

Fred Harper Retires

rier Fred Harper retired effective to retire was not reached easily December 31 after 38 years and and that he will miss his good five months with the Post Office. friends along the route. But he Harper began with the local post won't miss the red clay mud office July 9, 1927 and until May (which seemed to constantly spat-15. 1944 he worked on the inside. Since then he has been a rural carrier and has seen his daily route grow from 36 miles to 70.3 miles.

Methodist WSCS To Meet Wednesday

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Wake Forest Methodist Church, will meet Wednesday, Jan. 12 at 7:45 at the church. Mrs. D. M. Lowie is program chairman. Hostesses are Mrs. C. L. Jackson, Mrs. Kent Barbee and Mrs. G. G. Hill.

Miss Rogers To Head Cancer Drive

Miss Aileen E. Rogers, has been named chairman of the American Cancer Society Drive which will be held during the month of January. Miss Rogers, along with her core of workers will be calling on all homes within the Rolesville area in the next few weeks.

Cubs Attend Game

Eighter Cien from Wake Forest Cub Scout Pag attended coast radar reflectivity range. the N.C. State sity-Penn State basketball Monday, December 27.

master and Mrs. Pickerson, sion, reflects "a growing demand Mr. and Mrs. Jamncey, Mr. for high caliber support services and Mrs. Toby I Mr. and at government owned installations Mrs. Jim Cash, rs. L. D. in the western states". He added Brandon.

Wake Forest Rural Mail Car- | He admitted that the decision ter his car), nor the cold and the snow.

> Fred has been putting off retirement for several years. He just couldn't bring himself to stop, but last week with thoughts of the bad winter weather ahead, he finally Folks on Route 3 shouldn't be surprised if they see a familiar car along the route however. Fred might get lonesome for his "daily rounds" and his friends along the leased decided the time had come.

Injured In Wreck Edward Donald Perry 24 of Chestnut St. Wake Forest apparently rolled his '56 Chevrolet (pictured) over several times early New Year's Day between Wake Forest and Youngsville, according to Trooper G. W. Kearney, who investigated. Perry and his two mhildren. Deborah and Edward were treated at Wake Forest Hospital and re-

Three Passengers

Another passenger, Donnie Perry, 15, was taken to Wake Memorial Hospital where he was treated Perry reportedly told the Trooper he was forced off the road by an oncoming car on his side of the road. The car is a total loss.

G. T. WICKER TO HEAD WESTERN OFFICE

Radiation Service Company, a subsidiary of Radiation Incorporated, has named G. T. Wicker to head the firm's new Western District Office, opening January 15 in Tucson, Arizona.

Wicker, a veteran of thirteen years with the Melbourne, Florida based Corporation, will direct support services at five government installations in the West. The firm, which has 150 engineers and technicians stationed at these sites, provides operation and maintenance services for data reduction centers and supports cross sectional studies at a major Pacific The new Western District Office, according to an announcement by Harry E. Cannon, Direc-Adults taking thewere Cub- tor of the Federal Services Divithat the new office "will help us by Dr. Corbin in Rolesville and found only to have a few minor cuts and bruises. .Patrolman Charles Smith investigated --(Lois Barham Photo). for head injuries. FEDERAL PHONE SERVICE tion services.

To Meet Tuesday

Rolesville Fire Department, will old their January meeting next Tuesday night, January 11th at :30 in the fire house.

All members are urged to be

DuBois Loses

By Lenwood Massenburg

Dubois High Boys lost to Garner 61-48 Dec. 21. RECEIVES PROMOTION improve by shortening lines of

Complete 1 Yr. At Athey

Athey employees who have just completed one year of service are pictured with W. D. Lease, president, and Harold A. Diehl, plant manager. They are (I to r) front row - Charles Deans, Rt. 2 Middlesex; Mike Pate, Rt. 4, Zebulon; Franklin Bowling, Rt. 2 Frank-linton; (Middle row) - Wallace Holmes, Rt. 2 Wake Forest; Bob

Farabow, Fuquay; Jerry Hopkins, Rt. 2 Middlesex; (Back row) -

Diehl, Keith Campbell, Wake Forest; Tommie Bailey, Rt. 3 Wake

TEENAGE CLUB COMMITTEE (Lois Barham Photo).

begin paying far lower federal ex- | cent each year until it is eliminated in January, 1969. President subscribers will realize an average annual savings of rate reduces. Altogether, the effect of the lower rate will result in about $2,500,000 being added to > Carolina in 1966. The 1965 excise tax bill for Carolina Telephone users is expected to exceed $3,565,500. The telephone company acts as an agent to bill, collect, and remit these taxes to the federal government. Rulesville PTA

To Meet Monday

The Rolesville School PTA will hold its January meeting on Monday night at 7:30 in the school cafeteria.

