

And The Walls Came Tumbling Down

of the Forest Theatre building, from a hydra crane and a large section came

July 1966, gets a push Monday tumbling dcwn with a loud crash. —(Allen photo)

e Wheeler Is Miss Phanton

Phantom" conast Wednesday igsville High assembly in r was crown-1967-68." She year's "Miss Hill. Miss Hill Wheeler with long stemmed

Vice President il, was Master introduced the escorts as fol-Curt Fuller: David Timber-— E. J. Wil-- Clarence eler - C. L.

engine (arr and motor

Miss Wheeler and Miss Hill

Phantoms Split Two With Bailey

By Vickie Wheeler

The Youngsville Phantoms went down to Bailey and really gave them a "Shake Down" Tuesday night. The girls came within one point of Bailey but lost in the final round by seven, 49-42. Harriett Pearce from Youngsville and Doris Tant from Bailey tied for high scorer honors with 20 each. Vicky Rogers was second for YHS with 16. Williams and Harris tied for second for Bailey with 13 each.

Those fabulous Phantoms clicked up another win as they rolled past Bailey 65-48. Senior E. J. Wilder sparkled as he dazzled the crowd scoring 24 points. C. L. Wrenn was second with 20 points. Fireball Jesse Preddy from last year's season who had been out with a broken wrist saw action in the new season for the first time. He scored 4 points. J. E. Beard present. had 20 to be high scorer for the Bunn, December 5.

Wrenn. Each girl carried a yellow long stemmed rose.

Vickie was chosen by the faculty on personality, cooperation, appearance and scholastic averages.

Vickie is the daugnter of Mr. and Mrs. Reddic Wheeler of Rt. 1, Louisburg.

FRANKLIN VOTERS PASS COURTHOUSE BOND ISSUE

Youngsville voters, in a light election, joined Franklin County voters in approving the $200,000 County Courthouse Bonds Saturday by a margin of 534 to 317, according to unofficial returns. Youngsville approved the issue 34 to 12.

It has not been announced just how soon the work will get underway, but it is expected to be completed in time for the new court reform which takes over on Dec.

Included in the two-story addition will be space for the new court offices and jury and court rooms. On the first floor new space will be added to accomodate the offices already there. The building will be air conditioned.

WF Community Council to Meet

The Wake Forest Community Council will meet Tuesday, Dec. 5 at 12 o'clock, in the Seminary Cafeteria.

All members are urged to be

Many a man thinks he is fol-Youngsville meets Bunn at lowing his natural bent, when he rect the choirs, and Mr. Walter

Wake Weekly The Youngsville - Rolesville Record

Published at Wake Forest, North Carolina 27587

Thursday Morning, Nov. 30, 1967

Christmas Parade Friday a

Town employees are shown putting the finishing touches to the Christmas decorations along S. White Street Monday. The multi-color lights will be turned on for the Friday Christmas parade which ushers in the holiday season. The town also decorates a beautiful tree on the seminary cam--(Photo by Bob Allen) pus across from the underpass besides the water tank on Elm Street.

Christmas

The annual Christmas Concert will be presented in the chapel of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary Tuesday, December 5 at 8:00 p.m.

Concert

Tuesday

Choral music of four centuries will tell, in moving and dramatic tones, the story of the Prophecy, the Nativity, the Vision of the Shepherds, the Visit of the Wise Men, the Admiration of the Faithful and the King in Glory. Among those composers whose works will be featured are Morales (1500-1553) and Scheidt (1587-1654) as well as contemporary composers such as Joseph Clokey and Flor Peeters.

The Seminary Mixed Choirs and the Seminary Men's Choir will join in "A Christmas Fanfare" by Ron Nelson and "Glory to God" by Tschesnokoff for an arousing finale to the concert.

Professor Ben Johnson will diis just too lazy to straighten up. Ross will be organist for the pro-

You Are Invited

You are cordially invited to attend the Annual Christmas Fellowship Tea, sponsored by the Wake Forest Extension Homemakers Club, Sunday, December 3 from three to five o'clock at the Wake Forest Community House.

The Tea is a project of the Family Life Department of the club and children are always welcome to come with their parents. Newcomers are especially invited to attend.

Look Out Below-w-w!

This huge section of bricks of the Forest Theatre building on the southwest corner is stopped by the camera just as it broke loose from the pushing of a big crane and fe'll with a thundering crash. It was an awesome sight to many spectators, some of whom can be seen at right. The tons of bricks are now being loaded on trucks and from reports, should bring a high price as antique bricks. -(Phoot by Bob Allen)

DON JOHNSTON, JR.

