Wake Forest Social & Local

Mrs. W. D. Richardson is a patient at Mary Elizabeth Hospital where she is to have surgery today.

Mark Ward, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Ward is recovering nicely from surgery at Rex Hospital.

Mrs. L. T. Wilson had her two brothers visiting her the week of July 4. The brothers, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Joyner of West New York, N. J., and Staff Sgt. William Joyner and son, Nickie of Fort Monroe, Va., were also entertained at a barbecue July 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hanson visited Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Beck in Alexandria, Va. over the weekend. Ruth Hicks, who had been up there for the past three weeks, came back with them.

Mrs. Linwood Hicks of Raleigh fell and broke her leg last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ray spent their weeks vacation with Mr. and Mrs. James Davis and family in Redkey, Indiana. They went to Indianapolis to the Capital and to the Indianapolis Motor Speedway. They reported a real swell time.

Visiting the 4th Weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ray were Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Smith from Hollywood, Florida.

Birth

Mr. and Mrs. Harold H. Moore of Asheville announce the birth of a son, Patrick Moyer, on July 5. They have three other children, Hal, Elizabeth, and Terry. Mrs. Moore is the former Pat Durham of Wake Forest.

Miss Mabel M. West is spending the month of July with the Moores, her cousins.

Former Miss NC to Wed Grandson of Resident

The announcement of Miss Nannette Minor's engagement to Richard Godwin is of more than passing interest to Wake Forest folks.

Miss Minor, as Miss North Carolina, rode in the Wake Forest Christmas parade, and the future bridegroom is the grandson of Mrs. Y. B. Clifton.

Richard Godwin is from Raleigh and grew up in Tabernacle Baptist Church. After he graduated from North Carolina State University, he started working for Union Carbide's Consumer Products Division in Charlotte. His former ministers, Dr. James L. Potter and Rev. Harold I. Shoemaker who were at Tabernacle Baptist Church for many years, are now serving at Pritchard Memorial Baptist Church in Charlotte. Richard went to visit Pritchard one Sunday morning to see both Mr. Shoemaker and Dr. Potter. Nannette Minor was playing the organ there and that is where Richard and Nannette met.

They dated a couple of times before Nannette went to the Miss North Carolina Pageant. After she won the crown, they kept a rather irregular dating schedule. But, one month ago, she gave up her crown and now they are able to announce their engagement.

They will be married at Pritchard Memorial Baptist Church in Charlotte on September 2 by Dr. James L. Potter. The service will be held at 7:00 p. m. and followed by a reception in the fellowship hall.

After the wedding, they will reside in Charlotte.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Minor of Charlotte announce the engagement of their daughter, Nannette Jackson Minor, to Richard Holder Godwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Holder Godwin of Raleigh. His grandmother is Mrs. Y. B. Clifton of Wake Forest.

Miss Minor completed her reign as Miss North Carolina last month. She is a graduate of Myers Park High School and the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

Youngsville Boy Scouts Return From Week's Camp

Troop 588 of Youngsville attended a week of summer camp at Camp Reeves last week. Camp Reeves is part of the new Scout reservation near Carthage. The boys slept on ground beds and did their own cooking. They earned many merit badges.

On Wednesday the parents went and carried a picnic supper. They attended the campfire after supper.

Boys camping were Rodney Roberts, Jimmy Moss, Glenn Evans, Ricky Reddick, Billy Moss, Phil Wiggins, Gordon Conyers, Raney Edwards, Morris Callette, Mark Woodlief, Mike Smith, Johnnie Conyers, Herbie Alford, Mike Hall, Stanley Young, Ricky DeMent, and Ricky Murphy.

Adults camping were Archie Brown, Epp Catlette, and Clifton Winston Jr.

Watch out for brighter colors in men's shoes next year, say experts. Italian designers say men's footwear has been too conservative and they are planning to bring out designs in about five different shades of green.

Miss Renda Louise Griffin Will Marry Gary Wall In September

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Griffin announce the engagement of their daughter, Renda Louise to William Gary Wall, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Wall of Wake Forest, N. C. A September 9 wedding is planned.