D. Hartsfield with 12 points was Guest speaker for this meeting leading DuBois scorer. Others will be Mrs. Frances Setzer, Field were P. Massenburg 10, D. Burton | Secretary for the North Carolina 10. H. Bumpers 8. C. Williams 6, Parent Teacher Association.

Rescue Squad Gets $25 Monthly Appropriation

Friday Morning, Jan. 7, 1966

DR. LOVELACE DELIVERS CONVOCATION

Southeastern Baptist Theological | tist Theological Seminary. He has Seminary opened its spring term | done graduate study at the Orienvesterday with a convocation lec- tal Institute of the University of ture by Dr. Marc H. Lovelace on Chicago, Duke University, the "Covenant, Conquest and Captivi- University of Pennsylvania and the American School of Oriental

Dr. Lovelace is a native of North Carolina and a graduate of High Point College and Southern Bap-

The Wake Weekly

And The Youngsville - Rolesville Record

PTA TO DISCUSS SEPARATE PTA FOR HIGH SCHOOL A color film "Where Children Came First" will be shown at the Wake Forest PTA meeting Thursday, Jan. 13, and members will also consider the organization of a separate high school PTA.

The meeting is at 8 p.m. in the Elementary School Auditorium. Mrs. Thomas Bland, local PTA president, said Mrs. Ben T. Aycock, high school representative, TUESDAY AT NOON will present a report on the study of a PTA for the high school. Members will vote at this meeting on Community Council met on Jan. 4 wheteher to continue with plans. at the Seminary Cafeteria to dis-High school parents especially are cuss the work of the council for urged to be present for this disthe coming year. cussion. Dr. Garland Hendricks, chair-

The 28-minute film produced in color and sound by the National Congress of Parents and Teachers pictures how PTA has kept pace with the needs of growing children in today's changing world.

It takes PTA from the big busiand a picture of the council will be ness National office to the PTA of made at this time, all members anv U. S. town.

are urged to be present. The executive committee will meet at 7:30 in the Elementary School Library.

Madame Butterfly Next Friends Concert

Next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday will see performances of the biggest undertaking of the sea

The Wake County Board of Commissioners Monday approved a $25 monthly appropriation from the Civil Defense budget for the Wake Forest resque squad.

8 pages this week 10c Per Copy

Col. John Thorne, director of the Wake County Civil Defense agency, said the rescue squad will use the appropriation along with $1,024 it now has to buy equipment.

Research of Jerusalem. Last year Thorne said the Wake Forest he studied at Oxford University unit, organized one year ago, has and participated for a second 17 active members and an inventime in archaeological excavations tory of tools and equipment valued in the Near East. He has served of archaeology at Southeastern Seminary. He has written for many Baptist papers and contributed to the Interpreter's Dic-

COMMUNITY

The officers of the Wake Forest man of the council, announced that the next meeting of the council will be on Jan. 11 at 12 noon in the Sem-items of business for the council

As there are several important tionary of the Bible.

at $1.500. as pastor of churches in Kentucky Col. Thorne and Rescue Captain and as associate professor of re-Rodney Bright attended the Counligion at Wake Forest College. ty Board meeting to request the Since 1952 he has been professor appropriation. of religion at Wake Forest Col lege. Since 1952 he has been pro-

Anderson to Speak On "Bees" at Garden Club Meeting Tues.

Mr. J. E. Anderson will talk on 'Bees" at the Jan. 11 meeting of the Wake Forest Garden Club at 3:30 p.m. Hostesses will be Mrs. Leland Jones, Mrs. Beverly Lake, Mrs. S. W. Brewer Jr. and Mrs. Robert E. Olsen.

