

Eleven rising seniors at Brevard High School and seven at Rosman High School were awarded blazers by Olin for having been named Junior Marshalls by school faculty. Shown on graduation day at Rosman High School, top photo, are (left to right) Karen Owen (daughter of Jo Ann Owen of Ecusta Customer Service), Karen Fisher, Leona Shelton, Sara Cathey (sister of William Cathey, III of Ecusta Converting), Leroy Morgan, Patty Jones and Patricia Barclay. In the lower photo, taken at the Brevard Music Center where Brevard High School graduation took place, are Margaret Gosnell (daughter of Woodfin Gosnell of Ecusta Converting), Martin Reidinger (son of F. L. Reidinger of Technical, Susan Prugh, Jimmy Perkins, Jo Ann Spanbauer, Wendy Wasser, Dawn Deaver (daughter of Gerald Deaver of Traffic), Cindy Smart, Ann Bordonaro, John Monteith (son of A. J. Monteith of Ecusta Maintenance), and Jayme Sterk.

MERIT SCHOLARS' DAY AT PISGAH FOREST

Lisa Driscoll and William Tomlinson were honored at luncheon in the Ecusta cafeteria for having been awarded the Olin Corporation Charitable Trust Merit Scholarship. Participants left to right include Col. C. C. Hardin, guidance counselor at Brevard High School; Robert G. Cunningham, Jr., group counsel; John S. Candler, director of employee and community relations; Larry H. Staples, vice president and general manager, Ecusta Paper Division; Dr. Russell N. Clark, vice president, technical; Miss Driscoll, student at Brevard High School; her mother, Mrs. J. E. Driscoll; Mrs. J. H. Tomlinson; Tomlinson, director of environmental control and energy; their son, William Tomlinson, student at Hendersonville High School; John D. Link, vice president and general manager, Film Division; and Miss Driscoll's father who retired recently as assistant to Ecusta's director of production. Tomlinson and Miss Driscoll were among seven Western North Carolina high school seniors who were awarded corporate-sponsored four-year Merit Scholarships administered by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation of Evanston, Ill.