

Ag Boys Rake, Seed Holding Lot

ure teacher Mac Bridge and his stu- tivity House last Friday. The lot has been donated to the town for use as a park. - (Photo by Bob Allen)

Wake Forest Social & Local

Mrs. Howard Mangum had as their guests this Mrs. Mangum's nieces, Drum, and Beth Wig-ster, Virginia. Holden, Jr. and Mrs. us visited Mr. and Mrs. lins in Kinsale, Va. idie O'Shields in Rich-st. Mrs. Melvin Winters re in Norfolk, Virginia elp Mrs. Winters' par- Mrs. Henry H. Meek- e their 36th wedding Mr. Henry Meekins me with them for a rs. Harold D. Meekins of Norfolk, Va. visited her family, Rev. and Winters and Kris over

rs. Martin Roy of Ft. ra and Mr. and Mrs. els of Newport News, ed the Lyman Frank- her the weekend. Mrs. sister of Mrs. Frank-nd Mr. Franklin attend- know in Mt. Holly, N. C.

ey Becton had as her s Monday her sister, Smith, her niece, Mrs. ell of High Point, her Mrs. Edna Whitehead aCliff. and her brother s, Dr. and Mrs. A. P. of Rocky Mount. Mrs. ar Mrs. Edna Whitehead m with Mrs. Becton for members of the Book uia went to Winston-Sa- stesday to tour the Old oration. They spent the here and were delight- detailed restoration.

Club Studiosa ers Tour nlem Tuesday

making the trip were at: Underwood, Mrs. W. H. rs. John Sanderford, Wooten, Jr., Mrs. John k. Dickie Davis, Mrs. aritchin, Jr., and Mrs.

Journal ant Editor i The Darches

at editor of the Farm azine, Sally Kaiser, of visited the Douglas ty last week.

nes are a Farm Jour- oup and Miss Kaiser find out what is going e and what their prob-

is concerned mainly f home furnishings

Mrs. Darch had injured Mrs. L. K. Stephenson isitor around to visit orest.

Notice We honor any funeral home's burial association

alled upon to render funeral service to a family that has ocation insurance with another funeral firm, the fam- eceive full credit for this burial association at Bright Home.

Bright Funeral Home

, 2-Way Radio, Oxygen-Equipped, Conditioned Ambulance Service

• The FUNERAL HOME OF WHITE CARS 6-5811 Corner of So. Main and Elm Wake Forest

Missionary To Phillipines Will Speak at WMU Mon.

Dr. Walter James Moorhead, missionary on furlough from the Phillipines, will be the guest speaker at the General W. M. S. meeting at the Wake Forest Baptist Church on Monday, April 17, at 8:00 p. m. Dr. Moorhead has been a teacher in the Davas Bible School since 1962.

Invitations have been issued to all the local W. M. S. groups and other interested persons are cordially invited to hear this outstanding speaker.

Announce Birth

Dr. and Mrs. James Lawrence Devenau of Camp LeJeune announce the birth of a son James Lawrence, Jr. on April 7.

Mrs. Devenaux is the former Jerry Sue Stroud of Roanoke Rapids. Rev. and Mrs. I. T. Stroud are the great grandparents.

Local Native Attends Girl Scout Meet In Garmusch, Germany

GARMISCH, Germany, April 10th. Mrs. Max E. Wineinger, daughter of Mrs. Helen Johnston of Wake Forest, N. C. has arrived here to attend the annual conference of the North Atlantic Girl Scouts at the Garmisch Recreation Area, 11-13 April 1967.

Mrs. Wineinger, whose husband Sgt. Max E. Wineinger is serving with the 2d Bn 41st Arty in Aschaffenburg, Germany is one of 600 Girl Scout volunteer leaders attending the conference.

These volunteers serve approximately 20,000 American girls living temporarily a broad who through Girl Scouting have a link with home in a program they may continue when they return to the U. S. A.

In the three day conference Mrs. Wineinger will exchange ideas and experiences with other adult volunteers who serve as Girl Scout troop leaders, neighborhood chairmen, troop committee members, troop consultants, troop organizers, trainers of leaders and day camp directors.

Sorry, No Waste Paper Pick-up!

Mrs. J. L. Shearon announces that there will be no pick up of newspapers this week. Please do not put them out. Announcements will be made later.

Students of Holding School of Dance participated in the Wake Forest Band Variety Show last week. Some of the ballet dancers were (l to r)

Mary Alice Warren, Hallie Arrington, Shirley Catherine Wooten, Margaret Edwards, Betsy Poerschke, Kathy McDonald, and Judy Harstfield.