Marketing Specialist To Speak at Whitley Mr. John H. Cyrus, State tobacco marketing specialist, will speak at Vaiden Whitley High School, January 13 at 7:30 p.m. Mr. Cyrus will explain the tobacco marketing outlook for 1966. Farmers in the school district look forward each year when Mr. Cyrus visits the school and brings them up to date on the current tobacco situation, stated L. C. Liles, adult coordinator at Whitley School. Mr. Liles also stated that the farm bureau units of Rolesville, Wendell and Knightdale will meet for a short business meeting after the talk by Mr. Cyrus.

Part of China's Grand Canal was built in the 7th century.

inary Cafeteria.

Christmas Eve Wreck

Phillip Woodlief, 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Woodlief, of Rt. 2 Wake Forest, escaped from this overturned automobile on Christmas Eve after he lost control and it landed in a ditch on a

Following the accident, young Wodlief climbed out of the rear car window and went for help at a nearby home. He was checked rural dirt road near the C. E. Young Store, just off Hwy. 96.

Starting in January, 1966, custo-1 for further reduction of excise taxmers of Carolina Telephone will es on communications by 1 per

Published at Wake Forest, North Carolina 27587

ROLELE GROCER RETIRES

One of Rolesviong time merchants, Cecil es, retired this week from as has held for 37 years.

Jones, who wasger of the G. J. Robertson any Store which handles greand hardware, went in we store in 1928. He has mi the business since 1935.

As to what he idoing now with his spare tines, replied that he hadn't be of the business long enougto decide; but he stated thlid plan to do a lot of restinhen maybe he would start y of some type.

The store is maged by Charles Williamesident of Rolesville for years who was formerly w Rolesville Market & Supplialong with his wife, Christir Mrs. Mary Scarboro, will e to serve the residents of a.

CECIL JONES - (Lois Barham Photo).

17 Pounds of Hogs

During the winter days, hog killings are taking place atmost every sughout the countryside. Among farmers there is always this who has raised the largest hog and they all like to compweight. June Eddins, who with a core of workers kills hogusiness for farmers, stated that the largest he has killed thielonged to W. J. Mitchell. The two hogs together weighed inds dressed and are shown here with Mitchell in between. -(Lois Barham Photo).

ment and site personnel"

Previously Assistant Director of the Federal Services Division, an operating unit of Radiation Service Company, Wicker brings to the post an extensive background in contract administration and managemet. Mr. Wicker was formerly connected with the Miller Oil Co. of Wake Forest. He is the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Miller, Wake Forest, North Carolina.

communications between manage-

G. T. WICKER

WAKE FOREST GIRLS TOP CARY 30-24

Wake Forest's girls led by the trio of Sue Pleasants 9, Linda Denton 9 and Judy Underwood 8 topped Cary here Tuesday night 30-24. Cary's Holt scored 14 of her teams points.

Other seeing action for Wake Forest were Kandy Frye 2, Jenny Wright 2, Edna Powell, Marti Thornton, Judy Frazier, Diane Tarn, Alice Lowery and Nancy Hammack. The girls have last only one game.

The Red Devils took a 64-49 drubbing at the hands of Cary whose Eason scored 30 points.

Playing for Wake Forest were Donald Pleasants 13, John Henry Denton 8, Ben Aycock 8, Eddie Warren 7, Sammy Brewer 7, Wayne Ray 4, Jimmy Keith 2, Johnny Wooten, Paul Harrell and Cecil Shearon.

RED DEVIL SCHEDULE

Jan. 7	Fuquay	HOM
Jan. 11	Millbrook	Awa
Jan. 14	Smithfield	Awa
Jan. 17	Youngsville	HOM
Jan. 21	Clayton	Awa
Jan. 25	Garner	HOM
Jan. 28	Benson	Awa

60 attending.

Rolesville Teenage Club The Rolesville Teenage Club | Mitchell, Neal Mitchell and Bill | be on January 15th and will be

Forest; and Lease.

got off to a good start with their Mitchell from the Fire Depart- held at the school. Membership first meeting on New Year's Eve ment and Mrs. Wall from the Lawhen they held a party at the Fire dies Auxiliary. House. According to Mrs. Joan During the day prior to the par-

Wall, member of the committee ty, several teenagers along with organizing the club, there were the sponsoring groups worked getting the fire house cleaned and Three organizations in Rolesville decorated for the New Year's Eve are sponsoring the club and on Party. Helping were Betty Kay hand as chaperons from the Home Raybon, Linda Pearson, Linda Demonstration Club were Mrs. | Wall, Mike Mitchell, Neal Mitchell John Perkinson and Mrs. L. F. and Mrs. Wall.