Don P. Johnston Jr. 50, died un- members of the Wake Forest Woexpectedly Sunday at his home on man's Club will take place in the North Main St.

Son of Mrs. Petronia Powell Johnston and the late Mr. Don P. Johnston of Wake Forest, he was born in Albuquerque, New Mexico bers on Sept. 26, 1917. He was graduated with honors from Princeton quested to bring a gift to be sent University in 1939 and after gradnation from Harvard Divinity School, he attended Boston Colege where he received his MA degree in Psychiatric Social work. He was a veteran of WWII and spent two years in Spain in special church work. He recently return- Santa Claus himself. ed to Wake Forest to make his home with his mother

Family services were held at the home Tuesday followed by inter- keeping out of trouble almost as ment at Wake Forest Cemetery at much trouble as getting into it. 2:30 p.m. Dr. J. Allen Easley, officiated. Active pallbearers were Allen Paschall, Thurman Kitchin Jr., W. H. (Buddy) Holding, Tommy Holding III, Wait Brewer Jr., Bruce Keith, Lawrence Harris and Frank Toney. Honorary pallbear-Edgar E. Folk, Harvey Holding, out-look for this season. Ben Aycock and William Royall.

cil Leonard said Tuesday bands starting at 3 p.m. Friday. from Wakelon and Vaiden Whitley | All parade participants are ask-this year in the clown, pet and decorated bike divisions. All Special guest speaker on Monday night at the regular meeting of the Rolesville Lions Club has District Governor C. Ray Pruitt of Frank-

Governor Pruitt discussed "The Value of Man With Regards to His Value to Humanity." Other guests included Deputy District Governor

Sir Walter Lions Club in Raleigh. President of the Rolesville Lions, dents that they will have a good supply of the Benson's Old Home Fruit Cakes on hand which they are selling. The cakes come in attractive holiday boxes and they are pre-sliced for your convenience. The 11/2 pound size sells for $1.75 and the 3 lb. size is $3.25. Anyone desiring one of these cakes may contact McLemore, or any other member of the Rolesville club.

Newcomers Club To Meet Wednesday

The Christmas meeting of the Wake Forest Newcomers Club will be held Wednesday, Dec. 6 at Plantation Inn at 11:30.

Mrs. Edgar E. Folk, Wake Forest antique dealer, will speak. an inexpensive gift.

Mrs. Robert J. McCamy said members of the club and their families have been given a special invitation to attend the Wake Forest Christmas Tea Sunday.

Christmas Dinner Tickets Now On Sale

Tickets for the annual Christmas dinner, one of Wake Forest's nicest traditions, are now on sale at Dr. Mackie's office.

Tickets will also be on sale at the Newcomers Club and Woman's Club meetings next week. Mrs. A. C. Reid will have a booth open in Western Auto during the morning on Dec. 6, 7 and 8.

College Students

In the annual Christmas edition on Dec. 21, The Wake Weekly will again salute our college students. Please let us know about any students in Youngsville, Rolesville, Wake Forest and surrounding areas. Call 556-3182 soon!

Betty Everett-6' Red Head Red Head—Forward—Mississippi

Four high school bands, ten pro- youngsters through the eighth fessional floats, plus many school grade are eligible for prizes in entries and lovely young ladies each of the three divisions, but will help usher Santa Claus into everyone competing MUST regis-Wake Forest Friday afternoon at ter at the booth which will be located near the Wake Forest Col-Jaycee parade co-chairman Ce- lege Birthplace on North Main St.

will join the Wake Forest and Du- ed to be at the line up area and Bois High bands to provide music. ready to march by 3:30. The floats A lot of interest has been shown will be lined up on North Main street by the time school is out.

> Other units expected are Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts, a TRAIN float, Jesse Wall's honey queen, antique cars, Rescue Squad, National Guard vehicles, and a flying machine.

Leonard said he had not heard from some groups that usually have entries, but he expects some of them to be on hand by parade time.

Wake Forest Mayor Paul K. Brixhoff will be parade marshall and officers of local civic clubs are expected to ride in the parade.

