Ave., Wake Forest. (Official USMC photo by LCpl. DuBois Crowns Harvest Queen

The Harvest Festival and Ball was presented at DuBois School Tuesday night amid beautiful fall decorations.

The special feature was the crowning of Miss Lois Langley as Harvest Queen of 1965. Miss Langley was escorted by Kevin Harris, both are sophomores. The queen was attired in a beautiful gown which blended completely with the dresses of the ladies in her court. Miss Langley is active in many school activities and is considered by both her classmates and teachers as the ideal queen to represent DuBois School.

Miss Harvest Queen was crowned by Donnel Burton, Senior and the only finalist in the Wake County-Raleigh area for the Foundation Achievement of Outstanding Negro Students.

Attendants to the queen were Misses Pricille Watkins, Jolene Smith, and Debra Eaton.

Another important feature of the festival was the crowning of Parent Queens, Mrs. Mae Hood and Mrs. Chariety Dunn. This phase of the program was a means of showing appreciation for the support received from the parents of the school. The parent queens are both active and strong supporters of the P. T. A. and the school. They were crowned by the Principal T. J. Culler.

Another feature of the program was to encourage a Scholarship Fund, which has been established for the DuBois graduates who are continuing in school.

Those graduates who are enrolled in colleges and other institutions in this area were invited to attend the affair for special recognition. From St. Augustine's College — Danny Scarborough, and Enoch Hood, Jr. Shaw University — Misses Vera Allen, Annette Allen; Edward Williams and Lawrence Shackelford. North Carolina College at Durham — Luther Watkins, Sherle Boone, Otis Jones, Donald Hartsfield, Misses Dianne Williams, Shirley Peppers, Rosa Parker, and Maurice Hinton. Raleigh Business College — Leona Sneed and Leonia Perry. W. W. Holding Technical Institute — James Davis, Joe Evans, and Norflet Mangum. Rex Hospital School of Nursing — Carol Stallings. North Carolina State University — Richard Shackelford.

The gymnasium was beautifully decorated, under the direction of Mrs. T. J. Syms, "In Autumn Creations." All participants were

The Wake Forest United Fund has reached 93% of its goal or $8,844.43 according to campaign chairman, Dr. E. Luther Copeland.

All but two divisions went over 100% with the schools (public schools and seminary) having 121% of their goal.

Both industry and business failed to reach their goals, but Dr. Copeland indicated more may come in on these. The local industries (employees and company gifts) contributed $2568.90 for 88% of their goal. The breakdown was Royal Cotton Mill, $650; Schrader, $694; Burlington's Wake Finishing Company, $935; and Athey Corp., $379. John Wooten was chairman of this division.

Other divisions with amounts collected, chairmen, and % of goal are as follows: Advance Gifts, H. L. Miller, $1,332.00, 102%; Governmental (hospital, post office and town), S. W. Brewer Jr., $316, 105%; Residential, Mrs. James Tull, $504.80, 101%; Schools (public schools and seminary), Dr. Carroll Trotter, $1,809.25, 121%; Business, John D. Lyon, $2213.50, 76.3%.

Dr. Copeland issued the following statement this week: "Let me express my great appreciation for the excellent cooperation and support which the citizens of the Wake Forest community have given to the United Fund this fall. I am especially grateful to the many persons who have helped in the solicitation."

If anyone has been missed in the collection, he may still send a pledge or contribution to Luther Copeland, Box 848, Wake Forest.

Band to get new uniforms

The Wake Forest Band Boosters Club have opened a drive to raise funds for the purchase of 40 new uniforms. The present uniforms are over ten years old and with the exception of a few replacements are in need of many costly repairs. The original uniforms if replaced now at present day prices are about $80 each.

A new type of uniform, which is now used by more schools, and is less expensive is planned. (The cost to be paid by the club is about $35 for boys and $31 for girls.)

The Club plans to buy Red Blazers with Silver Buttons and an embroidered Wake Forest Band Insignia on the pocket and Black Montgomery Berets with silver lyre ornament. White shirts are to be worn and the red ties already owned by the band.

Each band member is expected to pay the cost of black pants or skirts to be ordered from Robert Rollings Company and these will belong to the member ordering them. In cases of more than one child from the same family in the band the club plans to pay for 2nd or 3rd pants or skirts needed and the club will retain ownership of these. Band members will also be expected to wear black shoes and socks for all parades or performances.

It is also hoped that sufficient money might be raised to purchase red sweaters for the Junior Band to wear in parades. Anticipated cost is $3.99 each.

The Senior band marched in the Raleigh Christmas Parade Monday, and both the Junior and Senior bands will take part in the Wake Forest Parade on Dec. 10.

Brooks and Elm Get Paved

The streets in front of Miller Oil Co. and Keith's Market finally get paving to replace dust and mud.

Society Honors Two

Society Plans to Restore Interior

The Wake Forest Birthplace Society, Inc. at its meeting here Friday, plans for restoring the Calvin Jones House.

Crittenden, president, says some $20,000 would be needed to complete the restoration. The group agreed that work would begin until the money is available to complete the project.

At the meeting, Dr. Crittenden and members of the society paid tribute to Mrs. James A. Harris who made a motion in 1956 at the Wake Forest Garden Club that a committee be appointed to save the oldest house in Wake Forest scheduled to be torn down to make way for the Seminary Cafeteria. The following Garden Club Committee was appointed: Chairman, Mrs. James A. Harris, Mrs. Elliott Earnshaw, Mrs. Hubert Potteat, Mrs. C. T. Wilkinson, Mrs. O. K. Holding, Mrs. David Smoot, Miss Nannie Holding, Mrs. C. S. Black, Mrs. A. C. Reid, Mrs. Donald Gully, Mrs. Helen Johnston and retary after having served since the society was founded. President C. C. Crittenden; Vice-President John Wooten; and Treasurer J. L. Warren were re-elected.

Mr. Dick Sawyer, Dept. of Archives and History, showed color slides of several historic site restorations in North Carolina.