Weathers. Assisting were Mike' The next scheduled meeting will ¹ Mrs. Joan Wall.

cards are available for $1.00 each and entitles the holder to attend all meetings, or they may pay the | Hospital on Dec. 27.

entry fee of 25 cents at each meeting Shown in the photo are two of

from left, Betty Kay Raybon and Linda Wall, with Mike Mitchell and son on the Friends of the College Series. For their premier performance, The Metropolitan Opera National Company will present "Madame Butterfly" by Puccini, one of the most popular operas ever written.

Everyone in the Wake Forest -Youngsville area who has 'Friends'' tickets'' should be able to attend a one of the three nights. Remember to take your tickets to Erdahl-Cloyd Union if you wish to exchange them for another night. If you can not use your tickets, please see that someone else gets to use them, especially some young person in this area.

Wake Forest Branch Hospital Patients

Patients discharged from Wake Forest Hospital during the past two weeks were Jack Tesh, Miss Edith Stroud, Watson Winstead, R. L. Edwards, Mrs. Shirley Pittman and baby girl, Mrs. Iola Edwards, Mrs. Vivian Bill, Mrs. Polly Tilley, Mrs. Ruby Ray, Mrs. Patricia Moccia and baby girl, Mrs. Willie Lee Snead and baby girl, William Timberlake, Wiley Tharrington, Mrs. Barbara Ellington, all of Wake Forest;

Mrs. Peggy Cyrus, John H. Parrish, Kenneth Hill, Mrs. Elizabeth Dement, Jimmy Jackson all of Youngsville; Miss Selema Hoyle of Richmond, Va.; Harry Lord, Mrs. Alice Patterson Arnold and baby boy of Raleigh; Sherman Wilder of Franklinton.

Included among patients in Wake Forest Hospital Wednesday were Bennie Daniel, Craig Jones, Rev. C. H. Norris, Mrs. Martha Harvell, Mrs. Helen C. Rich, Claude Davis. Mrs. McRee Neville, all of Wake Forest; Mrs. Doris Harris of Greensboro; William Pearce and Mrs. Rachel Minor both of Youngsville; Mrs. MaeBell Joyner of Franklinton and Robert Stell of Wendell.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Frank Snead of Wake Forest announce the birth of a daughter at the Wake Forest

> Mrs. Snead is the former Willie Lee Wilbourne.

Mr. and Mrs. McDonald Arnold the teenagers with two members of Raleigh announce the birth of of the sponsoring groups. In front a son at the Wake Forest Hospital on Dec. 26.

Mrs. Arnold is the former Alice Patterson.

A Lot of Good Eating

Schrader employees John Boyle (left), Mrs. Charles Smith, and Joe Gahagen pick up free turkeys given by Schrader just before -(Photos by Bob Allen). Christmas.

H. E. Perry, June Privette, Vernon Massey, manager of the plant, and Reese Duncan, company president, load plates at first Christmas dinner for Rolesville Garment Co. employees. (Barham Photo)

Plant Has Holiday Dinner

A "first" for the Rolesville Gar- | eny, stated that the community ment Company was a Christmas had worked long and hard for such Dinner for the employees on Thurs- an industry as this plant and that day, December 23rd.

group and then presented each C. D. Matheny and C. K. Brown, with a 12 pound turkey. Also corporation member, and E. R. standing community leader. Math- of Rolesville.

now it had truly become a reality. Special invite guests enjoying Since this plant just began its the baked ham dinner were June operation in March of last year, Privette, president of the Rolesthis was the first Christmas gath- ville Development Corporation; H. ering for its officials and em- E. Perry, mayor of Rolesville and ployees. Prior to the dinner, Reese vice president of the corporation; Duncan of Raleigh, president of Sam Wall, Braxton Gay, stock the company, spoke briefly to the | holders; James Cade, town clerk; speaking to the group was C. D. Tharrington, principal of the Matheny, member of the Rolesville | school. The dinner was prepared Development Corporation and out- and served by Shearon's Barbecue

-(Bob Allen Photo).