The Junior Choir went to Wake Chapel and Rock Spring Sunday.

The Senior choir held a program Sunday night. Choirs present were Riley Hill, Olive Branch, Family Circle, St. Mary and Bailey.

Mr. Tobbie Wiggins is improving very much after being ill.

Mr. Hazel Hartsfield and others are bricking several houses in Rolesville.

The dining hall and rest room are about finished in the new building at New Bethel.

Mr. Will Dunn is going back to New Jersey.

The program at the last meeting of the Dramatics Club was a ten minute skit in three acts. The characters were: the King — Ryan Keith; The Devoted Queen — Kathy Stertz; The Duke — Danny Marshall; the Princess — Alice Thornton; the curtain and scene shifter — Gail Short. Mr. Brinkley, a guest, suggested the club put on a skit for the school.

Linda Rollins was crowned Miss Wake Forest Rescue Squad, Friday night, in the high school gym. She sang and danced to "A Taste of Honey" in talent competition.

Members of Linda's Court are Nancy Davis, first runner-up; Mary Ella Dodd, second; Emily Jo Holding, third; Stannie Parish, fourth.

Let's Laugh:

Tim: Did you hear about the lens maker who fell into his grinding machine?

Jim: No What happened?

Tim: He made a spectacle of himself.

Rolesville Firemen Auxiliary Entertain

Members of the Rolesville Fire Department and the Ladies Auxiliary entertained members of their families at a Family Night Supper on Saturday night at the Fire House. Special invited guests included all the board members and their families.

The Ladies Auxiliary were in charge of decorating for the event and they used a green and red motif in keeping with the Christmas Season. A dinner of chicken barbecue, potato salad, cole slaw and drinks, were prepared and served by the firemen and their wives to approximately 75 people.

CARD OF THANKS

We are sincerely grateful to our friends and neighbors for their many kind acts of sympathy during our bereavement. Our appreciation cannot be adequately expressed.

The family of Darwin Jackson Sr.
