I Have No Stomach Said a jolly man of 40, of almost aldermanic rotundity, "since taking Hood's Sarsaparilla." You may be put into this delightful condition if you will take Hood's Sarsaparilla America's Greatest Medicine.

MY YOUNG MASTER. Mr. Editor: I do not pretend to be as wise as Rev. McMullen. "So he may rush," hence, "Bishop Small Errs." All succeed in doing this save God and(?) the Reverend. I am not "windy," and so will not be drawn out in any discussion by anything said of me, but will obey my young master; as he says, the less I say the better. Hit my wife, wrongfully, and he will feel me. When I was young I had respect for my seniors. J. B. Small.

REV. J. H. MANLEY. A distinguished Negro preacher has been appointed to Old Ship A. M. E. Zion Church, of this city, in the person of Rev. J. H. Manley, D. D. Mr. Manley hails from Florida. He comes highly endorsed by both white and colored.

He is said to be one of the sweetest singers of his race. He has drawn large audiences of both white and colored, North and South. As a preacher he is practical and pointed, as a financier he has but few equals in his Church. Large gatherings greet him whenever it is known that he is going to preach and sing; some of the best white people of Pensacola attended his services every Sabbath. There have already arrangements been made for the accommodation of white people who may desire to attend his services at Old Ship.

The membership of the above named Church are delighted over their new pastor. And it is predicted already that the Church will not be sufficient to accommodate the large audience.—Montgomery Weekly Press.

THE RIGHT MAN. BY WM. C. PIERSON. Our most worthy Bishop Small made no mistake in sending to the South Mississippi Conference on the Meridian district as Presiding Elder a Joshua in the person of Rev. J. S. Jackson. I was appointed as pastor to Cookville. Rev. Jackson had the pleasure of being in the first love-feast and general class that had been held for the last four years here. At the quarterly conference March 5th he allowed no officer to turn either to the right or left, but stay in the middle of the law. He knows how to stir lazy fellows until they say "I will do better."

Sunday he preached the funeral of one of the oldest Zionites in this section of the country who had been a class-leader in the Cookville church for more than 30 years. He was 70 years old. Peace be to his ashes. His name was Curry Binion, the father of R. C. Binion, preacher's steward. The theme of Rev. Jackson's discourse was, "The Christian's challenge to the enemy." His text was 1 Cor. 15:55. On his district three or four persons generally join the church at each service he holds.

A Guardsman's Trouble. From the Detroit (Mich.) Journal.

The promptness with which the National Guard of the different states responded to President McKinley's call for troops at the beginning of the war with Spain made the whole country proud of its citizen soldiers. In Detroit there are few guardsmen more popular and efficient than Max R. Davies, first sergeant of Co. B. He has been a resident of Detroit for the past six years, and his home is at 418 Third Avenue. For four years he was connected with the well known wholesale drug house of Farand, Williams & Clark in the capacity of book-keeper.

"I have charged up many thousand orders for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People," said Mr. Davies, "but never knew their worth until I used them for the cure of chronic dyspepsia. For two years I suffered and doctored for that aggravating trouble but could only be helped temporarily. 'I think dyspepsia is one of the most stubborn of ailments, and there is scarcely a clerk or office man but what is more or less a victim. Some days I could eat anything, while at other times I would be starving. Those distressed pains would force me to quit work."

"I tried the hot-water treatment thoroughly, but it did not affect my case. I have tried many advertised remedies but they would help only for a time. A friend of mine recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, but I did not think much of them."

"I finally was induced to try the pills and commenced using them. After taking a few doses I found much relief. I do not remember how many boxes of the pills I used, but I used them until the old trouble stopped. I know they will cure dyspepsia of the worst form and I am pleased to recommend them."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all dealers, or will be sent post paid on receipt of price, 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

A visit to the A. M. E. Zion Conference found them busy with the routine work. They gave us heartily greeting. Zion is moving onward and upward. God bless them and their good Bishop Holliday. It was an inspiration to meet the bishop's handsome wife busy helping on the work; one such woman is worth more to the race than twenty-five thousand of the kind of men one sees hanging out on the street corners and in front of saloons telling dirty stories, spreading scandals, and making a nuisance of themselves.—New Orleans African Methodist.
