

Glen Royal News

By PAULINE HARDING

Merry Christmas! May all the joys of the season be yours! Above all, may the true spirit of the holy season be in each heart, with the Christ child being enshrined there. As we hear the song "O Come let us adore Him" let us truly worship Him in our lives.

Mrs. Oreather Harding almost has a Christmas birthday. She was born Dec. 1. The girls where she worked gave her a party. They had a big, beautiful cake and she received pretty gifts.

Mr. Mack Weaver was born even nearer Christmas! His birthday was Dec. 21. He celebrated last Sunday with a cake and good dinner at home with the Maurice Hortons for guests. On Tuesday he went "out to dinner" with the G. H. Hardings.

One of the most beloved Christmas traditions is caroling. The Church of God carolers sang at the Rest Homes Sunday night. After the caroling they had hot chocolate and Christmas cookies at the Youth Center.

On Monday night the W.M.U. sang carols at the Rest Home. Everyone enjoys these carols — the people who sing and the people who listen.

Linda Kay Tant, Faythe Harding, Tommy Lee Woodlief are among the ones who are home for Christmas. Tommy Lee had a boy friend with him for the week end from Minnesota. They brought back many interesting films and slides from Japan, Viet Nam and other places.

It seems that the minds of the people who get up Christmas plays run together! It's been real funny to find out that the Glen Royal Baptist Church and the Church of God will be presenting the same play this year on Christmas Eve. So you only get to choose which church you attend this year, not which play you will see. It will be fun and happiness and lots of Christmas spirit at either one — so plan to meet your friends and neighbors at church!

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Branch were at her mother's house for Christmas dinner on Sunday and took Mr. Branch's parents along. They enjoyed opening presents along with the nice dinner for their early Christmas party.

Wake Forest Branch Hospital Patients

Patients in Wake Forest Hospital Wednesday morning included: Nathan Beck, Mrs. Vivian Bell, Mrs. Iola Edwards, Rutherford Lee Edwards, Mrs. Martha Harvell, John Craig Jones, Rev. Cadwin H. Norris, Mrs. Shirley Denton Pitman and baby girl, Wiley Atkins Tharlington all of Wake Forest; Mrs. Peggy Cyrus, Jimmy Jackson, John Henry Parrish all of Youngsville; Miss Selena C. Hall of Richmond, Va.; Sherman Wilder of Franklinton.

Those patients discharged were Mrs. Delores Caudill and Mrs. Ethel Stell both of Raleigh; Charles Pervison of Franklinton; Robert Stell of Wendell; Alvard Walters, Mrs. Ida Henley, and Mrs. Gyuylene Stroud all of Wake Forest.

Willises Entertain Employees Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Willis entertained their employees and burial insurance officers and their families on Sunday afternoon at their annual Christmas dinner. The home was decorated throughout for the Christmas Season. The guests all gathered around the Christmas Tree and were welcomed by Mr. Willis. Woodrow Woodlief led in prayer. Christmas gifts were exchanged and then the fifty guests enjoyed a delicious buffet dinner.

Woodland News

By MRS. J. B. MANGUM

The Sunbeams met last Sunday morning during worship service, with their leaders, Mrs. Evelyn Hamm and Mrs. Patsy Downs. They each made Christmas Cards for their parents and each one received a gift from their leader. Refreshments of Kool-aid, cookies and candy were served.

The young adult Ladies Sunday School Class along with several visitors from other classes enjoyed a Christmas social last Saturday in the basement of the church. Several games were played. Then a Linen shower was given for Walter, Yvonne and Eddie Keith. Later refreshments of assorted Christmas cookies and red punch were served.

Most all of our college students were at home during the weekend and for the Christmas Holidays with their parents. Karen Pearce, Suzanne Wheelous, Donna Rollins, Judith Shepherd, Steve Lye, Neal Shearon and Mike Cox were all at church. We are always glad to have them.

Candis and Lloyd Owens of Wilson College spent Monday and Tuesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Bailey and family. They were going to visit his parents in Plymouth and come back again on Christmas Day.

Mrs. Sarah Woodlief is at home after spending two weeks with her son, Mr. and Mrs. Fleming Woodlief and family in Benson. Her daughter, Hortense and Steve Gibson of Richmond, Va. will come Friday and spend the holidays with her. Then other children and their families will also be visiting during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Sherron and Randy entertained several of their friends at a dinner at their home Saturday evening.

Mr. S. G. Mangum celebrated her 76th birthday on Saturday. She had dinner with her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Worth Pearce. Karen was also home for the weekend.

The Peaces visited their daughter, Patsy Whitt and daughters in Raleigh on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Minor and Bob were dinner guests on Saturday evening of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mangum.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mangum honored her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Keith of Rolesville on their 52nd Wedding Anniversary with dinner at the King of the Sea on Tuesday evening. Later they visited Mr. and Mrs. Harol Montague, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Liles and Mr. and Mrs. Rogus Edwin Keith all of Raleigh.

Mr. Henry Pearce returned home from Mary Elizabeth Hospital last Friday after being a patient there for several days for observation.

Mr. J. A. Sandling Sr. remains a patient at Mary Elizabeth Hospital where she has been for several weeks. Our prayers go out for her at this Christmas time and also to her family. Hope she will soon be at home. One of our young girls at Woodland received a beautiful diamond last weekend. Congratulations Judith.

Dinner guests last Sunday of Mrs. Lela Choplin were Marlie and Elton Choplin and families and Mrs. Magdalene Thompson and family. Joining them in the afternoon were Lewis Choplin and Cora Lee Bailey and family. She will have Billie and Henry Lowery and Miriam of Jacksonville for the holidays, also Betty and Keith Williams of Aikens, S. C. and on Christmas Day most all of the family will be there for dinner, including Sanford and Nola Bailey and Sonya and Candis an Lloyd Owens.

Mr. Nyle Hart's brother, Dr. Hart and his wife are both patients at Apex Hospital at this time.

Here's from all our Woodland People — Wishing you a Merry Christmas and a very Happy New Year.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Busse and family will arrive today (Thursday) to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Davis and also the Walter Keiths.

The bells ring out with joyful notes and voices merrily echo their song: Merry Christmas to all!
