The fears we borrow are the hardest to drive away. Whenever the flesh is on the throne, the devil is king. Unless you want to be poor, don't try to keep all you get.

The man will always be busy who truly follows Christ.

The devil has no better helper than a harmless looking lie. i It is harder to dinc with some men than it is to fast alone. We are rich, not in what we have, but in what we cannot lose.

It is doubtful if there is any man who has not at some time in his life been a hypocrite. The man who has lived only for him-and grounded in faith. The man who has never used his eyes to consider the mercles of God, has used them to small purpose.

Turning a mad dog leose is a trifling thing, compared to what the devil can do with a gossiping tongue. In the very same breath with which Jesus said, "Let not your heart be trou-may not be so full as he wishes, but if he is wise he will neglect him coffers awhile and attend to his cough. A :nan's coffers may be so secure that no one can take them away from him. But a little cough has taken many a man away from his coffers. The "slight cough" is somewhat like the small pebble that lies on the mountain side, and appears utterly insignificant. A fluttering bird, perhaps, starts the pebble rolling, and the rolling pebble begets an avalanche that buries a town. Many fatal diseases begin with a slight cough. But any cough, taken in time, can be cured by the use of

WHAT POSTPONED THE TELF TO HOT

From the Tribune, Cullman, Ala.
Two well known ladies of Holly Pond, an County, Alabama, are the Misses H. A. and M. F. Shepard, and they are hold in

Two years ago, Miss M. F. Shepard, was stricken with terrible sickness, from which she suffered long. The history of the case is so interesting that we publish the lady's

"Two years ago inst February, I was

"Two years ago inst February, I was stricken with a terrible pain around my heart, which prostrated me for hours, and from then on I grew weaker until spring, when from impaired circulation and impoverishment of the blood, a stomach difficulty set in, bloating my body fearfully. Of course I was confined to my bed and to add to my sorrows a general attack of rheumatism fol lowed, so that motion was painful, and locomotion impossible.

"Several physicials were consulted but they gave me no relief, natil the last came, who so helped my stomach difficulty, that after several months I was able to sit up. The rheumatism, however, stubbornly stayed, and I was advised that my only hope was the Hot Springs of Arkansus. I was recommended to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.
"During my illness, I had taken two boxes of these self same pills, but not in the way recommended, as I was taking other remedies. Now though, I determined to try them properly, as I was no longer under a physician's care, and could do as I pleased, and my sister, Miss H. A. Shepard, at my request, ordered aix boxes of Pink Pills for me, as I could not leave the house and could only hobble with the aid of crutches.

"By the time I had finished the pills, I had given up crutches, though I was still almost, a skeleton from the ordeal through which I could not leave the house and could only hobble with the aid of crutches.

"By the time I had finished the pills, I had given up crutches, though I was still almost a skeleton from the ordeal through which I had passed. I am now quite flashy, and the only agent that has caused the change is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, for I used no other medicine. My right hand is still drawn so that I can only use the thumb and first finger, and my back is still lame, but I am in better health than for many years. None of my friends expected me to live, and at one time it was feared my reason was giving way. I do not know how to pay a sufficiently high tribute to Dr. Williams' medicine. It is, I believe, the grandest blood medicine that was ever prepared.

"Now, having stated my own case, let me refer to my sister, Miss H. A. Shepard, who had a soirrhous growth on her right temple. This was terribly inflamed and spreading so fast, that I prevailed upon her to order five dollars' worth of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and test their virtue as a blood cleaner, as the only means of arresting the rapid growth of the cancer. This she did, and has taken about seven of the boxes, and is still taking them. The sore has stopped spreading, and appears to be healing. When she began to take the pille she was the thinnest living being I ever saw that could move about. Now she has gained in flesh, her skin has regained its normal appearance, and she is stronger, and her general health is better than it has been in many years. God grant she may be spared the horrible death with which she was threatened. My sister's case, more than my own, has induced me to write this statement, in order that it may be made public.

(Signed) "Cullman Co., Alabama."

It Tickled Boston.
In one of Lowell's letters to Briggs. the former mentions Thackeray's visit to Besten, and says that during the meeting of Thackeray with Ticknor, the latter said: "One mark of a gentle-man is to be well-looking-for good blood shows itself in good features.' "A pretty speech," replied Thackeray, "for one broken-nosed man to make to another." and in the letter Lowell added: "All Boston has been secretly tickled about it."