Raleigh Editor Sam Ragan Speaks at Club Banquet

The Wake Forest Woman's Club held their annual banquet April 6, at the Seminary Cafeteria. The theme was "Hats and Spring" and large red tulips were arranged in a huge hat on the speaker's table. Smaller hats on the other tables contained mixed spring flowers. The programs represented straw hats for the men and hats decorated with flowers and ribbons for the ladies.

After the invocation by Mrs. James Blackmore, chaplain, the welcome was given by Mrs. R. W. Wilkinson, III, president, to the members, husbands, and other guests present. Mr. Carlton Chappell responded.

At the conclusion of the bountiful dinner, Dr. Ben Johnson sang two numbers. He was accompanied by Mrs. Donald Cook.

Mrs. C. C. Hildebrand introduced the speaker, Mr. Sam Ragan, who is the executive editor of "The News and Observer" and "The Raleigh Times". Since 1948 he has written a Sunday column "Southern Accent" in "The News and Observer", a column of literary criticism, anecdotes, oddments, commentaries, and poetry. He also conducts a writers' workshop at N. C. State University.

Mr. Ragan spoke of various writing tricks and techniques. He said writing is both a disease and a high calling, a desire of man to preserve something of himself for posterity, and that all writers in a sense are reporters. The Bible and the dictionary are indispensable books for writers, he added. Mr. Ragan said all writers have different habits, some can write only in solitude; others must be with people. Some writers are inspired by nature; others are distracted by it. He defined a poem as merely fragments of sights and sounds and other things that nag at the subconscious until they come into being. Mr. Ragan concluded his speech by reading poems and excerpts he has at times published in "Southern Accent".

Mrs. John Lyon, awards chairman, presented the "Wake Forest Clubwoman of the Year" award to the president, Mrs. Wilkinson. Mrs. Lyon mentioned that it was because of Mrs. Wilkinson's devotion to good organization and to her careful planning that her year's work has run so smoothly.

Mrs. Bob Olsen, chairman of the Fine Arts Department, presented to the club a beautiful pair of silver candelabra which were bought by the members of her department from proceeds from their year's projects. Members of this department were recognized: Mrs. Olsen, Mrs. J. L. Baum, Mrs. Randolph Benton, Mrs. Henry Curren, Mrs. H. H. Harris, Mrs. Guy Hill, Miss Nannie Holding, Mrs. Marc Lovelace, Mrs. Paul Newton, Mrs. W. C. Stephenson, and Mrs. John Wayland.

Mrs. Wilkinson recognized the hostesses who had planned and decorated for the banquet. They were Mrs. Harold Washington and Mrs. Henry Curren, co-chairman, Mrs. Ben Johnson, Mrs. Everette Snyder, Mrs. Carlton Chappell, Miss Mabel West, and Mrs. C. C. Hildebrand.

Don't take our word for it...

COME IN AND SEE HOW YOU SAVE!

• Tell A Friend About KEITH'S LOW PRICES! SAVE DAILY AT KEITH'S!!

Choice Rib & Sirloin (Good on the Grill) lb.

STEAK 89¢

Full Cut Choice Round lb. STEAK 85¢

Azalea Pure Pork 3 lbs. 99¢

First Cut Pork Chops 49¢

Strietmann's Chocolate Chip and Swedish Creams (SAVE 10c) bag 39¢

Wilson Sugar Cured 1/2 or whole lb. HAM 49¢

IVORY SOAP Personal Size 4 bars 25¢

HOOD PINK LOTION DETERGENT Quart 39¢ 1/2 Gal. 59¢

NEW ARMIX PURE SHORTENING 3 69¢ lb. Can

Libby's Pineapple-Grapefruit 46 oz. can

JUICE 41¢

cans

Double-Q lb. can Salmon 65¢

JELLIES

Apple-Blackberry, Apple-Grape, Apple-Strawberry 18 oz. glass 4 FOR $1

BEST SEAFOOD IN TOWN! ★ PLENTY OF FRESH OYSTERS

LUZIANNE COFFEE

R-T lb. bag

KEITH'S Super Market "Where Low Prices Are A Habit"

49¢

Oranges No. 1 Chow Doz. 29¢ lb. bag

GRAPEFRUIT each 7¢

Call 556-3133 for Free Delivery and Phone Order Service

South Brooks Street Behind Chappel Ford, Wake Forest, N. C.

BACON 49¢

lb. Columbia