

FAMED GERMAN PASTOR TO SPEAK

Dr. Martin Niemoeller, the famed German pastor who defied Hitler and was imprisoned for eight years in Nazi concentration camps, will speak at West Raleigh Presbyterian Church during special services February 27 through March 1. The church is located on Home Street, across from the campus of N. C. State University, and the services will be open to the public.

Dr. Niemoeller will preach at 8:45 a. m. and 11 a. m. on February 27, and at 7:30 p. m. February 27, February 28 and March 1.

On March 2 at 1 p. m., he will speak in the Erdahl-Cloyd Union at N. C. State on the subject "Current Trends in East-West Relations."

Dr. Niemoeller was a German naval officer from 1910 to 1920 and commanded a submarine during World War I. He was ordained a minister of the Evangelical Church in 1924. After Hitler came to power, he at first hoped for a satisfactory relationship between church and government, but finally rebelled against Hitler's invasion of church affairs and Nazi demands on the Christian conscience.

During the years since World War II, he has been active in church statesmanship, and is now one of the six presidents of the World Council of Churches.

Funeral Services Held for Ed. Fowler

Funeral services were held Sunday for Edgar Fowler of Washington, D. C., formerly of Rolesville, at the New Bethel Baptist Church with the Rev. W. A. Morgan officiating. Burial followed in the church cemetery.

He was survived by two daughters, Mrs. Lucille Peoples, Mrs. Ella Mae Harrison; one son, John E. Fowler all of Washington, D. C.; one brother, Andrew Fowler of Philadelphia, Pa.; two aunts, Mrs. Mary Mitchell of Raleigh and Mrs. Lydia Hayes of Wake Forest.

NEUSE BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS

By Mrs. Velma Chambers

Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come. Matt. 24:42.

You have heard the saying, "The family who prays together, stays together." The same is true of a Church, for we are one big family of God. We must give credit for the success of the growth of our Church, to our men's prayer band, who meet each Sunday morning at 7 o'clock. There were 22 present Sunday morning. Mr. Ed Mitchell was speaker. I was told Mr. Mitchell did a marvelous job.

There were 205 present for Sunday School, and another overflow crowd for the 11 o'clock service. Rev. Carey brought a very outstanding and timely message. His subject was, "Signs of the Times and the Coming of Christ." II Timothy 3:1-5. Matt. 24:7.

Look no farther than Neuse Baptist Church for the best in good music and spiritual singing. Especially on Sunday night, and the best in plain, old fashioned, uncompromising Gospel preaching every service. Rev. Carey's message Sunday night, was very inspiring and uplifting. He began a series of messages from the book of Colossians on "The Power of Position, Profession and Possession, Colossians 1:1-3. At the close of the service one child went forward.

Last Wednesday night at our mid-week prayer service, we had as our guests, Rev. and Mrs. Worth Worley and family. Rev. Worley is Pastor of the Bible Baptist Church in Goldsboro. The Worleys will be leaving as missionaries to Korea the last of this month. Rev. Worley was our guest speaker for the evening.

Rev. Carey will be leaving Saturday, motoring to Savannah, Ga. where he will be speaking Sunday in the Derenne Bible Baptist Church. He will go from there to Jacksonville, Fla. where he will attend an International Bible Baptist Fellowship meeting. He will be speaking there Thursday night on the subject of "Religion In The Eyes of Apostasy."

We will have as our guest speaker next Sunday in the absence of our pastor, Rev. Ernie Lucas from Appamattox, Va. Rev. Lucas is a wonderful speaker. Please plan to visit and worship with us.

Next Saturday night will be our youth meeting again. Services will begin at 7:30. Mr. Titus Dickerson has been assigned youth leader. Mr. A. C. Lee who was leader has been elected Sunday School Superintendent. Mr. Lee was a

CARDS OF THANKS

I would like to thank the staff of Wake Forest Hospital for their kindness during my recent stay in the hospital. My thanks to all those who prayed for my recovery.
Mrs. Grace Ivy

To those who expressed their sympathy in so many ways during our recent bereavement, we extend our heartfelt thanks.
The family of wonderful youth leader, and we shall miss him, but we are confident Mr. Dickerson will do a marvelous job. Let each of us do our part to help him make young our part to help him make our young people's department the best this year it has ever been.

The Jr. High Girls Class No. 2 will be in charge of the program Saturday night. We feel sure it will be interesting. Mrs. Catherine Dickerson is Teacher and Mrs. Velma Chambers, substitute. Everyone is invited to attend. Refreshments will be served at the close of the service.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Boyce Lawrence and family last week and over the week end were Boyce's mother, Mrs. Edna Lawrence and his brother, Mr. William Lawrence from Windsor, N. C.

It was wonderful to see Mrs. Lucy Allen back at church Sunday, after being ill for sometime. Mrs. Lucy and Mr. Mortimer are some of our oldest members and have been very faithful in attendance.

Mrs. Dolly Holiday has been sick for several weeks. We miss her and Mr. Marshall when they are not at church. We are praying she will soon recover and be back in church.

My Quest

I do not ask for glittering gold,
nor diamonds' wondrous shine,
I do not ask that mansions great,
nor palaces be mine.
I do not ask for brimming cup,
nor wealth's swift-tarnished fame.

I do not ask for man's applause,
nor yet a brilliant name,
I do not ask for bounties rich,
nor tables laden sweet.

I do not ask for roving field,
nor servants at my feet.
I ask for faith, for trust, for hope,
salvation offered free.

My sins made white beneath the blood of Christ who died for me.
I ask not for a mansion, nay,
but for a refuge sure,
Within the arms of one Divine,
His blood to make me pure.

I ask for strength to face each day,
and rest to bear the night.
I ask for bread to feed my soul
and on my pathway light.

I ask for peace, for love, for joy,
for blessings to abound,
The answer to this quest of life,
in finding Christ I found.

A Great Leader Still Leads

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

It has been said that a man is tallest when he is on his knees. The familiar picture of George Washington kneeling in prayer at Valley Forge reminds us that the "Father of our Country" was a man who walked close to God and who taught his soldiers to pray.

Washington recognized that human frailty is not a sign of weakness — that it is the first step toward finding the needed strength. To call upon God for the resources we lack is to supply our deepest want.

The example of our first President still points men to God. Just as George Washington found God's strength available, so do men in our time when they call upon Him in faith. Discover Him in your own life. Worship God in your church next Sunday.
