

By PAULINE HARDING

Just one week from today and it will be Christmas Eve! Everyone enjoyed the parade last Friday and we are all busily engaged in all the tasks that go to make Christmas. May it indeed be "merry and bright" — We hope lots of former Wake Foresters will be here for the holidays. Billie Perry, who now lives in New York City, sends Christmas greetings. The former Ruth Deans sends greetings and pictures of her FIVE children. She is now Mrs. Don Gray and lives in Christianburg, Va. Harold Simpson, now a major in the Air Force, has sent Christmas greetings to Wake Forest and a pretty picture of his five children. He is presently stationed at Offret Air Force Base in Nebraska. It's real good to have news of those who grew up here and are now living elsewhere. Tell me about the cards and pictures you receive of former Wake Foresters for our Christmas column next week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Woodlief were in Norfolk, Va. Sunday and Monday to be among the many invited guests to welcome home the big aircraft carrier U.S.S. Independence, which has been in Viet Nam combat for 5 months. They, together with Peggy, were on board Monday morning for special services with many celebrities, including Miss America. (Bet Tommy Lee and those other sailors liked that!)

After lunch on board, Mr. and Mrs. Woodlief and Tommy Lee

Mr. Ivey Perry was a patient at Wake Forest Hospital all last week, but returned home Monday of this week. We are so glad he is doing so much better.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Harding and Mrs. Geneva Whitley went to Kingston on Sunday after receiving word of the tragedy. A former Wake Forester, the former Wanda Johnson was killed in an automobile accident. We are all in sympathy with Mrs. Clark, Margaret and Wanda's children.

Miss Faythe Harding arrives home today for a two weeks' Christmas vacation.

Falls News

By Mrs. D. P. Jenks

If anyone wonders why David Looper ran off the road one morning recently, David was going to work and he skidded on ice on the road. There were others who saw him and proved he was not reckless. David was not hurt but frightened real bad.

Well it's party time again. Parties and dinners everywhere.

The new press at the Wake Weekly is just out of this world. I was in the shop the day it was making its first run of papers and got one of the very first prints. Good work Bob and Peggy. But thanks to you for letting me fold them back in '54 a few times.

Miss Effie Robertson will be here in the Pentecostal Holiness Church Sunday afternoon, Dec. 19, at 3 o'clock for a preaching and singing service. You are invited to attend.

The Junior girls had their Christmas party Friday night, Dec. 10 at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Leonard. After playing games and singing carols they enjoyed refreshments which consisted of chicken salad sandwiches, pickles, potato chips, cookies and Christmas punch. Those attending were Rachel Perry, Martha Carter, Phyllis Smith, Patty Keefe and Vickie Leonard.

Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Leonard visited Mr. and Mrs. William Barham and Miss Pearl Jenks Saturday afternoon.

We had our circle meeting Tuesday morning with Mrs. Betty Haskins. Twelve members were present. After our program, we made our little cats. These are for some very special people that you will hear about after Christmas. When we had finished our program, Betty had us go into her dining room for a real good treat of sandwiches, Cokes, peanuts and cookies. We all enjoyed the fellowship very much. Hope Strickland and Mark Young were our little guests.

At this writing Jeff Looper is sick with that mean old virus. I wish somebody could kill that old mean thing. It's always making some good little fellow sick.

We missed his mother, Carol at our circle meeting, but of course her little Jeff came first.

We hope he and all our little friends are well by now.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to thank all my friends and neighbors and the staff of Wake Forest Hospital for the many, many things done for me and my family while a patient at the hospital. Also thanks for the gifts, cards and many beautiful flowers that I received.
