Rev. Jerald Fountain Heads WF Elem. PTA

Seventy-five second grade pupils presented a rhythm band number at the Wake Forest Elementary School PTA meeting Thursday. Mrs. James Tull, music teacher, directed the group and Janice Winston, a second grader, was narrator. Second grade teachers are Mrs. Breta Jackson, Mrs. Merle Swett, Mrs. Margaret Moss, and

Building at WF Elem. School to Have Name Chosen

The Wake Forest Elementary PTA voted Thursday to select names for each building in the Elementary School complex. Mr. R. H. Forrest, principal, said it would make it easier to identify buildings when making class assignment. Mrs. John Sanderford, PTA president, named Miss Mabel West PTA historian to head a committee to recommend names. Suggestions should be made to Miss West.

Elem. School Will Give Spring Music Program May 5, 12

The May Day program presented by the Wake Forest Schools will be changed for this year.

Principal R. H. Forrest has announced that a Spring Musical program will be presented in the school auditorium on May 5 and May 12.

Mr. Forrest said since the high school and elementary school became separate units, it has been difficult for the Elementary School to put on the elaborate May Day in the football stadium. Last fall the Music Department was asked to revise the program adapted to the school's situation.

The lower grades will present their program on May 5 and the upper grades on May 12.

Mrs. Elaine Broadway.

Miss Mabel West gave the devotion based on the Twenty-Third Psalm.

Mrs. John Sanderford, PTA president, reported that the Ways and Means Committee had collected $175 in the Red Tag Drive. She said she felt that was less than should have been collected. The drive is still underway. Funds will go toward an intercommunications system for the school.

Officers for next year were elected as follows: Rev. Jerald Fountain, president; Mrs. J. A. Hartsfield, and Mrs. Rodney Bright, vice-presidents; Mrs. I. G. Critcher, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Walter Keith, recording secretary; and Wilbur Todd, treasurer.

A recommendation that the PTA have only six meetings a year, including a joint meeting with the high school PTA, was accepted. Mrs. Harvey Jones, Jr., chairman, Mrs. J. A. Jackson, and Mrs. J. A. Hartsfield will serve on a committee to decide which meeting are to be eliminated. The high school will have a similar committee.

Mrs. Sanderford asked those with perfect attendance for this year to please give their names to Mrs. John Stealy, secretary.

Mrs. Sanderford announced that the state PTA convention would be April 25-27. She especially urged attendance at the United Forces for Education Meeting, Wednesday, April 26th, from 2:30 - 3:30.

She reminded parents that it is important that they write their legislators and urged their support in educational legislation.

A report of the program appears on page one.

Makes Honor Roll

Linda Rollins, freshman at East Carolina College, made the honor roll for the fall quarter.

Pauline's Prattle

By MRS. PAULINE HARDING

Sunday was such a lovely day! And the wedding of Miss Linda Fuquay and Mr. Charles Wall was quite lovely, too. The bride was so pretty in her long gown and train and her bridesmaids and maid of honor wore long yellow gowns and carried matching bouquets. The ceremony was performed in the Longview Baptist Church in Raleigh and was followed by a very nice reception there. The punch was yellow to match her bridesmaids dresses and all the guests had a nice time. We congratulate the couple and wish for them much joy and happiness and welcome them to their Wake Forest home. Hope Linda will be happy with us.

There were other enjoyable events on the lovely Sunday. Mrs. Alice Keith invited all her sisters to her home for a luncheon together. There were a lot of guests, lots of good food, and much fun. Those attending were the Vaden Newtons of Raleigh, the Raymond Hayes of Bunn, the Tom Hayes of Franklinton, the June Edkins of Rolesville, the Albert Rosses of Danville, Va. and Wake Foresters included the Jessie Walls, the Johnnie Keiths, the Ben Pearces, the Albert Heights, the Bobby Tilleyes, the Robert Keiths and Mrs. Nannie Tilley and Mrs. Helen Jones. Sounds like loads of fun!

The children of Mrs. Minnie Massey all got together Sunday, too. It was in celebration of Mrs. Massey's birthday. Enjoying the affair with the Boyce Nances were the Andrew Masseys and Lawson Smiths of Wake Forest, the Joe Densons of Charlotte and the Alec Masseys from Enfield. Many more happy birthdays to Mrs. Massey. Her sisters, Mrs. Zeb Dean and Mrs. J. W. Mason were her guests also.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hobgood were in Burlington for the weekend as guests of their daughter, Mrs. Mary Alice Bridges, and her husband.

In Roanoke Rapids for the weekend were Mrs. Oreater Harding and Freddie. They visited with Mrs. Harding's sister, Mrs. Nina Mae Carroll, and her family.

Enjoying a very pleasant evening at Memorial Auditorium Saturday night were Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Dixon and Mrs. G. H. Harding. It was a concert of Barber Shop quartet style singing.

Enjoying a concert at Durham, N. C. on Monday night of the "Men of Lee" from Lee College in Cleveland, Tenn. were quite a few Wake Foresters. Those attending were: Mr. John Hicks, Mr. Mack Weaver, Mr. Roger Hales, Mrs. Jessie Griffin, Miss Renda Griffin, Mr. Gary Wall, Mrs. B. C. Dixon, Mrs. Ann Ray, Mr. G. H. Harding, Mr. Andrew Massey and Mr. Lawson Smith, Rev. and Mrs. E. E. Powers, Charles and Craig.

You know — we just have readers everywhere — even out in California! So we are sending a big happy birthday wish way out to Alamanda, California to Patricia Height Kinton! Happy Birthday—but oh we wish we could go with the Wake Weekly and deliver it in person!

Mrs. Oma Wadford enjoyed a luncheon visit last Wednesday with her former pastor, Rev. Richard Bray of Weems, Va. He was the first pastor of Neuse Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Wright and Mrs. H. L. Woodlief visited with Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Sabol and children in Williamsburg, Va. Sunday and also were in Hopewell to see the brother of Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Woodlief.

There will be a special service at the Church of God tonight (Thursday) when Rev. T. N. Ward will bring slides of the mission work in Trinidad and Barbados. Everyone is invited to attend.

Tenoran® for soybeans, the best early post-emergence weedkiller.

Don't use it till you see a stand of beans.

Tenoran lets you see your stand of soybeans before you invest in weed control. Then you can knock out the troublesome broadleaf weeds. Just spray Tenoran before the weeds get 2 inches tall — in about 10 days you'll have dead weeds and clean beans. This is the way to weed soybeans.

Tenoran kills annual broadleaf weeds such as cocklebur, morningglory, velvetleaf and pigweed — the weeds that come through preemergence weedkillers. This year wait till you see your beans — then wipe out the weeds with Tenoran Herbicide. Order Tenoran from your dealer today. C I B A