The parade route will be the same as last year. It will leave North Main, turn left on North St. James Mills of Wendell, and Zone around the campus and under the Chairman Frank Colvert from the underpass, then it will turn right up White Street and proceed to Elm where it will turn left and go Leslie McLemore, reminds resi- east on Elm to Brooks, north on Brooks to Roosevelt, then west on Roosevelt to the underpass and back to the point of origin.

Christmas decorations are already up on White Street and the live Christmas tree on the campus opposite the underpass has been decorated. The lights will be turned on as the parade gets to the underpass Friday.

Parking will not be allowed on White Street after 3 p.m. Friday. however parking lots may be used. The parade is sponsored by the Wake Forest Chamber of Commerce and produced by the Wake Forest Jaycees.

Firemen Burn Old Building

Wake Forest Firemen burned an out building back of the Wake For-Each member is asked to bring est College Birthplace Monday

Chief Albert Perry said the Department of Archives and History had requested them to burn the building which was not included in restoration plans.

A fire alarm was turned in by someone who saw the fire shortly after 7 p.m.

Judy Lockhart-"Personality Gal" Red Head—Guard—Graham, N.C.

All-American Girls To Meet Jaycees

Coach Larry Emison and his All-American Red Heads, world famous girls basketball team, will meet the Wake Forest Jaycee team here Monday, Dec. 4.

The game, which should prove to be very interesting, will be at 8 p.m. in the WFHS gym.

DuBois Team Expects A Good Year The DuBois High School basket- | The squad includes James King, | class who will be playing Jr. Var-

ers were W. R. Powell Jr., Dr. ball team which finished last sea- Jerome Anderson, Charles Flem- sity but are varsity caliber. They George Mackie, John G. Mills, son with an 18-8 record has a good ing, Larry Morris, William Crump, include Mike Jeffreys, William Luweek that he lost only two players are seniors.

Woman's Club Plans Christmas Meeting The annual Christmas party for Community House Dec. 7th., at 8 p.m. Each member is reminded to bring a Christmas gift to be placed under the Christmas tree for exchange among club mem-

In addition, members are re-to Murdock Center suitable for retarded individuals of all ages.

The Finance Chairman is also sponsoring a table for gifts to be donated by club members and sold at the meeting. Plans include the personal appearance of Mr.

Coach D. M. Fulford said this ry Lucas. Only two of the group The home season opens Friday boys are experienced lettermen, good prospects in the freshmen Friday.

James Sneed, Jerry Wilkerson, cas, Donnell Williams and Charles Coleman Alston, Tim Gill and Ter-King.

when they play Springfield. They Every day is judgment day - from last year's squad; so all his In addition, Fulford has some are also at home the following looking north on U. S. Hwy. 1 shewing skid marks ow) before ending up on left side, Ford (right) has just been hoisted by wrecker. Inset shows truck front (left) and

eral Injured In Head-on Wreck Tears Off Entire Truck Front was indirectly lane. The truck crashed at a 45 in satisfactory condition Wednes- side of the road, Trooper Cook

one seriously. of N. C. 98 Sun-ate Trooper K. et pick-up also Hospital.

that injured sev- operated south by Nathaniel Por- truck. Her husband miraculously Jefferys is charged with drivescaped injury although the ter Daniel, 50, of Raleigh. Jefferys said he didn't know anything about a suitcase but a car tor parts were scattered all about. hit his truck in the rear, Trooper Cook reported but said there was a '66 Plymouth no evidence of his claim.

g cars to brake ried the injured to Wake Memorial ported in satisfactors.

orth by George Most seriously injured, suffer-66, Negro, of Rt. ing from a head injury, was Jefed into the left night. However she was reported and she saw the suitcase on the emergency, Cook explained.

ad-on wreck on degree angle into a '64 Ford being day. She was thrown out of the said. front of the truck was torn off. The | Cook reported. No charges were engine, hood, right fender and mo- made against Mrs. Youngblood.

Daniel's wife, Nancy, and children, Wayne, 15, and William, 13, were not any worse, judging from Two ambulances and a Wake abrasions and released minimum, 15, the condition of the smashed veby Mrs. Thomapparently causapparently causapparentl Wednesday.

Mrs. Youngblood said she heard All motorists are supposed to n a straight line ferys' wife, Rosa Bell, who had not daughter said there was the have their vehicles under control unknown reason regained consciousness Sunday daughter said there was a wreck and be able to stop in case of

Trooper' Cook commented that it was miraculous that the injuries Motorists are required to secure any kind of load, Cook said, but this is primarily for trucks. There is nothing specific for cars.

use a lot of it daily.