The Machinist Department is a new and valuable feature in the many industries now carried on by the school. In connection with this department is a well regulated foundry in which are made grates for fireplaces, coal stoves and cooking ranges, irons, window weights, etc. All the grates used by the school during the past winter were made in the foundry on the school grounds. This work has been very much handicapped owing to the fact that a building in which to carry on the main part of the work was very much needed ; one is how being erected and before commencement a ma chine shop, complete in all its parts will be added to the buildings.
